

LADIES' $20 TAILORED SUITS ON SALE AT $15

A POPULAR STYLE SUIT AT $15.00

This is a very popular style Spring Suit for men. It comes in grey mixtures and fancy worsteds, smooth finished and sure to give good satisfaction. These suits were made expressly for us so that we know the tailoring is good. A splendid range at..... $15

MEN'S DRESS GLOVES FOR EASTER WEAR

Men's Kid and Cape Gloves in new Spring shades and made with the popular dome fastener, unlined and right for Spring wear. A big range at per pair..... $1

EVERYONE A NEW SPRING STYLE

The reason you are able to save $5 on one of these suits does not arise from the source that some savings are derived from. No manufacturer can put through and make up the exact number of garments his Spring orders will call for, and rather than be caught without enough to fill his orders he would rather have a few left over. Such is the case in this instance. These are "Northway Made Garments"—enough in itself to warrant you buying them. They were made up for their North West business, along with hundreds of others and from the whole make-up these were their overmake. You get the bargain. Each one is a new, up-to-the-minute Spring style and some are individual models. The cloths are Serge, Worst, Venetians and fancy Suitings, some silk lined, others satin lined. New 26 inch semi-fitting coats and the new style skirt, some of which are trimmed with strappings and braids. The colors are Black, Navy, Grey, Mustard, Green and King's Blue. The tailoring and workmanship on these garments is of the very best class, and they are regular $20.00 value, on sale at..... $15

Dramatic Event At Manilla

(Special to the Post.)
The constant rumble of wheels last Friday evening, early after tea was a sure indication that something of unusual interest was about to take place in our village. The cause of so much stir and commotion was the annual concert given by the Dramatic Club in aid of the public library.

The Club through past successes, have won for themselves the reputation for putting on a first-class play, and the surrounding country look forward to this event with great pleasure.

We missed this year some of the familiar faces that have taken part in most of the plays and hope that in the future they will be back in their old places.

That amateur theatricals are decidedly most popular was once more demonstrated for the I. O. O. F. Hall was packed to the doors, many having to stand to see the drama, Josiah's Courtship.

Mr. Andy Dixon as Josiah, took his part in his usual good style. It makes no difference which character Andy takes, whether kid or old man he takes it to perfection.

Miss Jeanette Ferguson, as Priscilla the old maid, was exceptionally good and her make-up was ideal.

Miss Mary McInnes as "Birdie" the maid on her first appearance stepped tight into the hearts of the audience for in both her actions and speech she was so free from the amateur restraint. Miss Emma Cockburn as Edna, was quite charming and won well merited praise.

Miss Eliza as Mrs. Black, the wronged widow never looked better in her widow's weeds and acted her part in denouncing the villain in a very creditable manner.

Mr. Hugh Grant as Mike, Josiah's first servant, brought forth peals of laughter wherever he appeared. Hugh is always a host in himself.

Mr. Lee Edwards as Sharp the detective took his part in a most business like manner and in adjusting the handcuffs he did so with such dexterity one would think it was an every day occurrence.

Mr. George Jewell as Jeff, Miss Priscilla's colored servant always popped in at any critical point in the play and was a favorite from the start. George is a clever actor and is always well received. Mr. George Douglas as Joe never acted better and the antics of him and Jeff caused much merriment.

Mr. Alex. Welnes as Tom Hart the victim of the villain was perfectly at home in the part and did splendid acting.

Mr. Clarence Steele took the rather difficult part of Dick Roland the villain very cleverly. At the close of the performance the expressions on all sides were of satisfaction and most complimentary to the performers.

Special mention must be made of the music. The Oakwood orchestra was in attendance, their music being so good that it was alone worth the price of admission. Miss Kennedy of Cresswell, sang "Sunshine and Butterflies" very sweetly, and we would be glad to have the pleasure of hearing her again. We were glad to welcome Miss Minnie Glendinning and hear again her violin, which received loud applause.

Gramophone selections were given by Mr. Nelson Hunter, while the people were gathering. Proceeds amounted to a neat $53.00.

OMEMEE.

(Special to the Post)

Mrs. Dr. Thompson is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Watson, of Cobocook.

Miss Amy Parsons returned from Peterboro on Tuesday after spending a few weeks there.

The millinery openings took place last week and the usual bevy of fair women flocked to the millinery parlors. The hats this season seem to suit every one from the large drooping shapes to the chic little, suit-case hats. One large black hat with two immense willow plumes is particularly worthy of mention, as well as a black and green model with a bandeau of lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Weir was in Peterboro on Saturday.

A very interesting lecture illustrated with stereopticon views was given last Tuesday evening in the Presbyterian church by the Rev. H. J. Keith, of Peterboro. A good crowd attended and the Boys' Guild realized over seven dollars as their net proceeds.

Miss Vera Sproule was in Peterboro on Saturday.

Mr. Cecil Cornell was in Lindsay on Friday last.

This cold weather seems rather strenuous for young chickens, yet we understand that Mrs. R. Toole has over eighty chickens hatched with the incubator this spring.

NOGIE'S CREEK.

(Special to the Post.)

On Friday evening, March 31, the annual meeting and election of officers of our Adult Bible Class took place. After the opening exercises the President gave a short talk on the New Testament League movement, after which the general business of the year was finished up. Then came the reports of each officer and heads of committees, which was received with applause. The elections were held after the manner of municipal elections, with nominating papers, and ballots. The elections were very enthusiastic and interesting, the most exciting contest was in the election of the President, and it was about the hottest election that has been held in our little burg for any office of any kind, and there has been some hot ones, the supporters of the respective candidates working like heroes. There was three nominees, as follows: W. H. Merrill, Chas. Krager, Rev. H. W. Foley. The result of the ballot was as follows: W. H. Merrill, 40; Chas. Krager, 12; Rev. Foley, 10.

The executive for the year is as follows:

Pres.—W. H. Merrill
Vice Prs.—Milton Courduff,
Secretary—Miss T. Krager
Treas.—Mrs. Cas. Beatty.
Teacher—W. D. Ventress.

Con. Dev. Com.—Miss M. Crowe.
Con. Social Com.—Miss M. Beatty.
Con. Visitation Com.—Mrs. Chas. Krager.

Con. Membership Com.—Miss, Gussie Courduff.
Con. Athletic Com.—Mr. E. Crowe.
Missionary Supt.—Mrs. J. Baatty.
Missionary Treas.—Miss E. Krager.
Organist—Miss Ida Crowe.

After the lectures the President installed the officers amidst rounds of applause.

NORLAND.

(Special to the Post.)

The funeral of the late J. J. Glaspey of Lutterworth passed through the village last week to the Pine Grove cemetery for interment.

Mr. J. C. Gostlin was united in marriage with Miss Effie Cameron of Lutterworth on March 24th. They were married in Cobocook, and as they were leaving the church the ladies of that village gathered together and gave them a shower of rice.

Miss Nellie is home from Guelph for a short visit with her parents in the village.

Mr. Arthur Perkins, of Lindsay is at present visiting in this burg.

Mr. Richard Day has moved his family up to the power house where they will stay for the summer.

Misses M. Martin and D. Ellis, drove through the village one day last week.

Captain Beck went to Toronto the other morning to see his father, who is intending to leave for England.

The social which was held at the barracks last Monday was not a very good success on account of the weather being so unfavorable. It rained all day and in the evening so that the people would not attend from a distance, but for all there was a very good attendance.

Mrs. Coutermache has gone to Toronto to see her daughter, who is at present very sick. We all wish her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Wm. Adair has gone to see her daughter, Mrs. A. Swain.

Mr. Walter Gostlin has moved his family up to Orangeville as he is working in the cement works in that place.

It is with regret that we state that Mr. Elmer Newson is going to the west on Tuesday morning. All his friends wish him success and a most enjoyable trip.
