

Correspondents' Newsy Letters

KINMOUNT
(Special to The Post.)
A pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. Y. Hopkins on Thursday evening, April 29th, when their only daughter, Bertha Louise, was married to Mr. E. Wood Roberts, of the Farmers' Bank of Canada, Bethany. Rev. A. Cunniff performed the ceremony in the drawing room, which was beautifully decorated. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore an Empire gown of white silk with tulle and embroidery trimming, and tulle veil with wreath of orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. The only attendants were Little Dorothy Hopkins and Master Clare Hopkins. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts left on Saturday morning for eastern points, the bride wearing a suit of tulle and silk with hat to match. Their many friends wish them a long and happy life.
Miss Maggie Graham, of Peterboro, spent a few days at her home here last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Scott, and daughter, Irene, of Peterboro, were guests of friends in the valley last week.
Mrs. J. Brandon and Miss T. Brandon, of Fenelon Falls, were in the village last week attending the Roberts-Hopkins nuptials.
Miss Bird Clark, of Fenelon Falls, spent Sunday with Mrs. E. A. White.
Mr. Wallace Craig returned from Georgetown on Saturday last.
Miss M. Hopkins, of Peterboro, who has been visiting friends here, left on Monday.
Mr. R. Doherty, who has been quite ill, is able to be out again.
Mr. Gillogly, of Lindsay, was in the village on Tuesday.
Miss Mable Otto left for Sudbury on Tuesday morning.
The recent fall of snow has made the roads bad again, and everybody is wishing for the bright, balmy days of spring.

POWLES' CORNER
(Special to The Post.)
This whole community was shocked over the sad news of the death of Susanna Martinan, beloved wife of Mr. Wm. Hill. The late Mrs. Hill was well known and highly respected in this section, and her death will be regretted by all who knew her. She died in her 40th year. She leaves to mourn her loss besides a loving husband, seven children. The funeral took place on Saturday, May 3rd from her late residence to the Eden cemetery. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved family in the great loss they have sustained.

The Conservative party should choose a candidate that will not sacrifice every good and right virtue for his party. We want a man that will do all he can for prohibition, and vote against the three-fifths clause. The late member for East Victoria was a man for his party. Every member of the Provincial Legislature should be a Christian, and the rising generation will have reason to bless God for the moral and religious atmosphere into which they will come because of the good that public men should be doing while they have an opportunity. Throw away politics and save the boys.
The beef ring will be in operation again this season. The first beef will be delivered this week, and every week for twenty weeks. To lay all jokes aside, ten or twenty pounds of tender beef left in the meat box at the roadside is very nice and those who are not identified with this association will be classed with vegetarians.
Mrs. W. H. Bowles, of Randolph, was here attending the funeral of her brother Oliver Gaspell.
Mrs. P. Martinan, of Sprague, was here attending the funeral of her daughter, Mrs. W. Hill.
If the warm weather does not come very soon something very serious will happen. Some farmers have been compelled already to turn out their cattle to pasture on nothing. There is one thing that is noticeable, and that is the frogs have not sung out as in days of yore. They are waiting, only waiting, for warmer weather. Those onion men will be a little later than last year in getting the seed sown. The latter end of the season may be favorable.
The death of Mr. Oliver Gaspell on Saturday, May 1st, at his home near Powles' Corners, removes one of the best known and highly respected citizens of Fenelon township. The late Mr. Gaspell assessed the township three or four times in succession, and was elected for the Fenelon council at the late municipal election. During the past two years he has not enjoyed the best of health. About a month ago he caught a severe cold which developed into pleurisy. The late Mr. Gaspell was married twice, and a family of five survive him. The funeral was held from his late residence on Tuesday, May 4th, to Eden cemetery, where interment took place. The bereaved mother and children have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

Your scribe finds it his unpleasant duty to report an occurrence which seldom happens in a section of country so limited as ours, viz., two deaths in one week. The deceased are Mrs. Wm. Hill and Mr. Oliver Gaspell. Both persons were highly esteemed as citizens and neighbors, and their "taking off" has cast quite a gloom over the neighborhood. We all unite in sympathy with the bereaved ones.
Mr. Geo. Stewart, of Toronto, was in the neighborhood on Sunday last.
Mrs. Eyres, of Toronto, is visiting her sister, Mrs. O. Gaspell.
Misses F. and M. Anderson and Mr. Hancock, of Cameron, attended league services here last week.
Miss Ethel Smith, of Cameron, is at present residing with Mr. and Mrs. H. Wagar.
Miss E. Pethic, of Zion, is visiting with her cousin, Miss Leta Cooper.
Mrs. Martinan, of North Bay, Mrs. Jno. Gaspell and Mr. A. Hill, of Tinsy are some of those from a distance who were in our midst owing to the late bereavements.
Mr. and Mrs. Minthorne and son, Miss Windrum, and Miss Sadie Barber, of Fenelon Falls, attended divine services here on Sunday last.
Mr. Webster, of Zion, was in this vicinity last Sabbath.
After the recent snow storm, the farmers in this locality are hoping for more congenial weather, as the season is getting well advanced and very little sowing has been done.

Drunken Indian's Wild Stampede

Made Things Lively on William-st North Tuesday Evening

Tuesday evening about 5.30 o'clock an Indian, who is camped at Whiskey creek, and who evidently became enamored with the name of his camping ground, ran amuck on William-st. north.
The red man had an elegant, hand-made, sour mash jug, and in his periods of alcoholic felicity gave vent to warwhoops that spread consternation in his path.
Several ladies executed a hundred yard dash down the side street in order to escape the Indian, who entered Howkin's grocery and scared a young lady to such an extent that she forgot what she was going to purchase. The aborigine continued his wild dash northwards, driving all before him and scaring women and children by his peculiar antics. He was no doubt making his way back to camp, and as a living embodiment of the effects of "fire water" on an Indian, he was what might be termed, an "incandescent success."

Mr. Bruce Dixon, a graduate of Lindsay Railway school, was promoted this week from King, on the G. T. R., to Gravenhurst. His place at King was filled by Mr. Webster, of Oakwood, who is also a graduate of the Lindsay Railway School. Promotion for young men, placed with railway companies by Mr. Paton, comes rapidly, as they have full knowledge of all departmental work on entering the service. The railway business is full of opportunities and the field wide. Already many young men from this vicinity, who but for this school would still be walking the streets, are at work and in line for promotion. The school is well equipped, and until we visited it, had no idea the town possessed such a creditable institution. In fact, a boy quitting our public or high school would do well to visit the Railway School before deciding on his life's vocation. All get positions when competent, and Mr. Paton accomplishes this in record time.

Will Install Electric Fixtures
The F. R. J. MacPherson Co., of Peterboro, have secured the contract for wiring and installing electrical fixtures in the new school which is being built at Bobeageon. Employees of the firm left Monday morning for that village and work will be commenced at once.

ABOUT SALONIKA

Salonica, or Salonika, pronounced Sal-o-neek-a (accent on last syllable) the place to which Abdul Hamid has retired, is a city of 150,000 inhabitants, in Macedonia, Northern Greece, which has a very interesting history. It was the original Thermo, but was rebuilt by Cassander, some time after the year 315 B. C. The name of Thessalonica was given to it in honor of the wife of Cassander, a daughter of Philip of Macedonia (and sister of Alexander the Great), who succeeded in subjugating Thessaly in 343. B. C. By aphorism it became "Salonica." Salonica may seem more familiar to our readers if they will bear in mind that we read that the Apostle Paul preached there in A. D. 53, and that in the following year he addressed to the Christian Church there his two "Epistles to the Thessalonians." Salonica has in former times seen much bloodshed. It is recorded that in 390 a heathen plot led to the Emperor Theodosius inviting 10,000 inhabitants of the city into the circus, turning the soldiery upon them, and putting them all to the sword. In 904 the Saracens captured the city and ruthlessly slaughtered many thousands of its inhabitants. In 1185 the Normans of Sicily also overran and desolated it. It came into the possession of Turkey in 1430, being wrested from the Venetians. As late as 1876 the German and French consuls were murdered by a mob, and Turkey was required to make reparation and to execute a number of the murderers. In 1890 a great fire left 10,000 of the people of the city homeless, and caused a loss of $4,000,000. Salonica is the seaport of Western Turkey, and lies in the mouth of the Great Vardar River. Its inhabitants are chiefly Spanish Jews, who are great traders, and its commerce is quite important, it, being on the direct route from Western and Central Europe to Greece and Egypt. It is hardly to be expected that Abdul's attitude toward the Salonicians in his days of power will make them more kindly disposed toward him in the days of his misfortune. But probably the powers that now rule in Turkey did not take that into account.

Has Purchased Another Good Horse

Dr. Cowan has added some very fine horse timber to his stables. Yesterday there arrived the celebrated standard bred registered trotting stallion, "Tommy N." by Belmont Chief, which had a record of 2.14 i. "Tommy N." was bred by Thos. Norris, of Mona Road, is five years old, 15 1/2 hands high, weighs 1200 lbs. and is splendidly proportioned in all departments. The animal is a good strong, open-gaited one, and is descended from a race of producers on both sides.

Trout Fishing Expedition

Tuesday morning a party of local gentlemen consisting of His Honor Judge McMillan, Messrs. Jos. Carroll, H. Middleton, W. Simpson, T. Sadler, and J. McConnell drove to Lotus, Manvers township, on a trout fishing expedition. The sextette succeeded in landing a good supply of the speckled beauties, and returned in the evening well satisfied with the catch.

He was Fined

Constable John Shortt on Monday arrested a man who resides near Victoria Road, at a local hotel, and who also had liquor in his possession internally and was somewhat disorderly. He registered at the town lock up over night and on Tuesday was fined in the police court as a result of his devotion to Bacchus, the god of wine.

The late Mrs. M. Coughlin, whose remains were interred in St. Mary's cemetery on Wednesday was, according to the statements of those intimately acquainted with her, 106 years of age at the time of her death.
