Week's Doings At Pretty Islay

(Special to The Post)

The Islay branch of the Women's Institute held their quarterly social evening at the home of Mr. Thos. Hill on Friday evening March 25th. and it was a splendid success. About seventy were present and about eight o'clock the chair was taken by the President, Mrs. Wm. Wilson, Zion, and an excellent programme was rendered, consisting of instrumentals songs, readings, recitations and dialogues. At the close of the program several of the gentlemen present were called on to make a speech. Mr. W. H. Warwick who has spent the winter months in the employ of Marshall Moynes, was almost the only one who responded. He gave an excellent address, in which he expressed his pleasure at being present. He stated that since coming to Islay he had made many friends, and regretted that he was about to leave but anticipated becoming a resident of our village at some future time. He had been accustomed to city life in London, England, and other places, and did not desire it any longer, but intended to remain in Canada, and in time to become naturalized to the country. He had travelled a great deal in different countries, and found in most places the women have an Institute organization something similar to it. As he has not yet joined the ranks of matrimony he could not say what good it had done his household, but he believed it was a good thing. After making a few more remarks he took his seat amid much clapping and applause. Lunch and oysters were then served, and after all had done ample justice to the dainty repast, the meeting was called to order, and a vote of thanks was extended to Mr. and Mrs. Hill for their hospitality in giving their commodious residence for the occasion. A vote of thanks was also tendered to Mr. W. H. Warwick for his kindness in advertising the Institute meetings in our local papers. The pleasant evening was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem. The April meeting will be held at the home of Mr. Naylor on the usual date. All the ladies of the neighborhood are invited to attend.

Mr. John Elford who has spent the winter months at his former home here, left for Saskatoon on Saturday of last week. He was accompanied by Mr. Leo Fowler, of Cambray station. Their many friends wish them a safe trip.

We are pleased to state that Miss Maggie Morrow is recovering after suffering from an attack of congestion of the lungs.

Mr. W. H. Warwick went to town on Thursday of last week, combining business with pleasure. Master Carl Moynes of L.C.I., returned home with him to spend the Easter vacation in Islay with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Moynes.

Master Clare Spence and John Green, of Lindsay are spending the holidays at their respective homes here.

Gleanings from Powles' Corners

Again the joyous Easter season has gone from our midst, but let us hope it has left us with many ennobling thoughts and resolutions to promote the true ideals of life more and more. It seems to us that we do not fully appreciate the meaning of Easter, or we would endeavour to commemorate it in a more fitting manner as one of the most important celebrations in the Christian Religion. Let us all strive to make the year one that will long be memorable as one in which we strove to follow the teachings of the glad Easter.

The brand of weather which we have had this March has surpassed in beauty any we can remember for many years. If present indications can be interpreted properly, the spring this year promises to be very early and fine. It is about this time that we expect those fine stories about the first robin, the first frog, and the "sucker run."

FENELON FALLS EASTER EVENTS GLEANED BY OUR CORRESPONDENT

(Special to The Post)

Special Easter services were held in all the churches on Sunday and large numbers attended the services, which were of a markedly joyous character befitting the celebration of the Resurrection of our Lord and Saviour from the dead.

At St. James' Church, splendid sermons by the rector, Rev. W. H. A. French were delivered at both services. Holy Communion being administered to a large number of communicants at 8 a.m., and after the regular morning service.

Special music of an inspiring nature was rendered by the choir. In Stainer's beautiful anthem, "What are these that are arrayed in white robes," Rev. 7 13-17, the solo, "And God Shall Wipe away all tears from their eyes," was feelingly rendered in splendid voice by the rector. The other numbers were:

Gloria Patri—Chant II.

Te Deum—173 Oakley.

Jubilate—33 Ouseley.

In St. Andrew's church the services were very interesting. At the morning service the pastor, Rev. C. S. Lord, preached an admirable sermon on The Answer of Science to the Question: Doth Death End All? In the evening the subject was, If Christ did not rise what follows? and was handled in a masterful way. The choir rendered an anthem at the morning service, "How Calm and Beautiful," by Gabriel.

After service Miss Mary Chambers sang Face to Face.

In the evening a song service was rendered, the first number being an anthem, "Joyful Eastertide," in which the solo was taken by Mrs. McArthur. Mrs. John Northey and Mrs. A. A. Cameron gave a duet, and a duet was also rendered by Messrs. Lee and Cameron.

"The Light of the World," a solo by Mrs. John Northey was beautifully rendered.

The quartette, "Christ is Risen" by Mrs. McArthur and Mrs. Cameron, and Messrs. H. Copp and J. J. Lee, was given exceedingly well.

A duet by Mrs. Cameron and Mr. Copp, was followed by the closing solo, "Behold I Knock," given in excellent voice and excellently rendered by Mrs. A. E. McArthur.

The services at the Methodist were as usually heartily entered into by the large congregations present both morning and evening. In the morning Rev. W. J. Cragg, B.A., B.D., delivered an earnest and inspiring sermon from the text, "Follow thou Me." In the anthem the solo parts were well taken by Mrs. W. Northey and Mr. A. Quibell.

Wedding Bells

CAMERON—SMITH

On Wednesday, March 23rd, a quiet and pretty wedding was solemnized at "Hillview" Farm, Lorneville the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith when their daughter, Tena May was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Neil Cameron, only son of Mrs. S. Cameron, of Lorneville.

The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. J. L. Campbell, B. A., of Toronto, uncle of the bride, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom.

The bride, attired in a white silk princess gown, and carrying a bouquet of carnations, was given away by her father and entered the parlor, which was tastefully decorated, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Laura, sister of the bride. The young couple were unattended, the bride's youngest sister, Marthella, acting as ring-bearer.

After substantial justice had been done to the wedding dinner, the health of the bride and groom was proposed by Rev. J. L. Campbell and responded to by the groom.

The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl crescent and to the ring bearer a ring.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and costly presents, which testified to the high esteem in which she is held.

The happy couple left on the evening train for Buffalo and other American points, the bride travelling in a dark blue tailored suit and white hat.

After their return Mr. and Mrs. Cameron will reside in Beaverton.

THE HABIT OF SAVING

Counts more than the amount saved, especially in the beginning. Those who make a practice of saving regularly find it possible to save under conditions decidedly unpromising. And the smallest sums, saved steadily, in due season make totals of surprising size.
