Mr. William Manning was a visitor to Lindsay on Wednesday last.

Mrs. Reuben Gorrill who has been very sick the last month or so, is improving somewhat slowly. We sincerely hope for her speedy recovery.

Mr. Cecil Gillies was in town one day last week with a load of hay.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. Geo. Ownes on Wed, Feb 26, when his second daughter, Miss Lottie was married to Mr. Wilmot Moynes, of Ops Township.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Moynes drove to Lindsay, where they took the evening train for Toronto and other points. On their return they will reside on Mr. Moynes' farm in Ops. We all join in wishing them many years of happy wedded life.

WOODVILLE.

Our town is taking on quite a new air of business. One firm Smith McIntyre general merchants having dissolved partners. The former remains as Smith & Co. The latter taking over Mr. S. Keown's business at Argyll.

Mr. A. McLeod has purchased Mr. P. A. Deguerre's Bakery and confectionery business.

Mr. D. Jameison, our merchant tailor, having sold out to Mr. Corbett, of Cannington.

Mr. P. A. Deguerre has been on the sick list for the last month. We are glad to see him around again.

Mr. Jas. Shea has returned from a visit to Franklin and Fleetwood friends.

Last Tuesday morning our residents were startled at the news of the death of one in our midst in the person of Mr. John Richardson, who moved here from Kirkfield some four years ago.

HARTLEY

(Special to The Post.)

Miss Gibson of Riverview is visiting at the home of Mr. C. Ross.

Misses Maye Smith and S. Ross of the Lindsay Collegiate, spent Sunday at their respective homes.

Mr. J. S. McFadyen spent a couple of days in Toronto last week.

Mr. Archie McMillan has moved to his recently purchased farm, "Maple Hurst" in Palestine.

Mr. Melville McFadyen left for Toronto last week to take up a business position in that city.

The funeral of the late John McDermott was held from the residence of Mr. D. Ferguson on Thursday of last week to Glenarm cemetery, the body arriving by C.P.R. from Moose-jaw, Sask., on Wednesday evening. The funeral solemnities were under the direction of the Loyal Orange Association and the large crowd in attendance gave sufficient evidence of the esteem in which the deceased had been held. In regard to the death of the unfortunate man, suffice it to say that it was accidental, and took place on Friday, Feb. 21st at Moose-jaw, where he with others had been engaged on railway bridge construction work.

Miss Mamie Spence is home visiting friends for a week prior to taking a new position in Toronto.

Last Thursday evening about forty of the members of the Hartley congregation drove over to Woodville to enjoy a social evening at the Methodist parsonage. The evening was very pleasantly spent and a hearty vote of thanks was tendered to the pastor, Rev. W. R. Archer, and Mrs. Archer for their kind invitation.

During the church service on Sunday the pastor made a very interesting announcement in regard to the preaching service here next Sunday. The pulpit will be occupied by Rev. J. H. Arnup, of Toronto, the secretary of the Layman's Missionary Movement, and one of the foremost speakers in the province. It is to be hoped that as many as possible will take advantage of this opportunity of hearing a speaker so highly commended.

ISLAY

Miss Mamie Naylor is visiting with relatives in Toronto.

Mr. Archie Graham, also Master Sherman Graham, recently spent a few days at the home of Mr. Tommy Graham, of Midland.

A gloom was cast over our district during last week when the news of the sad death of Mr. Jack McDermott at Moosejaw, was made known. Many from this district attended the funeral on Thursday from the residence of Mr. Dan Ferguson. Jack was well known and highly esteemed by many friends in this district who deeply regret to hear of his sad death.

Miss Lizzie Knight, of Balsam Lake, is spending a few days at the home of her sister, Mrs. H. Boyd.

Several from this district were in Lindsay on Saturday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Worsley, of Zion district, have taken up residence on the farm vacated by Edgar Oliver. We understand Mr. and Mrs. Oliver intend going west at an early date.

KINMOUNT

(Special to The Post)

We had a very heavy snowfall accompanied by heavy wind yesterday. Roads are heavy as a consequence.

A hockey game between the senior and junior teams is on to-night. It is a benefit game in aid of Wallace Scott, who was badly hurt by the puck hitting him on the shin during the Kinmount-Minden game last week, which ended in favor of Kinmount by a score of 5-1.

Mrs. Clark's son, John, was taken to the Ross Hospital last Saturday to undergo an operation for appendicitis. We trust the operation may be successful and that John will soon be back.

Death has taken another flower from one of our homes. Mr. Neil Wilson's little daughter, Alma, aged 7 months, died last week and was buried on Friday.

This week we must congratulate one, who though not successful in the field of municipal affairs last January, was successful in another line, as the scene enacted in the Presbyterian Manse last Tuesday Feb 25, goes to show.

Married-By the Rev. Walker, Mr. J. G. McFarland, of Cobocok, to Miss Kate McIntyre, of Norland, formerly a teacher in Haldimont County. May their future be crowned with happiness.

On Wednesday 26th, Feb, at the Manse, by the Rev. Walker, Mr. Gordon D. Lake, of Gooderham, was married to Miss Reta A. Hunter, also of Gooderham.

As to where they should have their prescriptions filled. They are no longer in doubt after having patronized our pharmacy.

It is true in many instances that a cheap article is in the end a very expensive one, but never is it more true than in the purchase of medicines. A cheap drug is always expensive because you cannot get results from medicines that have lost their medicinal properties either from old age or inferiority.

WHAT IS "STYLE" In Men's Clothes THIS SPRING?

Style includes beauty of fabric and perfection of fit.

Yet ideal fabric and fit do not of necessity mean style. So it is obvious that he who talks of fitting you well in handsome materials may not give you one iota of style.

Our Clothing contains the advanced styles of the world's foremost Tailors. And it is designed in such a manner that no matter what model you wish to secure, our immense stock contains it.

And it is ever true here that price paid will be forgotten when supreme satisfaction in your purchase is still yours.

Come In To-day

The entire assembly of wonderful color effects and weaves will be here for you to select from. We will usher in the early Spring Season with the satisfaction of knowing that we offer you the best Clothing Service this Great Store has ever known. May we show you?
