WHEN LA BOURGOYNE SANK

The greatest disaster in the record of modern ocean navigation was recorded Tuesday. The foundering of the Titanic will make a place in history beside the capsizing of the Royal George with "twice four hundred men," and the loss of the troopship Birkenhead, one of the most dramatic events of the nineteenth century, when a detachment of British soldiers stood at attention on the deck of the sinking ship, while the boats took off the women and children aboard.

DEATH'S TOLL
Other terrible tales of the toll that ocean takes of those who do business in great waters include the loss of the White Star steamer Atlantic off the coast of Nova Scotia in 1878, when 547 people were drowned, the few persons saved being rescued by fishermen on the cliffs; the sinking of the Princess Alice in the Thames in 1878, after a collision, with 700 souls on board; the loss of the Anchor liner Utopia off Gibraltar in 1891 by collision, when 574 immigrants were drowned; the sinking of La Bourgoyne, a French ocean liner, in 1898, with a loss of 580 lives, and the burning of the excursion steamer General Slocum, off New York in 1904, when 1,400 people, including hundreds of children, perished by fire or threw themselves overboard and were drowned.

Sixty miles off Sable Island, on the morning of July 4, 1898, La Bourgoyne crashed into the British steamer Cromartyshire. The big French liner was sunk and of over 600 on board, less than a hundred survived to tell the tale.

The La Bourgoyne, running at a terrific rate of speed, struck the Cromartyshire on the port bow, and the French vessel sank almost before those on board knew what had happened.

Eye-witnesses of the dire tragedy said the French ship recoiled from the shock as though struck by a thunderbolt, then, amid the despairing shrieks of the trembling souls who had managed to gain the deck, sank to "Davy Jones' locker."

ONE WOMAN SAVED
Only one woman was saved, Mrs. A. Lacasse, of Plainfield, N. J. who was rescued by the heroic efforts of her husband.

As the La Bourgoyne went down, three priests who were among the passengers, calmly continued their giving absolution to the French and American Catholics who knelt at their feet.

As the big ship sank she sucked down everything on the surface near by, but those on the Cromartyshire saw, with horrible fascination, an eerie event which transpired soon after. When the suction ceased about 200 bodies shot out of the water with a rush, as if the sea were giving up its dead, after swallowing the ship.

Awful as was the disaster, it would have been doubly as bad had the French ship struck the Cromarty ten feet further aft. In that case both vessels would have been sunk.

Banquet To Champions
The Olympia Hockey team, Town League Champions, will be banqueted at the Olympia, on Thursday evening, when the McCarty medals, the Hughes Cup and Forbert Cup will be formally presented. The function promises to be a most interesting one.

PRESENTATION AT FENELON FALLS

Fenelon Falls, April 16th.—On Monday evening the members of St. Andrew's Adult Bible Class met to spend a social evening and to bid farewell to one of their members, Mr. Finlay Robson, who left the following morning for Calgary. After the programme of speeches and music was ended, Mr. Robson was presented on behalf of the class, by Mr. Thos Carley and Mr. Fred Jeffrey, with a Thermos bottle and the following address.

Dear Friend—The goodbye is usually a sad word to say, and we here meet to say that word to-night, with unusual sadness because of our high esteem and sincere affection for you. We beg that you will carry with you personally a sense of our deep regret that you find it necessary to leave. As a member of this Bible Class you have cheered us by your constant presence and helped us by your willing co-operation. As a church man, you have recognized that church membership spells responsibility, and you have ever yielded cheerful response to every call of duty. Besides as a citizen you have lived as to win uniform and universal respect and you leave with the sincere affection of all good churchmen and respect of all good citizens. Our united prayer is that our Father's presence may be with you to guide you and bless you, all the days of your life. Signed on behalf of the A. B. C. Rev. C.S. Lord, teacher, A. Sutherland, Hon. Pres.

LINDSAY AMATEURS AT THE FALLS
Fenelon Falls, April 16.—An entertainment in aid of the Baptist church was given on the evening of Friday, April 26th., in Dickson's hall. A program entitled, "The Noble Outcast" was presented by local talent, assisted by a couple of talented Lindsay amateurs.

Mrs. McKenzie and daughter, of Montreal, have just returned after spending a few days with Mrs. McKenzie's sister, Mrs. A. Kay, Kent-st.

GOLDEN WEDDING AT THE FALLS
Fenelon Falls, April 16.—The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Giles held at their home on Louisa street, took place on Easter Sunday, and was attended by a number of their descendants and other relatives, who tendered their hearty congratulations on the happy event. Many handsome presents were received by the worthy couple, testifying to the high esteem in which they are held. Among the gifts presented by their children was a handsome gold headed ebony cane to Mr. Gillis, and a fine gold chain to Mrs. Gillis, also one hundred dollars in gold, sent by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gibson, of Victoria, B. C. The rooms were decorated tastefully with jonquils and white carnations. Mr. Andrew Gillis and Miss Jane Ellis, daughter of the late John Ellis, of Verulam, were married by the Methodist minister, Rev. W. Phillips, at Lindsay on April 7th, 1862. Since then they have lived on their farm in Verulam, until about four years ago, when they decided to give up farming, and moved to Fenelon Falls. During their long residence in this neighborhood, Mr. and Mrs. Gillis have won the esteem of all with whom they have been brought in contact, their many estimable qualities endearing them, besides to a large circle of friends and relatives, who join in wishing them many years to enjoy the society of each other, and of their family and friends. The daughters who attended the anniversary celebration, were Mrs M. Barklay, Mrs. Wm. Walsh, Mrs. Randolph McFarland, and Miss Ada Gillis.

There were also eleven grandchildren and two great grandchildren present, Mrs. Gibson, of Vancouver, Miss Annie Gillis, of St. Louis, Mrs. John Rutherford, and Mr. Wm. Gillis, of Verulam were unable to attend, the two latter on account of the impassable state of the roads. Mr. Gillis, an only brother, and Mrs. Gillis, of Lindsay, were present on the happy occasion.

JANETVILLE SUFFERS FROM THE FLOOD
(Special to The Post.)
Janetville, April 16 — The warm days of April 5th and 6th caused the snow to disappear very rapidly. The water flowed in torrents, swelling the larger streams and creeks to a higher water level than ever before known. The freshet did much damage to the bridges, and culverts were washed away, leaving the roads impassable. The traffic between the village and the station was entirely stopped from Saturday till Tuesday, and those who were holidaying were compelled to stay on either side of the creek until the water lowered. Mr. Bradburn of Hamilton and Mr. Hobbs of Toronto, were visiting their parents here, and as they wished to return to the city on Monday, they made a desperate effort to cross the marsh and creek. They drove to the marsh, then unhitched the horse. Mr. Bradburn mounted the animal which waded through three feet of water for half a mile until it got upon the bridge, which was in bad condition. Here the sagacious horse decided to remain, and Mr. Bradburn had to dismount in the water and wade back until rescued by Dr. Gilson who drove him as fast as possible back to the village. After much labor in making a raft, the horse was freed from the bridge. The young men were satisfied to stay in the village for another day. On Tuesday Mr. Hillard McGill was first to drive across the bridge, and brought Mrs. G. A. Beggs from the station, where she was compelled to stay from Monday.

Special Trains to Western Canada
Via Chicago and St. Paul, April 16th, 23rd and 30th, and every second Tuesday thereafter, until Sept. 17th inclusive. Tickets will also be on sale on certain dates via Sarnia and Northern Navigation Company. Special train will leave Toronto 10.30 p. m. on above dates for Edmonton and points in Manitoba and Saskatchewan, stopping at all points on Grand Trunk Pacific Railway west of Winnipeg. Through coaches and Pullman tourist sleepers will be carried fully equipped with bedding and porter in charge. Berths may be secured in sleepers at a low rate. This is an exceptional opportunity for those wishing to take advantage of the remarkably low one-way settlers rates or round trip homeseekers excursions through the American cities. No change of cars. Secure tickets and berth reservations from any Grand Trunk agent, or write A. E. Duff, district passenger agent, Union Station, Toronto.
