OMEMEE JOTTINGS

What is Happening at the Pretty Little Capital of Emily Township

(Special to The Post) Miss Eth Woodger, of the Lindsay Collegiate Institute was guest of her brother, Rev. W. Woodger, on Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Harry Lamb gave a delightful afternoon tea on Thursday. Mr. Sam Skuce, who is at present working in Toronto, paid a short visit to his family here this week. Nurseryman Kennedy last week received a stock of ornamental trees and has been busy supplying his customers with the same. Mr. Raynes, of Port Perry, has taken the place of Mr. Fred Bradburn as operator at the junction. Coleborne has moved his office from the Parson property to the rear of the house owned by Henderson. Colonel Sam Hughes has again kindly donated a silver cup for the annual five mile race to be held on May 21st. This race is open to all amateurs, provided they have lived in the Province during the past year. At the annual vestry meeting of Christ church, the following officers were elected: Rector's Warden—Mr. R. Johnston. People's Warden—Mr. T. C. Stephenson. Vestry Clerk—Mr. J. Beatty. Lay Delegate to Synod—Mr. W. G. Stephenson, with Mr. R. Bannan as alternate. Sidemen—Messrs W. Curry, W. Cottingham, H. Cottingham, W. Fee, A. Jones and A. Ford. Mr. T. W. McLean gave an interesting address on Friday evening to the "Builders" class, of the Presbyterian church, on the subject of summer sports. Mr. and Mrs. Fallis, of Bethany, were guests of Omemee friends on Sunday. Miss Sherin, who has been visiting in Toronto for the past month returned to Lakefield on Friday. She was accompanied by her niece, Miss Davis, of Lakefield. Miss Sherin's many friends here will be pleased to know that she has quite recovered from her recent severe illness. There is some talk of a choral society being formed in our midst. This will be a decided acquisition to the musical circles of our village and we understand the society will open the new town hall by a concert. Miss Hazel Adams, of Lindsay visited friends in town last week. Miss Shirley Beall, of Lindsay, was the guest of Mrs. Dr. Sutton, on Friday. Miss Bruce, who has been visiting Mrs. J. A. Wyle for the past two weeks, returned to Toronto on Saturday. Mr. Cecil Mills, of C.G.E., Peterboro, was home for a few days last week. Mr. Hart, of Toronto, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Elliott. Mr. Havelock Fee, of Lindsay, was home over Sunday. Mrs. J. English, and children, of Unionville, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. English. Mr. and Mrs. Irvine, and Mrs. Staples, of Lindsay, motored down on Saturday evening, and spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Earl. Mr. and Mrs. Melville Cornell, of Lindsay, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Cornell. Miss Bertha Nichols was home for the week end. The engagement is announced of Miss Maggie Fee, to Mr. Milton Sherin, the marriage to take place quietly in June. Mrs. Miller, of Peterboro, will contribute two vocal selections at the concert in the Methodist church on May 24th. Mr. John Veals is home from McMaster University, Toronto. Rev. Mr. Woodger occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church on Sunday evening, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Burns, administering the Sacrament of the Lord's supper at two of the appointments on the Bethel circuit, in the afternoon and evening. Mr. Woodger also took the service at Lebanon in the afternoon. Pairs of King and Sturgeon-sts. have been oiled, which has been of great benefit in laying the dust. An officer for the Salvation Army corps, of Lindsay, was in town on Monday, collecting for the self-denial fund. Mrs. McQuaig, and child, of Toronto, are visiting Mrs. Dr. Sutton.

KINMOUNT

(Special to The Post) Weather dry, rain needed, raging last week. Some people are seemingly very careless about starting fires at this time of year. The high winds of Thursday and Friday sent the fire some. On Friday the fire spread rapidly, and the result of the above carelessness was the burning of the house and barn of Mr. McGann on the Bobcaygeon Road, a mile and a half south of the village. The tenant Mr. Wm. Henderson losing all his household effects, together with most of his implements. The other fire farther south destroyed a lot of fine timber, wood, rails etc. belonging to Willie Scarlett. There was some insurance on the house and barn on the McGann property. Mr. John Austin has purchased the Doherty farm about a mile, south of the village, and has been busy putting in the spring crop. Mrs. Ed. King is offering her house and lot for sale as she intends moving to St. Joseph's Island, where Mr. King and Racy now are. Mr. Michael Mansfield has hied him off to the west on a visit. We expect to see him back soon as he intended only a very short visit. Rev. Mr. Ferry, and Warden Cobbe, of Galway made a trip to Bobcaygeon last week on business. Mr. Charlie Doherty is home from Vancouver, B.C., on a visit. He likes the western city well and intends after a short stay to go back. Mr. Robert Allan has sold his house and lot to Mr. J. Austin. He intends to go west in the near future. Mr. Bain moves into the Allan house this week. Another old resident has been called to the great beyond in the person of Mr. Richard Carr. He passed away on May 10th. He lived on the Monck Road, about five miles east of the village. He was buried in the Kinmount cemetery on the 12th. A number from here attended the funeral of the late Mr. Carr of Furnace Falls, last Friday. Miss Bertha Beach of Miner's Bay spent Saturday and Sunday at her home here. Fire totally destroyed the house and barn of Mr. William Henderson, a few miles south of here, one day last week. The ladies are all busy house cleaning these days. The remains of the late Mr. David Smith of Black Lake, near Gooderham, were interred here on Saturday May, 6th. Death visited the home of Mrs. J. Gillespie, some miles west of here, on Sunday and removed her youngest son John, a boy of about 13 years. About two months ago her husband died and shortly after his death, scarlet fever set in the family, but with the exception of little John's it was a mild case.

Trusses That Can Be Relied Upon

Those who need trusses can never exercise too much care in finding the truss that is best adapted to their case or in seeing to it that it is properly fitted. We make both forms of security certain by carrying the most improved trusses of all styles and by exact knowledge as to methods of fitting them. We believe we can demonstrate the superiority of our service to any truss wearer and it is worth while to secure this service; it means security and satisfaction and it costs nothing extra. A.
