On Friday evening of last week, the first annual banquet of the organized bible class was held and proved a grand success. About 110 sat down to tables decorated very prettily, and laden with the choicest of viands, as well as being served with hot oysters, while the orchestra played continuously during luncheon. After the repast a very interesting programme was given consisting of an address by Rev. Konkle, of Sonya, Mr. C. E. Weeks, of Woodville, quartette by four girls, duet by two young men, and short speeches from Rev. Chapman, Rev. Morton of the Christian church, Dr. G. W. Hall, Wm. Suggitt of Valentia, Mr. D. Yerex and others. A presentation was held at the close, Mr. R. S. Robertson, teacher of the class, being presented with a bible and hymn book. The banquet as a whole was a grand success.
Mr. Jos. Jones has departed for the west this week, after visiting his son for the winter.
On Monday night our choir gave a very pleasant surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wickett. Mr. Wickett was a former member of the choir, and as is the custom when one is leaving the choir they are given a party and present. Mr. Wickett was presented with a nice secretary and chair. The evening was spent in games and the demolishing of oysters.

Sonya News Of Interest
(Special to The Post.)
The W.H.M.S. of St. Andrew's church, Sonya, held their regular monthly meeting on March 2nd. The meeting was well attended, and very enthusiastic plans were made. After the regular business was despatched, Miss Douglas read a very instructive paper on "The History of our Dominion under French Rule," in which was clearly pointed out the heroic missionary work done by the Jesuits among the Indians. Plans were made for the annual thank offering service on the evening of Good Friday. A lecture will be delivered, good music provided, and the ladies are looking forward to a very profitable and enjoyable evening.
The 2nd carnival of the season was held on Thursday evening. Quite a number from a distance were present, and the carnival was pronounced by all a great success.

The community was greatly shocked on March 4th when the news spread that Mr. Angus Wilkinson had died suddenly that afternoon. Mr. Wilkinson has always enjoyed the best of health and had been feeling quite well. He and his man were cutting wood, and he left to go to the barn with Mr. Mac Thornburn, a cattle buyer. On his road back to work he met his neighbor, Mr. Moffatt and stopped to chat. While speaking he reeled and fell. Life was extinct in a few minutes. Dr. McPhail being called, pronounced it heart failure. He leaves to mourn his loss a wife and four small children, two brothers, Alex. and Neil of this vicinity, and one sister, Miss Margaret Wilkinson, of Cereal, Alta. The funeral took place on Wednesday to MacNeil's cemetery and was largely attended. The family have the heart felt sympathy of the community in their sudden bereavement.
LINDEN VALLEY
(Special to The Post.)
Mrs. Joe Jewell, of Cannington, called on friends in our neighborhood.
Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jewell spent

Wednesday in Woodville.
Mr. Russell Giles and sister, Miss Florence called on Peniel friends on Thursday.
Mr. David and Marvin Rogers attended Brown's sale at Cannington last week.
Miss Ettie Weldon of Lindsay is spending the week renewing old acquaintances in our neighborhood.
Mr. Edwin Rogers spent Thursday in Woodville.
Mr. Ernest Hancock and sister Tillie attended the leap year skate in Cannington on Thursday evening.
Miss Gertrude Birchard returned home from Toronto on Wednesday.
On Friday last Mrs. J. W. Hancock received the sad news of the death of her brother-in-law, Rev. W. I. Moore of Clarksburg.
Mr. Russell and Miss Florence Giles were in Lindsay on Monday attending the funeral of their cousin, Mrs. Grills, of Argyle.
The Woman's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. J. C. Coad, quite a number being present. Mrs. W. Fowler, vice-president, took the chair. Business was transacted in the usual manner. Then Miss Jennie Cruess gave an excellent paper on "The Twentieth Century Girl," an instrumental by Miss Jessie Coad, which was much enjoyed by all. Then a paper was also given by Miss Stella Hancock on the "Twentieth Century Farmers' Daughter." A reading by Mrs. Bert Jewell on how a man cleaned house in three days. The question drawer was ably handled by President Mrs. J. P. McElroy and secretary, Miss Kate McCorvia, subject being house cleaning and protection from moths. The meeting closed with the roll call.

CAMERON
(Special to The Post.)
Miss Fleda Cundal left here last week for Alberta.
Mr. Herron and family have moved to Peterboro.
Mr. Henry Eyres is very busy sawing lumber for some of his neighbors.
Miss P. Perrin, teacher at Zion, spent Sunday with her parents here. Unless the weather gets colder, Monday was the last night for skating on the rink, so all present put in a merry time, afterwards enjoying a taffy pull which was only marred a little by the absence of a few of the skaters.
Mrs. George Parkins, of Zion visited Miss Parkins on Tuesday.
Mrs. Elias Hoey was taken very ill on Friday. Today, (Tuesday) she is very low.
Mrs. Tate and Miss Ward are visiting in the city this week.
