WAKELY'S

MANILLA

The annual concert given by the Manilla Dramatic Club, in aid of the Public Library was held in the Odd-fellow's Hall, last Friday evening, April 26th.

It is an event eagerly looked forward to by not only those in the immediate vicinity but by people at a long distance. Long before the hour of starting the hall was filled to overflowing, people having to be turned away.

The dramatic club, through hard practice, sacrifice and application, have won a wide spread and well deserved reputation.

The drama, "How Roxy Made Good" was the heaviest presented yet, but those taking part, rose to the occasion and excelled themselves. There was not one weak part in the whole cast of characters.

Miss Lena McDonald, as Jerusha Jane Judkins, acted the part exceedingly well, keeping her two admirers in leading strings right to the end. Her costumes were relics of past glory and so well suited the character she represented. Miss Belle Shannon, as Miss Helen Bureleigh the wealthy heiress, looked very pretty and won much admiration from the audience, not only for her appearance but for her clever and natural acting. Miss Fern Edwards, as Fanny, Miss Bureleigh's maid, made her debut and showed that with her natural ability she will soon be promoted to a heavier part.

Miss Marie McInnis, as Roxy, the harum scarum, was a great favorite from the beginning. She is a born actress and took the part of a little girl to perfection. Mr. Andy Dixon took two parts, those of William Henry, a bare footed country boy and that of Granny Grimes, an old hag, living in the bowery. Andy is the old reliable and equal to any part, but excelled himself this time as Granny Grimes. It was a most difficult part and required heavy acting, but was very cleverly impersonated.

Mr. Alex McInnis, as Mr. Ralph Underwood, the country Minister had a long and heavy part which he handled with ability. He looked handsome in his ministerial garb and was instrumental by his tact in restoring Roxy to her friends and preventing a great wrong. Mr. Lester Higgins, as Gregory Heath, the villain, did some splendid acting. This is not an easy part, but Mr. Higgins scores a success every time he appears. Mr. Geo. Douglas, as Deacon Potter, was considered a great success, his make up was good and his persistency in trying to out-do his rival was very funny.

Mr. Hugh Grant, as Timothy Ho 11, is always the right man in the right place and you can prepare for some fun whenever he comes on the stage. Mr. Nelson Hunter, as Jud Fardoe, the ex-convict, did extra well, the part was hard but it was well taken. He also acted as Filkins, the officer and made the arrest of Ho 11 very cleverly.

Mr. Will Grant, as stuttering Tom Sparrow was too funny. This was his first appearance in drama but he certainly showed good ability.

The proceeds amounted to $81.00

PLEASANT POINT

Special to The Post

The grim Reaper, Death, has visited this corner again, claiming as victim, Mrs. Albert Hore, one Pleasant Point's most esteemed ladies.

Although Mrs. Hore was ill over a month, yet her demise came as a shock to the community and cast a shadow over it, which will not withdraw for a few days. The deceased died at Dunsford. The funeral was very largely attended, showing with what esteem she was held by all who knew her. She did not live in this vicinity a year, but in that time she made friends who can now mourn and sympathize with the bereft husband and relatives.

Mr. John Graham, of Bethany called on friends here recently.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Mitchell and two children, of Omeme and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kennedy of the Scotch Line were visitors at Riverview Sunday.

At last the ice has all disappeared from the lake and river and the boats are now stirring the monotonous stillness that has prevailed over the water so long.

The fall wheat and clover are looking fine and have every appearance of being an excellent crop.

Mrs. Thos. Duggan and little son left today for Camrose, Alberta, after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Meehan.

Lively Doings From Islay

Mr. Archie Graham and Fred Ferguson left on Monday of last week for Saskatchewan where they intend spending the summer months.

Miss Lizzie Elford returned home on Wednesday of last week after spending several weeks visiting at Cartwright.

Mrs. J. Cowieson is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Shiers, of Cambray.

Mr. William Robertson, of Lindsay, paid a flying visit to friends in this district last Thursday.

Mrs. Knight and family, of Balsam Grove were visiting at Mr. H. Boyd's on Sunday last.

Mr. Jack McDermott who intended going west on Monday of last week, was unable to do so, owing to an abscess on his foot. We understand he now intends remaining in Ontario.

Miss May Spence is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ned Thurston, of Balsam Lake.

POPULAR YOUNG LADY WAS REMEMBERED

A few evenings ago the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Curtin, St. Paul Street was the scene of an interesting event when their daughter, Miss Annie Curtin was the recipient of a presentation from her friends and associates.

Miss Curtin, who has been employed as book-keeper in Fox and Brady's store, left to-day for Calgary, where she will reside. She was a young lady who was most popular with her host of acquaintance, her kind and amiable disposition endearing her to all. An accomplished pianist, her music was a feature of many social gatherings where she will be missed in the future.

During the evening, Mr. Thomas Flurey read an address testifying to the high esteem in which Miss Curtin was held and voicing the regret of her friends at her departure. Miss Lena Cote then made the presentation of a handsome gold ring set with pearls.

Miss Curtin, although taken by surprise, replied feelingly, thanking those present for the beautiful token of esteem.

The balance of the evening was spent in music and dancing and a dainty lunch was also served.

OFFICIAL REPORTS ON TRENT WATERS

Review.—The spring freshets seem to be over. It is officially reported that the water at Fenelon Falls has started to lower and the same can be said at Bobcaygeon.

At Buckhorn there is no change, either way, but a downward change will soon be noticeable. The water is not rising at Young's Point and ice is coming out of Clear Lake. The water is still high in Victoria and Haliburton counties. All the conservation lakes are full, with the stoplogs all in. At Hastings, the water is high but not increasing.

Navigation between Lakefield and Lake Simcoe will open about the first of May.
