

RULES OF THE ROAD

Farmers' Anti-Auto Society Promulgates a Set of Regulations

The following is the new code agreed upon by the Farmers' Anti-Auto Protective Society—

1. On discovering an approaching team, the automobilist must stop off side and cover his machine with a tarpaulin painted to correspond with the scenery.
2. The speed limit on country roads this year will be secret, and the penalty for violation will be $10 for every mile an offender is caught going in excess of it.
3. In case an automobile makes a team run away, the penalty will be $50 for the first mile, $100 for the second mile, $200 for the third mile, etc., that the team runs; in addition to the usual charges.
4. On approaching a corner where he cannot command a view of the road ahead, the automobilist must stop not less than 100 yards from the turn, toot his horn, ring a bell, fire a revolver, halloo, and send up three bombs at intervals of five minutes.
5. Automobiles must again be seasonably painted—that is, so they will merge with the pastoral ensemble, and not be startling. They must be green in spring, golden in summer, red in autumn, and white in winter.
6. Automobiles running on the country roads at night must send up a rocket every mile, and wait ten minutes for the road to clear. They may then proceed, blowing the horns and shooting Roman candles.
7. All members of the Society will give up Sundays and holidays to chasing automobiles, shooting and shouting at them, making arrests, and otherwise discourage country tourists.
8. In case a horse will not pass an automobile, notwithstanding the scenic tarpaulin, the automobilist will take the machine apart as rapidly as possible and conceal the parts in the grass.
9. In case an automobile approaches a farmer's house when the roads are dusty, it will slow down to one mile an hour, and the chauffeur will lay the dust in front of the house with a hand-sprinkler worked over the dashboard.

TORTURED BY RHEUMATISM

Zam-Buk Will Give You Ease

Just at this season when the cold winter is giving way to a milder yet more humid season, the germs of rheumatism, sciatica, and allied ailments, come upon their victims with renewed force.

As soon as you feel any deep-seated pain in the joints, back, wrists, or elsewhere, place a liberal supply of Zam-Buk on the fingers, or on the palm of the hand, and rub it well into the part affected. The penetrating power of this "embrocation-balm" is exceedingly great and once having reached the seat of the pain, it removes it speedily. It also ends the stiffness which is so unpleasant.

Frequent rubbings of the afflicted parts with Zam-Buk will not only drive out all pain, reduce swelling, etc., but will strengthen the skin and tissues and enable them to resist cold and damp. The following case will show how Zam-Buk brings ease to those tortured by rheumatism.

Mr. P. G. Wells, of 338 Ogden-st., Fort William, Ont., says: "Following my duties in attending to passenger trains I often get wet through with rain and steam (the latter in winter). This with hours of duty in icehouses in summer was no doubt the cause of my contracting rheumatism in both knees, left arm and shoulders. They got so bad that I could no longer work, and was laid off on three different occasions for several weeks, during which I was under the treatment of my doctor. I seemed to get little if any better, no matter what I tried, and this was my state when Zam-Buk was recommended to me. I laid in a supply, and to my great joy it began to cure me. I rubbed it well in every night, and when a few boxes had been used I found I was free again from the pain and stiffness of rheumatism. I have had no more trouble from the disease and unhesitatingly recommend Zam-Buk to all who suffer from rheumatism, muscular stiffness, etc."

Fifty Dollars

Reward Offered

At the Meeting of Councillors Monday Evening It was Determined to Recapture Carlin if Possible

At the meeting of the Committees of the Town Council Monday evening there were present Mayor Begg, Reeve Jordan, Deputy-Reeves McLean and Jordan, and Ald. Howkins, Kyle, Babcock, Dobson, Lewis, and Calvert.

A letter was received from Judge Harding stating that he had learned from Chief of Police Vincent of the escape of Carlin, the chief assailant of Constable Short, and he suggested that the Council offer a reward for the capture of the refugee.

Deputy-Reeve McLean said that he had been talking to the chief on the subject and had asked him to come and discuss the matter with the Council. If it was necessary to hire a man from outside we should do so.

The Mayor said he had told the chief it was his duty to go ahead and get the man and offer what reward was fair. The Council paid a man to look after these things, and should not be held responsible for the arrest of men in cases such as this. It was simply a case of assault.

The Reeve said he had never seen any Council refuse to back up the police, and these public officers cannot do everything. They are marked men, and when the friends of refugees find that they are going anywhere the criminals are at once notified. It was a very stormy day when this case occurred and the chief doubtless notified the authorities in the surrounding municipalities. But no doubt owing to the small fees paid to outside officers for arrests it is likely they do not exercise themselves with that agility which should characterize them. The system is not what it should be, and the Reeve said he was glad to see the government was about to introduce a system of provincial police. It had been said that this was a case of assault. It was more than a case of assault. It was an attack upon an officer of the law, who was our servant and who was in the discharge of his duties. If it was thought wise to offer a reward he would be willing to agree to it. If it was the spirit of the Police Commission, as indicated by the Chairman's letter, that this should be done, the Council should not hesitate.

THE CHIEF EXPLAINS

At this point the Chief arrived and was asked to make a statement to the council on the subject under discussion, and Judge Harding's letter was read to him.

Chief Vincent said in view of that letter he would like to make some explanations to the Council. A message came to him about 12.25 Thursday morning to the effect that Constable Short was injured. He got up immediately and took steps at once to ascertain who the assailants were. He called County Constables Thornbury and Porter and together they had made a thorough search of the town. Next day he telegraphed to all the surrounding centres of population and sent out 100 notices to different officers with a description of Carlin and asking that he be arrested. In the evening he asked the Mayor if it would not be well to offer a reward for his arrest. County constables are only paid by results, and for that reason he thought it would be well to make it possible for them to recoup themselves for their time and expenses and make it an inducement for them to do something. For himself, he could not leave the town and chase after every report he received. As it was he had great difficulty in securing a substitute for Constable Short, and it was only after considerable trouble that he secured Mr. Dixon. A reward would energize a number of county officials who would not otherwise move.

The Mayor asked if he had not told the chief to offer what he thought was fair.

The chief said yes, he had, but he could not embody that in a circular.

Vapo-Cresolene

Established 1879
Whooping Cough, Croup, Bronchitis
Cough, Grip, Asthma, Diphtheria
Cresolene is a boon to Asthmatics

Does it not seem more effective to breathe in a remedy to cure disease of the breathing organs than to take the remedy into the stomach? It cures because the air rendered strongly antiseptic is carried over the diseased surface with every breath, giving prolonged and constant treatment. It is invaluable to mothers with small children.

Those of a convulsive tendency find immediate relief from coughs or inflamed conditions of the throat.

A lengthy discussion took place on the subject of the reward, in the course of which considerable fault was found with Constable Short for going unarmed, and it was finally decided to offer the sum of $50 for information leading to the arrest of Mick Carlin.

Several petitions for lights were laid over for further consideration.

LIGHT OPPOSITE HOSPITAL

It was decided that the offer of Ops Council should be accepted and that a light should be erected at once opposite the hospital, each municipality to pay half the cost.

Application was received from Mr. W. E. Wilson for the job of driver of the second team, and the matter of employment was left to Ald. Kyle and the Mayor.

On motion of Reeve Jordan, seconded by Ald. Babcock, Mr. Chambers was re-appointed caretaker of the park.

Commissioner O'Neill recommended the construction of a granolithic walk on the west side of Albert-st., and it was decided to advertise the work on the initiative plan.

A tender for the supply of cement for the current year was received from J. G. Edwards & Co., offering to supply it at $1.46 per barrel. In view of the fact that this tender was received after the others had been opened, it was decided to allow all who so desired to furnish cement in equal quantities at $1.46 per barrel.

Tenders for the municipal printing for 1909 were received from The Post, Watchman-Warder, and from Miller & Wilson. The Post's tender, being the lowest, was accepted.

The application of the tobacconists for a reduction of the cigarette license was laid over for another month, as was also the application for a grant in aid of the Muskoka Sanitarium, and Mr. Geo. Shoultice's for appointment as caretaker of the gravel pit.

CALLAGHAN GETS FIFTY MORE.

Considerable discussion was created by the application of Mr. Neil Callaghan, market clerk, for an increase of salary. He claimed that with the increased cost of living $550 was not sufficient.

The Council at length decided to give him $600, but they tacked on the unwelcome condition that Neil must be on the job at seven o'clock in the morning from April till October, and at eight during the other months.

The Auditor's report was presented and the Clerk was instructed to have the usual number of copies printed.

Enormous Audience at Bobcaygeon

Independent Foresters Entertainment a Brilliant Success

Bobcaygeon, March 9.—The concert given here on Monday evening by the Independent Foresters was a grand success, the hall being thronged with the largest audience ever seen here. So great was the number of people seeking admission that at 7.30 the doors had to be closed, and men were stationed outside to notify all newcomers that no more could be accommodated. The singing of Miss Bigwood and Miss Wright was most enthusiastically received. "They are singers of an unusually high class, and the numbers were applauded to the echo, so excellent was their rendition. Mr. Will White, the ever-popular entertainer, was exceptionally good, and was accorded a generous recognition of his efforts. Messrs. Mitchell and Doig, of the Supreme Court, delivered addresses of an interesting character, and were well received.

Central Heating for County Buildings

Committee Considering the Feasibility and Economy of the Scheme

The special committee of the county council appointed at the January session to consider the proposed improvements to the registry office and the installation of a central heating plant for the court house, registry office and jail met today to consider these propositions. The committee consists of Warden G. A. Jordan, Deputy-Reeve B. L. McLean, chairman, and Reeves Boate, Michael, Callan and Howkins.

Where is Marshal Burley

Chief of Police Vincent has received a communication from Sarah Rush, of Rednersville inquiring after her uncle, Marshal Burley or Bursleigh, whom she claims formerly lived in Lindsay. His brother, Samuel, lived for a time in Los Angeles, Cal. Any information bearing on this matter can be left with Chief Vincent.

Gone to Stratford on Special Train

Nearly a Hundred Rooters Leave for the Classic City to Cheer the Midgets on to Victory

Sharp at 1 o'clock Monday the G. T. R. train of six splendid coaches in charge of Conductor T. Ringland, pulled out of the local station with about sixty-four loyal supporters of the Midgets, bound for Stratford to cheer the boys on to victory that night in their fight for championship honors, and to these were added a number from surrounding points. It was a jolly crowd and if the Classic City is not awakened to-night by the shouts of the Lindsay delegation that place "sleeps the sleep that knows no wakening." The special is expected to make a quick run to its destination. Among those who took in the trip were the following:

H. Menzies, Dan. Sinclair, B. J. Gough, W. Mulvaney, J. O'Halloran, T. Buckley, A. F. Palen, W. Watson, J. Boxall, S. O'Neil, Dr. Brown, L. King, S. Plack, H. W. Elliott, E. Robson, B. McAlpine, A. Bobcaygeon Boys Trap a Lynx

Adventures of a Venturesome Couple Near Noyeg's Creek

Wednesday last, Percy Nichols and Charles Moffatt, of Bobcaygeon, while trapping on Noyeg's Creek, caught an exceptionally large lynx. The animal was caught by the front paw and fought viciously. The tree to which the trap was attached was stripped of bark as far up as the chain allowed the animal to climb. Upon the discovery of their prize the two men contrived a means whereby they could do away with their victim. Percy armed himself with a club while Charlie stood guard near by with his old reliable (a Winchester). By several blows the animal was dispatched and the pelt brought to town, where it is on exhibition.

The boys are having lots of sport as well as a liberal share of game. They also captured a fox and a mink. Keep it going boys, a lion may be your next victim.

A Handsome Window

The St. Patrick's day window of Mr. R. S. Porter's bookstore is being admired by many citizens, and justly so. The proprietor has evidently got the spirit of the season and has an assortment of Irish linen, and drapes as well as Erin's flag and Hibernian post cards and choice china, decorated with shamrocks, all artistically designed and arranged in such a manner as to present a very pleasing and attractive appearance.

Trains Were Late

The evening trains on the G. T. R. from Toronto were kept very late last Monday on account of a small wreck at Unicoiville. An ice train ran off the rails, and as a result, the passengers on the line were very much annoyed.

The Bank of Ottawa, Peterboro, had a close call from destruction by fire on Sunday.

DOES NOT ALWAYS NEED A DOCTOR

Mrs. F. Poirier Valleyfield, Quebec, says:—"I always use Baby's Own Tablets for my little one, and therefore never need a doctor. When my baby is feverish or restless I give her a Tablet and in a couple of hours she is all right. They have been of the greatest benefit to her when teething, and are the greatest thing in all emergencies." These Tablets promptly cure colic, indigestion, constipation, diarrhoea, destroy worms, break up colds, make teething easy. Good for children of all ages. Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Golden Wedding in Emily Township

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McGahey Celebrate the Fiftieth Anniversary of Their Marriage

On Monday, March 8th, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McGahey, of lot 2, con. 14, Emily, was the scene of a very interesting event, when their golden wedding anniversary was celebrated.

Mr. and Mrs. McGahey were married on May 7th, 1859, and the anniversary was attended by all the children, seven sons and five daughters, seventeen grandchildren, and great grandchildren from far and near. In addition there were quite a number of intimate friends and near relatives.

At the hour of 3 p.m. (being the hour of the marriage) the company assembled. The chair was taken by J. R. Boate, Esq., reeve of Emily, who made a felicitous speech and then called on the sons to make a presentation.

Mr. Alex. McGahey read the address of congratulation, which spoke in warm and glowing terms of the honorable and meritorious life of their parents.

The address was listened to with eloquent silence and glistening eye, and at its close purses of gold were handed to the father and mother on behalf of the children.

After expressing their thanks, the chairman called upon Rev. Louis Barber, pastor of the parish, who, in his congratulatory remarks, emphasized the importance of the occasion and said it was indeed something to be thankful for. He concluded by asking all to unite in prayer.

Afterwards songs and music followed. Mr. R. Campbell, bass singer, and choir master of St. John's church, Dunstond, gave several choice selections, Miss R. Burgess being accompanist.

Then came the supper. At one table, presided over by the rector, sat the parents as guests of honor, and round them their sons and daughters. At another table presided over by Mr. J. R. Boate, gathered the wives and children. Turkey, geese and fowl, after dissection, disappeared in a formidable manner, but all were told there was lots more in the cellar, so, to the accompaniment of music, story and chatter, a very enjoyable meal passed over. Then followed the social hour, during which the usual pastimes were indulged in. The music provided consisted of a violin and organ, the latter instrument loaned by Mr. Warren, of Lindsay, for the event.

Public Library Board Meeting

Mr. Goodwin Presents the Board with Magazines—1804 Books Circulated in February

The regular meeting of the Public Library Board was held last Monday in the board room.

There were present, Messrs. Dr. Vrooman, Judge Harding, W. Flavell, G. E. Newman, R. M. Beal, F. D. Moore, K. C., and J. H. Knight.

A communication was read from the Board of Education stating that at a meeting of the board they had elected Mr. W. Flavell as their representative.

Mr. W. Goodwin made a donation to the board of two magazines, viz., "Motor-boating," and "Good Health" for which he was given a vote of thanks. He also suggested that rubber tips be put on the bottom of the chairs in the reading room.

A number of accounts amounting to $11.82 were read and ordered to be paid.

Considerable discussion took place on whether or not another janitor should be appointed. Some of the members were of the opinion that the present janitor was getting too old to fill the position. It was finally decided to leave Mr. Kelly in the position until July 1st, when a new man would be appointed.

The librarian's report was read as follows: Circulation in detail: History 99, biography 90, voyages and travels 104, general literature 101, juveniles, boys 227, juveniles, girls, 71, juveniles, little ones, 75, bound periodicals 14, poetry 74, science 75, religion 24, miscellaneous 19, fiction 861. Total circulation for month, 1804; number of new tickets issued during month, 21. Cash receipts for month: New tickets $1.05, fines 68c., total $1.73.

Burglars at Work in Shoe Store

Forbert & Son's Place of Business Entered, But no Money Secured

On Sunday about 12 o'clock a burglar or burglars effected an entrance into Forbert & Son's boot and shoe and gents' furnishing store and rifled the till, but fortunately obtained no booty.

An entrance was forced through the window in the door leading to the lane-way between the store and the Academy of Music. The burglar was evidently after money, as none of the goods were disturbed or missing. A lamp was left burning in the rear of the shop by the nocturnal visitor who made his exit through the back door, which was found open this morning.

Several residents who live in the immediate vicinity state that they heard a noise around the midnight hour which sounded as if some one was pounding on a door.

—The Peterboro Board of Education are considering putting in an equipment for manual training and domestic science.

—Mr. J. H. Culverwell, of Cobourg the well known Burleigh power man, was in Peterboro on Saturday interviewing several of the aldermen on the power question. As yet nothing definite has been done. It is expected that before long Mr. Culverwell will have a proposition to submit to the council of that city.

Curious Ploughing Customs

Ploughing operations in England do not begin as a rule till the first Monday after twelfth day in January, and for that reason it is known as Plough Monday. For centuries the formal inauguration of the ploughing season has taken place on this day, and even now its quaint observances are still kept up in some part or other of the world.

Before our pious ancestors would begin to cultivate the ground in Catholic times, they would attend a special service for the dedication of the plough. At this service the ploughmen kept lights burning before certain images to obtain a blessing upon their work; and they were accustomed on this day to go about in procession gathering money for the support of these "plough lights," as they were called.

After the Reformation the religious form of the festival changed. The peasantry used to arrange big processions and collect money, which was afterwards spent in conviviality in the public house. It assumed quite a gay aspect. A ploughman used to dress himself up with ribbons and other gaudy decorations as the "Fool Plough." Thirty or forty companions wearing their shirts over their jackets and their shoulders and hats ablaze with highly colored ribbons, used to draw the plough in state through the village, preceded by one of their number in the dress of an old woman, nicknamed Bessy. Any one who refused to contribute to funds had his garden ploughed up. All the demonstrators would go through the village with dancing and singing. The whole scene was one of excited merriment.

The Chinese begin ploughing on the first day of their solar year, the ceremony being very elaborate. The fields are blessed by a long religious ceremony, and the Emperor or his regent has to set the example by ploughing the first round in the sacred field. A richly comparisoned bullock, draped in yellow, is hitched to a plough and led by two of the Emperor's bodyguard, his majesty guiding the plough. When he finishes his round one of the royal princes takes a hand, and the ceremony is over.
