The grim reaper, Death, has again visited our neighborhood for, fourth time in the short space of one month. Mrs. N. Hill quietly passed away on Wednesday evening of last week. Mrs. Hill, whose maiden name was Maria A. Coad, was the daughter of the late John and Mary Coad, of Mariposa, one of the earliest settlers. She was born in Mariposa, near Oakwood, some forty-nine years, ago, now sorrowing husband ninetzen years ago. Beside her husband leaves three children, Clarence, Lata and Earl, to mourn the ioss of a kind and devoted mother. She also leaves her stepmother, Mrs. Coad, eight brothers and two sisters. Her brothers are Thomas, of Lindsay, James and Samuel of Toronto, Rich. ard J., of Richmond Hill, and William, Charles, George J. and Fred. all of Oakwood, Her, sisters are Mrs. Bert Rich and Misse J. Coad. The fuzeral took place on Friday afternoon, and was very largely attended, showing the high esteem in which she was held. The pall bearers were Messrs. E. G. Lytle, J. F. Brass, George Pascoe, Will Pascoe, Wakely and David Tait. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved friends. Mrs. J. Park spent a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and

Just fuel owing to the high prices and the difficulty of drawing the same, yet we, as citizens, are witnessing daily, what we feel to be cruelty to animals, that might well have been averted, if provision had been made during the autumn months by their owners. How any man can content himself to enjoy the warmth and nourishment his house affords, when he knows his faithful stock are suffering for want of food and warmth that he should have provided them, is, to say the least, inexcusable, We have such cases in our town, and would be pleased to see the Society, for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals take note of this. Plenty of proof can be produced against the olfending parties.

> In the summer the roads, if bad are almost always passable. There s very little of the commodities of our country carried over them, being mostly passenger traffic. In the winter the roads have been impassable during the past five years for the most part of the time, when the greatest traffic in the carriage of committees is necessary; yet we find that during the winter less attenotion is paid to the roads than in the summer. In again sending out to our policy-holders and others the Annual Report as made by this Company, at the 31st of December 1906, I wish to refer to the INVESTMENTS, and to draw public at tention to them as being WIDE SPREAD, instead of benefitting special section. The premium income being from the whole country likewise the funds have been and are AVAILABLE FOR THE VARIOUS PARTS OF CANADA, and not simply for an isolated section or a particular portion, and while abnormal rates of interest and not demanded, the in-vestments must be conceded to be eminently remunerative and satisfactory.

The Report for 1007, with list of investments made, and securities held, will follow the holding of the Annual Meeting the last Wednesday in February, and will be well distributed.
