Ward Man gets Down-hearted from Being out of Work--- Had a Narrow Escape.

An east ward resident, whose name, for obvious reasons, is withheld, attempted suicide Tuesday night.

He took an ounce of laudanum. Fortunately for the man, Dr. White was called in time to administer an antidote and on Tuesday, he feels better. He comes originally from Coboconk, it is said, and in consequence of beet ing out of work all winter, had des termined to end things.

It was a very narrow escape for him, for had he been left to him! self a few minutes longer no medical aid would have saved him. He has a wife and family, and in view of the facts as they were given The Evening Post his actions seem to be all the more strange.

day. He sent his wife and family up there Monday. Then after he got them safely away he went to a local store and bought the poison. SENT A WIRE

Then he did what appears to be a very strange thing. He went to the G. N. W. office and sent a relegram to his wife in the name of his brother that he was very ill, asking her to come home at once. After doing this he went home, drank the poison, and going into the kitchen of his home, where his sister was, told had what he had done.

WALKED AND WALKED

She at once contrived to send for a doctor, and the man, who seemingly was not himself, was kept walking all night so that he would not go asleep. In that way he was kent
