New Choir Leader For St. Andrew's

Mr. C. V. Pymn Comes to Lindsay to Take Charge of Music in the Presbyterian Church.

Evening Post of April 16 Mr. C. V. Pym arives in town tomorrow night to take charge of St. Andrew's church choir. Mr. Pym has been in Millbrook for some time, but is recently from England. He is said to have had great success as a choir leader in the old country, and while in Canada has made a name for himself. The people of St. Andrew's are in a manner looking to him to bring the choir to a standard of excellence, even greater than it has enjoyed. In the accompfishment of this he will find, to say the least, an amplitude of opportunity. Mr. Harry Hamilton, who has charge of the organ, is known as one of the most thoroughly competent in the city, and together with Mr. Pym should, in the opinion of the people of St. Andrew's, accomplish a great deal in the way of making the musical services of that church as attractive

A SCANDALOUS VERDICT. Hamilton Herald; If ever a judge had good reason for berating a jury it was the Detroit judge who presided at the trial of the Canadian youth Percy Bowin, on the charge of murder. That Bowin killed the old woman, Mrs. Welch, in order to get money to squander in riotous livings no one who followed the evidence can doubt. But she jury acquitted him. An argument against capital punishishment in Michigan, and the foolish Bowin jury had not that excuse.

Clean Up, Tidy Up, Burn Up.

The season of the year has arrived when every householder should get busy and have his premises cleaned up and freed from the winters' accumulation of garbage and refuse before the spring sun makes it putrid and generates gas, which is often responsible for many cases of spring sickness, which visits our homes. Death Much Regretted.

Evening Post of April 18

In the death of Mr. Michael Guiry, which occurred this week at his residence, Lindsay, has lost a figure which has been most conspicuous on our streets for many years. Guiry was born in the township of Emily about the year 1810, and had no doubt before him in his early day tion is not as serious as the girl's. the prospects of a bright future, but by an accident which happened in his youth he lost his eyesight. Such a calamity would have disheartened most young men of his age, but notwithstanding the total loss of his sight, his energy impelled him on not only to make a competency sufficient for life, but he leaves a very nice estate to be divided, amougst relatives-his beautiful residence on. the banks of the Scugog-and his well-tilled farm has been admired by many - a marvel to those who knew its superintendence was the work of a blind man. In addition to this, through shrewd business capa city Mr. Guiry became the owner of several stores on Kent-st. in the town. His affliction, which must have been a great drawback, always seemed to be to a great extent lessened by a sharpening of his other faculties. Terrible Accident on Transcontinental Railway Works at Armagh, Bellechasse, Quebec - French-Canadians the Victims-Unfortunate Men Badly Mutilated-Limbs

Torn From Their Bodies. Quebec, April 20.-By the premature explosion of a dynamite mine in a rock cut on the Transcontinental Railway, at Armagh, in the County of Bellechasse, about 25 miles below. Quebec, on the south shore, Saturday afternoon, nine men were instantly killed and three badly injured. Armagh lies back some 20 miles from St. Valier station, on the Intercolonial Railway, and only meagre details of the catastrophe have so far

The names of the killed are: Angus Campbell of Iron Mines, N.S.; A. Pinkstone, a native of England; A. Bernard, of France; Adelard Morrisette, Wilfrid Noel, Edouard Langlois, Onesime Gagnon, Emile Charette, all natives of Armagh, and Joseph Roy of St. Philemon, County of Belle-

Montreal correspondent telegraphs: News of the accident reached Quebec late on Saturday afternoon from St. Valier, but particulars were hard to obtain. Of the six French-Canadians who met death in the explosion one, Emile Charette, was married. A widow and large family survive him. Campbell was foreman of the party. His remains will be sent to New Brunswick. Of the three injured two are not seriously and one has a broken leg. Details as to the cause of the disaster are but meagre, but it is supposed to have been due to a premature blast. A gloom has been cast over the community by the terrible occurrence, which is one of the worst in the history of the county. The scene of the explosion was at the railway construction camp at Messrs. Murdock Bros. at St. Cagetan D'Armagh, Bellechasse county.

Thought It Was War. Rio de Janeiro, April 20.-A despatch received here says that an Argentine warship during manoeuvres Saturday night near Montevideo, fired 200 shots from heavy guns and threw their searchlights for a considerable time in all directions over the shores. This resulted in almost a panic among the inhabitants who were for a time unable to understand the nature of the seeming demonstration. Recently there has been some friction between Uruguay and the Argentine Republic on the question of which country had jurisdiction of the water of the Platte River. A number of Argentine warships at different times entered the harbor of Montevideo without firing the accustomed salute. The Prime Minister of the Argentine Republic in a recent speech declared that all the waters of the River Platte belonged to the Argentine Republic.

Blenheim, April 20.-Almost a fatal accident occurred here when Ruby, the 11-year-old daughter of William Marshall, while playing with some other girls, found several candle-like affairs for curling mustaches. MOIR NOT YET CAPTURED Victim Had Remonstrated With Him For Being Intoxicated and Untidy -Uses Rifle and Escapes -- Murderer Has Revolvers and Ammunition With Him - Seen Near St. Mary's Yesterday.

London, April 20 .- Private Moir, orderly at Wolseley Barracks, who at midnight Friday shot and fatally wounded Col.-Sergt. Henry Lloyd of Stratford, has not yet been captured, although he was heard of in the vicinity of Grove Post, and later on he asked a man for food, but didn't get it. He stayed over night and was seen yesterday on the G.T.R. track near St. Mary's. Detectives set out after him on a hand-car.

He has abandoned his rifle, but has two heavy revolvers. He took a child's peak cap in place of his own military Moir is said to have an ugly disposition. He had been drinking during Good Friday, and on returning, Lloyd, who was in command of the guard, reprimanded Moir on his condition, and declared that he would be reported to the commanding officer in the morning for being improperly dressed. Moir became very argumentative, and somewhat abusive, and Lloyd allowed him to go to his quarters without further protest. Shortly afterwards a noise like that of a rifle shot was heard, and Orderly Officer Lieut. Morris came to Sergt. Lloyd and asked him who was the last man in. As the shot appeared to come from the hospital section, Lieut. Morris asked Lloyd to investigate. He and Morris then went down into the sleeping quarters of the or-

The room was quite dark, but Moir was seen in the corner with a rifle in his hand. Lloyd asked him to lay down the rifle, and he went over towards Moir. The latter raised the rifle. Lloyd saw the movement and jumped towards Moir. There was a report, and Lloyd sank to the floor

Morris hurried away to call the guard and Moir escaped. Moir is an old soldier, so it is said, and was a private in the old Gordon Highlanders. He fought with the regiment through the Boer war. He has also seen service on the frontier. He always carried firearms, and, it is said, would shoot on provocation. The revolver he carried was an army revolver. Moir also had another revolver which he borrowed from one of the other soldiers.

Moir evidently determined to commit the deed after the reprimand administered by Sergt. Lloyd. He took down the rifle and loaded it, with a steel-capped cartridge. He then buc-kled on his bandelero belt, filled with cartridges belonging to Pte. Brady. "Moir used to drink some, but was not a heavy drinker," said one of the privates, who was well acquainted with Moir. "He used to be a cordite eater. That acts like dope, and it used to make him wild at times. He was particularly bad when he was drinking, as he seemed to be worse. Cordite eating was somewhat common in South Africa, it is said. The men remove the cartridges and eat the powder. It is a powerful stimulant, and acts much like morphine and other drugs of that sort. Lloyd was about 25 years of lage, fair complexion with a light mustache. His home is in Stratford, and he was attached to the 28th Battalion. For several years past he has been taking courses at the barracks.

Quebec Legislature. Montreal, April 20 .- Both the provincial leaders are in town to-day, and it is pretty well understood that the session of the Legislature will be prorogued on Saturday next, to be followed by an early dissolution of

It is said that the redistribution bill to be brought down this week will divide the County of Hochelaga into four counties, instead of one, as today, and that the Counties of Pontiac and Labelle will also be given an additional member.

There will be no increase in the sessional indemnity this session, but it is said that an increase may begiven after the elections.

Bones of British Soldiers. New York, April 20 .- A burial vault, the existence of which was never suspected, has been discovered at Fort Hancock, Sandy Hook, containing the bones of some 30 or 40 men, believed to have been British soldiers wounded at the battle of Monmouth Courthouse in June, 1778. It was known that Sir Henry Clinton, the British commander, succeed-

The fire was first noticed when it had made such headway as to be beyond control. It is not known how the fire originated unless it was from sparks from a passing railway train. wurderer Gremates Himself. Seneca, Kas., April 20.-James Lally, charged with murder, was burned to death yesterday in a fire which destroyed the jail here. Lally is believed to have set fire to his bed with suicidal intent.
