

Minden Team are Champions

They Have Made a Splendid Record in Their District During the Past Season

(Special to The Post.)
MINDEN 6, HALIBURTON 2.

What is generally acknowledged to be the last game for this season was played in Haliburton Friday night, 12th inst., on very soft ice, before a good gathering of enthusiasts from Haliburton and Donald. About nine o'clock the teams lined up and at the sound of the bell the strenuous contest began. After a few minutes of play Gray found the nets and No. 1 was scored for Minden. Haliburton, however, displayed a good sample of fast hockey and before half time was called, planted the rubber inside the posts twice and thus the half ended Haliburton 2, Minden 1. The Haliburton boys, however, seemed to have spent their energy and during the last half it was Minden all the way. Minden finding the goal five times, while Haliburton failed to tally, thus making the final score M. 6, H. 2.

The game throughout was fast and apart from a few disagreements was a good exhibition of manly sport. Mr. T. Edgar Henderson refereed to the satisfaction of all and meted out only three penalties to offenders against the rules.

The line-ups:

Minden	Haliburton
F. Herrington	Goal A. McKenzie
T. A. McDonald	Point G. Thayer
E. W. Roland	Cover H. Kellett
W. Welch	Centre K. Kellett
W. Gray	Right W. Gorrie
E. Curry	Left E. Austin
Walter Welch	Rover J. Gorrie
Referee, T. Edgar Henderson.

One of the pleasant features was the presence of a good crowd of enthusiasts from Donald, who cheered lustily for Minden. Thanks Donald.

After the game the players and officers of both teams were invited to D. McKenzie's hotel, where a most delicious repast was in readiness, it having been prepared by the ladies of the town. All were seated and displayed their appreciation in a material way by eating heartily. Speeches were then the order of procedure. The tone of the speeches from Minden clearly showed that they believe it to be the best yet, and that the Haliburtonites can take a defeat like men and not like babies. Haliburton realizes and acknowledges that Minden hockey team are the champions of this district, and they are every one of them gentlemen.

STANDING OF THE TEAMS

Minden	7	6	1
Coboconk	2	1	1
Kinmount	6	3	3
Haliburton	4	0	4

Coboconk played only two games, in one they whitewashed Kinmount, score 3 to 0. In the other they were beaten by Minden. It is thus clearly manifested that Minden has the champion team. Three cheers and a tiger for every man on the Minden team.

During the season that is now over Minden has accepted challenges from three neighboring villages and out of seven games played they have carried the laurels of victory for six of them. They were beaten once and that was in Kinmount by a team of picked players from Fenelon Falls, Bobaygeon, Lindsay and Kinmount. Therefore, properly speaking, Minden has never been defeated by a strictly local amateur team like themselves. The village has reason to be proud of the manly bunch of boys who in a gentlemanly way defended the honor of their home in the hockey arena this winter.

Kinmount being unable to defeat Minden, thought it wise to call on Coboconk to do the trick, but after Coboconk had whitewashed Kinmount the tables turned and Minden defeated Coboconk team on the same ice and under the same conditions. Summing up the whole situation, Minden has without doubt won the championship. We believe Minden has a team of manly sports.

Following is a list of the officers and players:

- President—D. J. Hartle.
- Sec.—Treas.—W. S. Curry.
- Manager—H. Soward.
- Capt.—Wm. Welch.
- Referee—T. Edgar Henderson.
- Managing Committee—President, Manager and Captain, with F. W. Herrington, W. S. Curry, T. A. McDonald and E. Young.
- The team:
 - Goal—F. W. Herrington.
 - Point—T. A. McDonald.
 - Cover point—E. W. Rowland.
 - Centre—Will Welch (Capt.).
 - R. Wing—W. Gray.
 - L. Wing—W. S. Curry.
 - Rover—Frank Peck.
- Men who assisted in one or more games: Clifford Peck,

C. S. Phillips.

Walter Welch.

Personal comment:

Will Welch, the captain, is strictly a Minden boy, having been born and raised there. Will played a good steady game and has made an efficient captain. He is a good sport.

F. W. Herrington, Sterling Bank Manager, Frank, although a native of Wooler, Ont., has lived in Minden for about two years and is certainly considered one of the boys. As a hockey player he is a good goal tender and has defended the nets in every game this season.

T. A. McDonald, principal of the Public School, Mac. is a native of Canfield, where his father is in the hardware business. He has been in Minden some months and has made good with the boys. In hockey circles he is always on the job at point and is an all round sport.

Rev. E. W. Rowland, Methodist Minister, E. W., came here about two years ago, and since that time has been here continuously. His native town is Omenehe. He is one of the best players in the vicinity and played in every game this season.

W. S. Curry, proprietor of the Phoenix drug store. Will is well-known to the people within miles of Kinmount, as this is his home town. He has lived here nearly all his life, and is recognized as a good sport by all the boys. Will has ably filled his position in every game. As secretary treasurer he has filled his position acceptably.

Wm. Gray—Billy came here from Toronto about ten years ago and has lived in this vicinity ever since. He was born in Toronto and received his education in Belleville. He is a good fellow and enjoys a frolic with the boys, who all know and appreciate his company. Bill is a fast hockey player, having scored the greater part of the goals for Minden team this winter. He is certainly a star, and his individual rushes bring forth bursts of applause every time. Billy is loyal to Minden and we hope to have him with us next winter.

Frank Peck. This is another good sport, and is a native of Minden. Frank played five games this winter and has improved perceptibly. When we consider that this is his first experience in hockey, he certainly made good.

Clifford Peck, C. S. Phillips, and Walter Welch each played in one game this season and did their utmost to uphold the dignity of the red and white. Clifford and Walter are natives of our own little Minden, while Charlie has lived here about twelve years. They are all well known and highly respected.

Taken as a whole, the Minden hockey team most assuredly is composed of a company of gentlemanly loyal citizens of which any town may justly be proud.

Driving Wheel Became Detached from Engine

Wednesday Evening's Eight O'clock Train Disabled West of Mariposa

While speeding along at a very fast clip Wednesday the regular G. T. R. train due to arrive in Lindsay about 8.07 met with a slight accident which might have been the cause of a serious wreck. The train had just left Mariposa station a few moments before and was going at a pretty good rate, when the engineer became aware that there was something wrong. The train at once came to a stop, much to the surprise of the passengers, many of whom got out to investigate. On investigation it was found that the truck of the driving wheel had become detached from the main body of the engine. There was therefore no power and the engine was helpless to go any further. There was nothing to do but to wait, and word was sent ahead to Lindsay.

After considerable time, the Whitby train came along and showed the other to town, arriving here about ten o'clock. The other trains were also kept late.

The Link Will be Completed This Year

President Shaughnessy Talks to a Toronto Newspaper Representative

In the course of an interview with a Toronto News representative on Wednesday President Shaughnessy of the C. P. R. said that this year would see much more construction than was done last year. The link between Peterboro and Victoria Harbor will be completed, but scarcely in time to aid in the transportation of grain from the west. When this branch is finished it will be a boon to the shippers, as it will greatly shorten the distance between Georgian Bay and Montreal.

Penrose Acquitted at Police Court

Was Exonerated by Magistrate—Goheen Case Next Friday

A crowded court room greeted county Police Magistrate Jackson, last Friday as he opened court on the Constable Short assault case.

Mr. A. P. Devlin, county crown attorney, when the court opened, announced that the crown had been unable to subpoena a witness, and accordingly asked for an adjournment until the witness was secured.

Mr. L. V. O'Connor, who appeared for one of the accused young men, protested strongly against a further adjournment of the case. The magistrate stated a week ago that the case must go on Friday and now the crown asks for further delay. The witness required, he understood, knew nothing of the affair, and he was the young man who was honorably discharged from having any connection with the case.

Mr. G. A. Jordan, who appeared for the other young man charged with being implicated in the assault, also protested against further delay. At this juncture County Constable Thornbury appeared in court and stated that he was unable to locate the witness. He was in town and could be served.

The hearing was, therefore adjourned until two o'clock in the afternoon.

Leo Penrose was acquitted Friday evening on the charge preferred against him of unlawfully assaulting Constable Short on March 4th.

It was after seven o'clock in the evening when Magistrate Jackson gave judgment. The case opened at two o'clock in the afternoon before a crowded court room, many of the spectators remaining until the close. County Crown Attorney A. P. Devlin conducted the prosecution, while Mr. L. V. O'Connor defended Penrose.

Owing to the lateness of the hour, the hearing of the evidence against Leslie Goheen, who is charged with a similar offence, was adjourned until Friday morning next at 9.30 o'clock.

Mr. John McDonnell was the first witness for the prosecution, and he told of his coming up town on the evening of March 4th, and also of meeting Messrs. Penrose, Goheen, Campbell and the two Carlin's at the Benson house. Late in the evening, the witness, in company with Campbell, crossed to Taylor's restaurant, followed by the remainder of the crowd. They all stood outside, and Constable Short came out and ordered them to move on and go home. The witness replied, "Yes, sir," as he was anxious to get out of Michael Carlin's company. McDonnell started east on Kent-st., crossing from the Y. M. C. A. to McConnell's hotel. The others also followed. They went west on Kent-st. followed by Constable Short. When near Gregory's corner the witness turned around and went east again, going straight to his home. He did not see the crowd any more that evening.

DR. BROWN

In his evidence told of the medical attendance given Constable Short on the morning of March 5th. The officer came to his office about one o'clock, and he found that his face was covered with blood, the right eye almost shut and getting black. Other parts of his face and head were bruised and there was one cut about an inch long on the right side of the head. His nose was bleeding and there was a scratch on his left cheek. He presented the appearance of one who had been badly bruised. The wound in the head could have been inflicted by anything that could produce violence. The officer was taken to the hospital after his injuries were attended to. There is a possibility of erysipelas and blood poisoning in cases of this nature if care was not exercised.

CONSTABLE SHORT

next gave evidence. He was on duty on the night of March 4th, going on at 7 o'clock. His duty in regard to loiterers was to move them on, and when the hour was late he advised them to go home. He knew Michael Carlin well, as he had arrested him at one time, and had also taken him to penitentiary. He saw the crowd outside of Taylor's restaurant about twelve o'clock on the night of the 4th. He did not see Michael Carlin or L. Penrose. He ordered them to move on. They moved and crossed to McConnell's, starting west on Kent-st. He overtook Goheen and Leopold Carlin at Appleby's barber shop. He told them they were going the wrong way. Mr. Short followed them on up Kent-st. They crossed to the Moore House from Adams' grocery and stopped there until he came up. They continued east to Fleury's grocery. Young Carlin, Penrose and Goheen stopped. He ordered them home, telling them he would lock

MILLIONS OF CELLS.

The human body is composed of countless millions of cells. These cells are constantly dying and new ones are being created. Dead cells are removed from the blood by the bowels, kidneys and skin. These great eliminating organs filter this waste matter from the blood, and thus purify the blood.

If there is Constipation, or non-action of the bowels—if the kidneys are strained or weakened—if there is defective skin action—then the dead cells are not removed from the body. The blood thus becomes loaded with impurities, and we suffer for it.

The only way to purify the blood is to cure the skin, bowels and kidneys. When these organs are healthy and doing their work as nature intended them to do it, waste matter is promptly removed and the blood is kept pure and healthy.

"Fruit-a-tives"—the famous fruit tablets—act directly on the skin, the bowels and the kidneys. "Fruit-a-tives" purify the blood because they keep the whole body strong, vigorous and healthy. 50c a box, 4 for $2.50, or trial box, 75c. At dealers or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

them up if they did not obey. Michael Carlin then made his appearance. He did not know where from Carlin said, "You have no right to order those people home." Witness replied that he had and that he had the right to order him (Carlin) home. Carlin then clinched him and a tussle followed. Carlin fell on the east side and the officer on the west. Witness got on top of him. It was then he got the kicks on the head. They came so fast that he could not tell the number. Carlin could not touch him on account of the position he was in. Witness let go of Carlin and said to Goheen and Penrose, "Do you want to kill me?" They continued kicking him until Carlin got at him. The first kicks were on the right side. The fellows he referred to were Leopold Carlin, Penrose and Goheen. They were the only ones present. They finally left the witness and went down street. He heard them say, "We will learn you to look into windows," etc. He never saw Penrose after he got up. The others went to York-st, and turned south. Witness went to Taylor's for his revolver, and came to York-st. Mr. Taylor had telephoned Chief Vincent after going down York-st., witness went back to Taylor's and finally went out Lindsay-st., and saw the two Carlins and Goheen, as he thought, standing on Lindsay-st. south of Dr. Brown's. He called to them to halt, but they started south, and he fired his revolver in the air. Witness followed them to Glenelg-st., where they turned west on the north side. He followed them on south to Melbourne-st., and found fresh tracks into Mr. Weese's barn. He was afraid to go in as it was dark and he could not see very well. Witness then came back Lindsay-st. and saw Goheen coming east on Glenelg-st. He arrested him and he denied being with Carlin. Witness took accused to Taylor's, and later told him to go home, as he could get him when he was wanted.

To Mr. O'Connor, Mr. Short said he saw nothing harmful when he came out of Taylor's the first time. The crowd passed no remarks, but they went on when he requested them to move. Witness followed on as they did not move as promptly as he desired. He never saw Penrose until near Fleury's. It seemed to him there was only three at the Moore house corner as he was coming across the street. He could not say positively that he saw Penrose.

LEO PENROSE

Was the first witness for the defence. He said he met Mike Carlin about 5 o'clock on the evening of March 4th. Witness only talked to him a few minutes at the Benson house, after which he (Penrose) went home. Witness next saw Carlin about 9.30 o'clock that evening in the same hotel. They remained there until closing time. John McDonnell and another went out before the bar closed. Witness first saw Mr. Short about 11.15, when the officer came out of Taylor's and ordered witness and his companions home. They all went down to the Y. M. C. A. corner and crossed to McConnell's hotel, coming up the north side of Kent-st. McDonnell, Goheen and the two Carlins were with the witness. McDonnell had left the crowd and all went on to the corner of Kent and Cambridge-sts., where they crossed to the Moore house. Witness saw Constable Short at the corner. The crowd was together when Mr. Short was crossing the street. When the officer ordered them on Goheen and witness started down on the east side of Kent-st. The two Carlins followed with Constable Short following on. The Carlins were about eight or ten feet behind witness and his companion. When in front of Fleury's witness said he heard a shuffle behind. Witness and Goheen walked on, and someone shouted "Dude." That referred to Goheen, who stopped. Witness went on down street to the Standard bank, crossing the street and going home across the Lindsay-st. bridge. He was not quite sure who shouted "Dude." He thought it was Leo Carlin. Witness did not know where Goheen went, nor did he hear cries of any kind. No one overtook him on his journey along Kent-st. Witness first heard of Mr. Short's assault the next day. The reason witness did not go back to the fight was because he was glad to get out of Carlin's company, and did not want to be mixed up in the affair. Witness did not hear Mr. Short's name mentioned the whole evening. He further knew nothing whatever of the kicking of John Short, or any other blows inflicted.

To Mr. Devlin witness said he was acquainted with all the boys with the exception of Carlin. He did not know him before he came to town the last time.

LESLIE GOHEEN

was called in Penrose's behalf. He said he first met Penrose about 9.30 o'clock on the evening of March 4th, as witness was going into the Benson house. Jack McDonnell was with Penrose and young Carlin was with witness. They were in the bar and Goheen said he walked through to the lavatory, and when he returned Penrose was in a room near the bar with McDonnell, Cooney and Campbell. Mike Carlin was not with the crowd, but was talking to someone near the bar. Witness stopped around the hotel about an hour and went out about closing time. Penrose, the two Carlins, and witness were all at the Moore house corner, when Constable Short came across and came up to them. Penrose and Goheen were together and were moving along. The Carlins were about ten feet in the rear. The constable then ordered them to go home. Penrose and witness then started home. The two Carlins stopped, as did also Constable Short. When witness was near the King Edward hotel Leopold Carlin called him. He went back but when turning he saw Short down with Mike Carlin on top of him and Leopold Carlin beside him. Penrose, in the meantime had gone on east on Kent-st. Witness did not see him any more. After the trouble Goheen went east to the corner of York-st. Nothing was said during the evening about Constable Short.

To Mr. Devlin witness said he heard Short say when he was down, "You know me Mike—I never done anything to you." Mike Carlin was kicking the officer when the witness arrived. Leopold Carlin was standing beside Mike Carlin, and was not assaulting officer. Witness asked Carlin to let the constable up. The officer was making no outcry. He got up and then the witness and the two Carlins went as far as the corner of York-st. He afterwards met Mr. Short at the corner of Lindsay and Glenelg-st., and again at the corner of Lindsay and Russell-st. The Carlins were with witness at that time. Goheen also said he heard two pistol shots. The two Carlins went south on Lindsay-st.

THE CASE DISMISSED.

Magistrate Jackson said in summing up that the charge was a serious one. Penrose had appeared before him before, but Goheen was a stranger to the court. It was a most serious matter to interfere with a police officer, and had the evidence been full he would have inflicted the full penalty (two years in penitentiary.) The magistrate then reviewed Constable Short's evidence, referring particularly to that portion where he stated that he was not positive about Penrose being present during the assault. Then there was Goheen's evidence, which was to the effect that the three persons whom Constable Short saw were the two Carlins and himself. Goheen's evidence must be considered. He (the magistrate) was there to do justice, and in the face of the evidence adduced he dismissed the case.
