Proceedings Of Ops Council

Ops Council met April 8th at 10 a. m. All the members present, except Mr. Hickson, who did not arrive till afternoon as he had first to attend to the repair of some road culverts that had been washed out in his division by Sunday's flood.

The minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed.

Communications from Inspector of Post Offices re new rural mail routes, from Ontario Municipal Association, from Col. The Hon. S. Hughes, from Board of Railway Commissioners advising that the matter of the Stewart bridge was being taken up with the railway company.

On motion of W. Best, seconded by W. Walden, Wm. Channon was appointed pathmaster of road beat No. 76, in the place of N. F. Jordan who has disposed of his property.

Tenders for the Township printing for the ensuing year were read, and on motion of W. Best, seconded by G. Maloney, the contract was awarded to The Post.

On motion of W. Walden, seconded by F. W. Hickson, the Clerk was instructed to write Col. Hughes, also the town council re the advisability of locating the new bridge over the Scoug river on the second or third quarterline of Ops.

On motion of W. Walden, seconded by G. Maloney, it was decided to hold a court of Revision of the 1912 assessment roll on Monday, the 27th day of May, 1912, at the hour of 10 a. m. in the Clerk's office.

On motion of W. Best, seconded by W. Walden the reeve and clerk were authorized to have a new supply of road lists and instructions for pathmasters printed.

Mr. Terrill, assessor, was present to formally return his roll, and to call attention to the state of some culverts in his division that were damaged by the recent floods. Mr. Terrill was complimented on the appearance of his roll, and the matter of culverts was turned over to Mr. Best, commissioner in that division.

Mr. E. Thurston was present to ask that he be not put in for more statute labor by reason of his assessment having been divided at the request of one of his tenants to be separately assessed. He was quite willing to have such a tenant assessed as tenant, but did not wish his rates increased thereby. Mr. Thurston was assured that his assessment would not be changed, since he was the one that paid the taxes, and that the tenant's name would be put on as householder.

On motion of W. Walden, seconded by G. Maloney, the following accounts were paid: D. W. Terrill, on acct. salary as assessor, $50; Treasurer Kennedy, for new cash book, $7; Clerk for postage, $2.

The Reeve and Clerk were authorized to get a new by-law book. Adjourned to meet May 27th.

LINDEN VALLEY

The W. I. branch met at the home of Mrs. Jess Gorrill on April 4th. A paper was given by Miss Tillie Hancock on "Girls and their ideals." Then Mrs. Jess Gorrill gave an excellent reading. Miss Jessie Coad and Mrs. Jess Gorrill gave a duet accompanied by Miss Tillie Hancock. Preparing fish and eggs for the table was well discussed. Among the visitors present was Mrs. Lillico and daughter, Miss Dot Lillico of Oakwood.

Mr. Allie Greenaway of Victoria University, Toronto, visited his cousin, Mr. Ernest Hancock.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Gorrill spent the Easter holidays in Toronto.

Mr. James Manning, of Eden called on friends in our neighborhood on Good Friday.

Miss Rennie Cullis, of Toronto, spent Good Friday at her home here, and on her return to Toronto was accompanied by her sister, Miss Bessie.

Mr. John Emmerson, of Nestleton, was the guest of his brother, Mr. James Emmerson on Friday.

Miss Laurie McCorvia, of Toronto visited her sister, Mrs. W. R. Cruess on Easter Sunday.

Miss Ruby Cullis and brother John spent Easter at their home here.
