LINDSAY, FRIDAY, MARCH 6th '08

MR. OBORNE'S ADDRESS AND LINDSAY'S PLANS.

The address of Mr. Osborne, of the C. P. R., before the Lindsay Board of Trade Friday evening, was a remarkably interesting and practical array of common sense statements by a man of affairs, gifted with imagination and humor, that enabled him to see things and advantages that many would pass by without notice. Mr. Osborne is not an orator as Brutus was, but he managed, in a terse and entertaining way, to put a lot of plain facts about enterprise and progress into a brief talk about transportation problems, and the way to deal with some of them.

The main point, brought out with emphasis, so far as this town is concerned, is that Lindsay is on a main line that will be two main lines of the C. P. R. and the G. T. R., and it was made quite clear that the town should be ready and willing to deal with some of them.

It is quite clear that the construction of the Georgian Bay line of the C. P. R. from Victoria Harbour, via Coldwater, Orillia and Lindsay to Hawkeston, will be started at an early date; and it may be accepted as certain that the Grand Trunk plans for double-tracking the old Midland line from Fort Hope-Lindsay-to-Midland, will be pushed through with vigor this year, as soon as the spring season opens, for the simple reason that this is the easiest grade and the shortest route via the Great Lakes, and the railways are simply compelled to commence construction now as an order to have a most important link in the railway chain from the Great West to the Atlantic ready for use "on time." Fortunately, there are no financial difficulties in the way, as the standing of both companies in the British money market is No. 1, and they have now all the money they need.

The special point of interest now for Lindsay to consider is this: Is it feasible to work out, perhaps in a modified way, the capital suggestions contained in Mr. Osborne's address as to planning out suitable sites, with railway accommodation and other details, for industrial enterprises. There are various sections of the town on the lines of the two railways that would afford excellent opportunities of working out the industrial ideas suggested in Mr. Osborne's address. Would it not be well for a committee of the Board of Trade to consider this question in all its bearings, and during the coming summer have some plans prepared that would give practical effect to Mr. Osborne's suggestions? This would take some time, and would cost some money, but we fancy there is sufficient public spirit in town to make ample provision for each requirement. The main thing is to make a start, and it is up to Mr. Sparling, the President of the Board of Trade, and the members, to show what can be done. We are confident a great deal can be done.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The three-fifths vote may yet be Whitney's undoing.

The Toronto World, in noting the death of Judge Killam, remarks that he had the entire confidence of the public, while his admirable personal qualities endeared him to a very wide circle of friends. Alas, that such a man should have been so lampooned and hounded by the Toronto World!

There were 199 cases of small-pox in Ontario reported in January, without a single death. Scarlet fever, however, had a record of 243 deaths out of 448 cases, while 49 of 243 diphtheria sufferers died. Everybody recognizes the malignancy of diphtheria, but many people underestimate the gravity of scarlet fever. Twenty-one of 51 victims of typhoid perished in January.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

The following chairman submitted reports, which were on motion adopted: Police and Lighting No. 2, Ald. McGeough; Town Property, No. 2, Ald. Wm. Jordan; Finance No. 2, Dep.-revo Eyles.

THE BUTCHERS' GRIEVANCE.

On motion a deputation comprising all the town butchers was heard through their spokesman, Mr. L. V. O'Connor. He asked Council to take into consideration the position of the meat men as disclosed by the working out of the by-law and amendments, which had produced. The object of the original by-law was to protect the retail dealer, and outsiders were only permitted to sell by the quarter, and then only after the noon hour. In 1905 an amendment was passed in response to an agitation for cheap meat. It really was not an amendment at all, being practically a new by-law. It provided that anyone taking out a license could bring in carcasses and cut them up, provided they did not sell before noon. This was permitting the town men to be encroached on by outsiders who had no stake in the town. What other line of business is interfered with as are the butchers? The by-law practically sets up opposition to them as established business men of the town. Medical men, dentists, lawyers, and others, pay an annual fee to be protected against unfair opposition; the town butchers pay an annual fee to the town, but receive absolutely no protection in return.

Mr. O'Connor contended that the provisions of the present by-law had been grossly violated. A butcher had to take out a license for every shop or stall where he sold meat, and an outsider is allowed to bring in two or three loads of meat and sell from each rig, thereby having practically two or three stalls under the one license. Then the by-law stipulated that outsiders taking out a license must pay the usual market fee, yet he O'Connor was informed that this payment had never been exacted. Really, the beef sold on the market by these outsiders is dearer than if brought from the butchers, for the reason that the pieces are not extracted and the quarters is so cut up that some of the poor meat always goes with the better portion. Then again, while the outsiders take out a license for a year, they only do business during the cold weather, when animals are cheap and they have no ice to buy; in summer when an expensive equipment is needed, they are not to be found. In many towns the size of Lindsay, and many persons were dependent on it--was it fair to jeopardize its prosperity for the sake of two or three outsiders who serve the people for a few months only? Rather than continue as at present, the butchers would prefer to go back to the old rule and pay a $5 license.

In reply to a question put by Reeve Jordan, Mr. O'Connor said the retail butchers were compelled by by-law to remain open every legal day, until 12 noon.

Mayor Begg--A petition bearing over 700 names was presented to Council asking for free trade in meat; and we went about half-way, as we thought would be fair in limiting the number of prospective sellers by charging a license fee of $25.

Ald. Smale--How would it do to allow the retail butchers the additional privilege of opening a stall on the market and competing with outsiders free of charge?

Mr. O'Connor--They are obliged to keep their shops open, and the plan would involve hiring additional help and result in other complications.

Ald. Dobson--It is not simply the farmers who come in. I would make it a free market for the farmer who raised and killed his own animals, but would allow no huckster--the man who buys animals for slaughter--to sell on the market for any fee whatever. I don't believe a town by-law can prevent a farmer coming here and selling if he wishes. Our butchers pay taxes and employ town men, and don't think we should allow them to be hampered for the price of a license or two.

Mayor Begg--How could you tell that a farmer was offering his own beef--he might buy an animal, keep it for a week, and claim he had fattened it.

Dep.-revo Eyles said it would be impossible to allow farmers to come here and cut up and sell meat indiscriminately the by-law as at present Council had acted on the petition of a great number of ratepayers. However, he believed that outsiders who take out a license should, like the town butchers, be obliged to supply the public for twelve months of the year.

Ald. Rea--Will the butchers guarantee if we change the by-law that the prices will not advance?

Mr. John Campbell--Competition will make the price right--if anyone thinks there is big money in the business let him open a shop; even if located on the back street he will get the trade if he can undersell the others. Down in Fenelon Falls--a little village--meat can only be bought by the quarter, and I believe there are only two towns in Ontario with the same regulations as Lindsay.

THE ROLLER RINK.

Dep.-revo Eyles said he wished to refer to an important matter. Whenever a stranger comes here and shows the spirit and enterprise Mr. S. Sheridan did, he (Dep.-revo Eyles) would commend him for it, but it was beyond contradiction that a lot of money was spent by those attending the roller rink. It was a fact that almost every auxiliary to churches and charitable institutions, and our restaurants and other places of business, are to a very perceptible extent affected by the amount of money expended at the roller rink. His principal objection was that Mr. Sheridan was not a citizen of Lindsay; he didn't wish to do that gentleman injustice, or deprive the citizens of any form of legitimate sport. But he did object to any man carrying on such a business without paying a suitable license fee into the town coffers.

Ald. Wm. Jordan said that the teachers had complained of the roller rink. Such businesses should pay a stiff license.

Mayor Begg--Yes, I thought so last season.

Ald. McGeough agreed with Dep.-revo Eyles, pointing out that an admission fee was charged even for looking on at the roller rink, while Sillard rooms and other places of amusement were free to all who did not wish to take part. The roller rink coined money during the fall and early winter, getting the money earned by the young people during the summer; now the town is actually keeping the relatives of some of the rink patrons.

Ald. Rea said he was in favor of a stiff license fee.

The matter was referred to the Finance Committee.

THE TOWN DEBENTURES.

Dep.-revo Eyles, chairman of Finance, referring to unsold town debentures, said he had been devoting a lot of attention to the matter for the last two months, during which time he had discussed the question with many of the citizens and also with financiers in Toronto. He could say that there were many points bearing on the sale of town bonds which the citizens or even the members of the Board of Trade are not acquainted. He would feel pleased if they managed to make a sale at a good price, and to facilitate action he would move that the matter of disposing of or retaining the town bonds be referred to the Finance Committee, to be reported up on at an early date. Money was very high at present--it may be lower six months hence, and still lower in a twelve-month. As we are already paying 5 1/2 per cent. interest in the bank, a sale at 5 1/4 per cent. would represent only a trivial saving, whilst if the price of money falls from the present abnormal figure the town stands to benefit largely on bonds running for a long period.

SUNDRY MATTERS.

Mayor Begg--What about the weighing of coal and the measuring of wood by the Market Clerk? My opinion is we should instruct the Chief of Police to order any driver to the market to have his load weighed or measured.

Ald. McGeough--The Chief tells me that he has the power to do so already, if a citizen asks him.

The matter was referred to the Police and Lighting Committee.

On motion the Clerk was instructed to warn the public to fill out promptly the income blanks left by the assessors, and return same to them. Delay will involve a penalty.

Ald. McGeough referred to certain complaints relative to the actions of the Board of Health and the Medical Health Officer. Many ratepayers were discontented, and in his opinion Council should enquire into the facts, and see if the Board had expended $900 on the recent supposed cases of smallpox.

Ald. Rea--I'll second that motion. I have heard a number of citizens say the town has been mulcted. Dr. Burrows says the infection was chick-ox, and Dr. White backs him up. Let us have an investigation.

Mayor Begg--Of course, we have the two wooden sheds, worth about $200, and $100 has been charged to the Provincial Children's Aid Society.

Referred to committee, the M. J. O. to be present.

Ald. Dobson found fault with the work of the east ward snow plow contractor, Mr. Kearns, and gave instances of his failure to do his work, at the same time admitting that the season had been a very severe one. The real trouble seemed to be that the ward is too large for one contractor to do justice to, and in all probability two men will be appointed next season.

Reeve Jordan again called attention to the lack of a room to serve as an office for the Chief of Police and a retiring place for witnesses awaiting a call by the police magistrate. Reeve Jordan said the need had been pointed out months ago, and there was no good purpose served by delaying action.

Council then adjourned.

WILL VISIT QUEBEC

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Announces Prince of Wales is Coming. Money for Celebrations

$300,000 to be Placed in the Hands of the Commission--Other Historic Grounds May be Dealt With Later--French Treaty Bill Passed--Will Help the Export Trade--Mr. Monk's Criticisms.

Ottawa, March 4.--His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will come to Canada to attend the bi-centennial celebration of the founding of Quebec. He has however stipulated that the event take place during the last week of July.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier made the announcement in the House last night, in moving the second reading of the bill to appropriate $300,000 for the Quebec battlefields scheme.

Speaking to his resolution, the Prime Minister said the idea of preserving the battlefields of Quebec had impressed itself upon the minds of the people and has been received with universal approval.

In connection with the bi-centennial of Quebec, he paid a tribute to the memory of Champlain, and said the occasion seemed appropriate to recall the last stages of the long struggle which was maintained between France and England on this continent, and to dedicate and consecrate the ground which has been hallowed by the blood of so many noble men, who gave their lives for the respective causes in which they were engaged.

Last night the debate on the third reading of the French treaty suddenly collapsed. In order to force a vote a number of Liberals rose in their places and the Speaker called for the yeas and nays.

Only five opposed the third reading. They were Lanouette, Chisholm, Marshall, Jackson (Elgin), and Owens, while 103 votes were recorded for the bill.

Ironical Liberal applause greeted the rising of Messrs. Foster, Cockshutt, Morin, Sproule, Ames and Monk.

During the debate Mr. Monk (Jacques Cartier) commended the convention, but maintained it was the duty of the Opposition to criticize details. He also took occasion to read a sharp lecture to his Quebec countrymen who have endeavored to make political capital out of the fact that the Opposition had seen fit to object to some of its features.

In opening, Mr. Monk declared that the treaty had been very properly found fault with details while approving of the principle of securing commercial advantages with the country. For criticizing the terms, the Opposition had been condemned by newspapers supporting the Government in Quebec and attacks on the Department of Marine, last week were considered as having been launched with the object of detracting from the achievement of Mr. Brodeur in negotiating the treaty.

"Le Canada," declared the speaker, "was the object of last week was to 'spoil the coming to Mr. Brodeur,' 'Le Soleil,' taking similar ground, said the members of the Quebec district 'formed a hollow square around Mr. Brodeur.' Again Le Canada had attacked Mr. Monk, declaring him to be 'asking without Latin quality,' which would make him unacceptable to people of Quebec.

Mr. Monk had looked up the attitude of Sir Wilfrid Laurier as to the French treaty of 1893. What was his Latin mental condition? Mr. Monk was surprised to find that he possessed a hammer and tongs. There was not one word to commend the Conservative Government for negotiating the treaty.

Mr. Monk, in proceeding to criticize the new instrument, said it would have been concessions, but had made an effort to receive more substantial ones.

Mr. Zimmerman (Hamilton) spoke of the increase that is expected to come to the International Harvester Co. as a result of the treaty, while Mr. Brodeur spoke at some length, repeating his former explanation of advantages and dealing with the claim the all-important departure had been made in Canada's treaty-making powers.

RHEUMATISM IN THE BLOOD

Cure it by Enriching the Blood with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

There is only one way by which rheumatism can be cured. It must be treated through the blood. Liniments are outward applications may give temporary relief, but they can't possibly cure the trouble. And while you are experimenting with liniments the trouble is every day becoming more firmly rooted in the system, and more difficult to cure. The poisonous acid that causes rheumatism must be driven out of the blood, and you can only do this by making new, rich, red blood through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Mr. Chas. H. Lumley, of Brinkford, Ont., is one of the best known farmers in Lambton county. About three years ago, while Mr. Lumley was engaged in threshing, he became over-heated, and this was followed by a severe chill that started the rheumatic pains. Mr. Lumley says: "I did not think anything of it at the time, as I was accustomed to being exposed to all kinds of weather. As a result I was unable to get about next morning. I had severe pains in my arms and legs which I treated at first with the usual home remedies. As these did not help me, and the trouble was growing worse the family doctor was sent for, but he did not have any better success. He told me I was suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism, and there can be no doubt about it, as I was confined to my home about four months before I was fortunately advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I got for a supply, and it was not long before I found they were helping me, and by the time I had taken a half dozen boxes the trouble had entirely disappeared. In other respects the pills also greatly improved my health, and I never felt better in my life than I have since taking them. I therefore most cheerfully recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to other similar sufferers."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make cures of this kind after doctors and common medicines fail, because they actually make new blood. They don't cure the more symptoms. They go right to the root of the trouble, in the blood. That is why this medicine cures anemia, indigestion, neuralgia, palpitation of the heart, and the headaches and backaches brought on by the ailments that fill the lives of so many women with misery. Do not take any pills without the full name, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," on the wrapper around the box. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Japanese Justice.

Salt Lake City, March 4.--Because Utah did not have the money to bring back two embezzlers from Japan, the Mikado's Government not only tried and convicted the offenders for a crime committed in the state, but has paid Utah for collecting and forwarding the embezzlers in the case.

The culprits fled from Brigham City more than a year ago with more than $18,000 entrusted to them for safe keeping by 75 Japanese laborers employed in the best fields.

Edmonton Expanding.

Edmonton, March 4.--Building permits for January and February are almost double the corresponding months of last year. They total $500,925.

Customs returns for February were $15,644, an increase of $3,600 over February last year. Vital statistics: Births 34, deaths 12, marriages 7.

Premier Suffers Relapse.

London, March 2.--Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the Prime Minister, has suffered a relapse as a result of seeing people and transacting business on Saturday.

The attending physicians consider the weakness of the heart is the most serious factor in the Premier's illness. He will go to the continent as soon as he is strong enough.

Fatal Iceboat Collision.

Watertown, N.Y., March 2.--In a collision of iceboats sailing at the rate of 50 miles an hour, on the St. Lawrence River, opposite Clayton yesterday, Roy O'Brien, aged 11 years, son of Fred O'Brien, a steamboat engineer at the Thousand Islands, was almost instantly killed, his companion, Boswell Sherman, 13 years of age, was badly injured.

License Reduction.

The Ottawa Citizen opposes compensation for extinguished liquor licenses. It puts its case in this way. The liquor license is granted only for a year. It is renewable every twelve months, but the license has no more right to the renewal than has a public service corporation whose franchise expires at the end of a term of years. The extension of each franchise is problematical. The fact that it terminates on a fixed date constitutes a sufficient intimation that on that day it reverts to the grantor, who then has the arbitrary power of renewal or other disposal. No compensation can be expected for a license or a franchise which, the possessor is always aware, terminates on a specified day, and of the renewal of which he has no assurance. The Citizen further opposes compensation to owners of saloon buildings for the money spent in bringing them up to the requirements of the Government's edict that they "should keep hotel." The Citizen's argument is that if the hotel is needed by the community, there will be money providing meals and lodgings for the guests who patronize it. If not, it is merely a saloon, depending on its bar for nearly all its revenue, and keeping up the appearance of a hotel in order that it may continue to do a saloon business. The contention is that the public is not obliged to recompense anyone who owns a saloon disguised as a hotel.
