Stratford Beaten by Lindsay Boys

A Glorious Game in Which the Midgets Demonstrated Their Superior Ability

Outskated, outchecked, and played at every point of the game, the fast Stratford Intermediate team went down to defeat before the local Midgets on Friday night by a score of 7-2.

The Midgets demonstrated their superiority in no uncertain manner, and the way they played hockey was citing play, Randall scored, assisted a delight to the Lindsay fans.

The Stratford bunch were outclassed at every stage, and only once or twice during the whole play did they look dangerous to the local seven. Their much-tooted combination refused to work, as they were checked close by the Lindsay men. THE REFEREE

The O. H. A. introduced an entire stranger to the Lindsay crowd in the person of Mr. Stacey, of the 14th regiment team, of Kingston. He fulfilled his duties to the letter and gave entire satisfaction. No offsides escaped his eagle eye, and very little rough work. He was strict and impartial and let nothing go that was not clean hockey. THE CROWD.

Easson was for play the structure was filled to benched again for dirty work, and with two minutes to play Stoddard the rafters. Old and young were there, and gave vent to his or her scored the seventh goal for his side. of The crowd hollored for more, but it feelings Stratford had a handful supporters, who urged on their team was not to be. With Lindsay leading by five the game ended, and all in the face of great odds. was over but the cheering.

THE ICE

The weather man was good to Lindsay last night, and provided one of the best sheets of ice that been seen at the local rink this sea-Sullivan son. Our fast forwards were right at Stoddard home on the going and showed their speed time and time again.

THE GAME

Seldom has a faster and more exciting game of hockey been witnessed on the Lindsay-st. rink than that which took place last night. From the drop of the puck until the bell rang for full time it was one continual rush after the rubber. For fully three quarters of the time Lindsay had the puck and bombarded Stratford nets time and time again. 5, Lindsay-Stoddard, 4 min. Only the good work of Reg. Rankin 6, Lindsay-Stoddard 3 min. in goal saved the day for the red and white. His stops were marvellous, and he was warmly applauded. 9, Lindsay-Stoddard, 2 min. The game throughout was devoid of roughness, and nothing but fast, son, 2; Lindsay: Stoddard, Blomclean hockey was indulged in. What little rough work there was was field. quickly cut out by the referee.

THE PLAYERS

Among the local boys it would be ed spectator. hard, indeed, to pick out the star of the evening. Every man on the team showed real championship form. Their team work was excellent and their shooting was the feature of the evening.

Newton in goal had very little to do, but what did come his way quickly got on to. The defence Friday night was almost impregnable, and the Stratford team gave it up as hopeless task. The forwards were also in working order, and were on the puck all the time. The work of Cotey was especially worthy of mention, and elicited a great deal of applause. The Stratford team were at their wits' end to know how to stop him, but they failed to solve the mystery.

For the visitors, Simpson, the fast centre, was easily the swiftest man. He was closely watched by Randall however, and failed to show of his sensational rushes.

The rest of the team were nothing to write home about and Lindsay has seen just as good before this. Their defence is very good, but the Lindsay men got through often.

A DISPUTED GOAL. Stratford again worked that trick which won the round from Ingersoll in Stratford last Monday night. A goal was given them to which they were not entitled. One of the Stratford men shot on goal, and hit the Tod which goes across the top of the net. The puck bounced upward and lit in the corner. The players were proceeding to play when the umpire, who was a Stratford man, put up the flag. Whether he did it in mistake or not is not known, but there were several eye witnesses who claimed that the puck did not enter the goal. The Midgets, however, beaten by a better team and that raised little kick, and played the the Lindsay team is made up

THE POST VS. BOBCAYGEON The team from The Post printery journeyed to the village of Bobcaygeon last Friday to play a friendly game of hockey with the team of that burg. The boys left on the 7.43 C. P. R. train and arrived at their destination about 8.30. They were at once driven to the most fashionable hotel in the city, known as the Royal, where they bunked for the night. nine o'clock, and at once Referee Junkin called the game. Although the Lindsay boys were swamped, they ter some deliberation put it up. His were not disgraced, and gave the Bobcaygeon sports a good game.

THE RINK

The Post boys boys were not all at home on the Bobcaygeon arena which resembles a hencoop more than skating rink. There is not room for a full line of forwards ro skate down the ice together. The Bobcaygeon boys, however, are used to the structure and knew just where to place the puck. They played a one man combination with the boards which puzzled the Post boys considerably.

The Bobcaygeon boys picked out Mr. Charles Junkin to officiate as referee and to look after the penalty list. Charles was a little off color on Friday and missed a good many off sides, which others saw. There is no kick coming, however, and the Post team does not blame its defeat on the referee. The Bobcaygeon boys were better and deserved to win. For their side, Kelly was the star, while for Lindsay Hickingbottom showed up the best. The Bobcaygeon boys had with them Connors who plays goal for the senior Bank- league?. ers. They were, besides, a heavier and faster team and outshone the Post completely. The Lindsay boys went without their fast rover, Roy Wilson, who was unable to accompany them.

It was merely a bunch of juniors that played under the colors of the Bank-Post ers' hockey team. They were completely outclassed by their heavier and larger opponents. At no time were they dangerous, and the Omemee boys always had a safe lead. The game was exceedingly fast and the spectators enjoyed a treat.
