OAKWOOD

(Special to The Post.) The annual entertainment under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will be held in the town hall on Friday evening, May 23rd. The following talent has been secured for the evening: Miss Gladys J. Jackson, M. E., pupil of Owen A. Smiley, of Newcastle, Miss Nell Brown, A.T.C.M., of Lindsay, Miss Pearl Coad, Toronto, Miss Gladys Hughson, Oakwood, Miss R. Cullis, Linden Valley, Messrs. H. A. Welton, and A. Allen of Lindsay. A play will be given entitled "Packing of the Home Mission Barrel," by ten ladies of our village, and as the former plays given by our home talent have always been well rendered, we are looking for this one to excel any given previously. Reserve the date for this concert, May 23rd. The annual district meeting for the Cammington district will be held in the Methodist church on Wednesday, May 21st. Miss Annie Penrose is home from Toronto for a few days this week. Mr. C. A. Davies met with what might have been a serious accident on Saturday, as he was driving his motor truck. He met Mr. W. Glenny of Little Britain, whose horse took fright at the car. Mr. Davies alighted and was leading the horse past, when it suddenly bolted, striking him in the face with its head. He escaped with a badly cut lip and bruised face, but had he not held on to the bridle he might have received serious injuries. Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Rennie spent Saturday in Lindsay. Mr. C. E. Weeks of Lindsay, delivered two excellent discourses in the Methodist church on Sunday to large and appreciative congregations. He made reference to it being Mother's Day at both services. Rev. J. O. Watts of the Presbyterian church also preached on mother in the afternoon. Rev. W. Lambert has been visiting the northern appointments at Cobourg, Dalrymple, Norland and other places for the past week. Mrs. W. Hughson, jr., is improving the appearance of her dwelling by erecting a new verandah, Messrs. Tinney & Barker doing the work. Mr. Fred Dames and staff of men are busy putting down new cement sidewalks which will extend from the corner of Messrs. Coad & Washington's store west as far as Mrs. McPherson's. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Prouse and children, of Woodville were guests of Mrs. Prouse on Sunday. Mr. Chas. L. Rogers is having a sale of his farm stock, implements, etc., on Tuesday, May 20. There will be no reserve, as Mr. Rogers has sold his farm to Mr. A. Vanstin of Port Hope, and is leaving shortly for Edmonton. The meeting of the Woman's Institute was held on Tuesday, May 13th at the home of Mrs. Wm. Thornsike. The following ladies were elected for the ensuing year: President—Mrs. W. F. Webster. 1st Vice-pres.—Mrs. M. Webster. 2nd Vice-pres.—Mrs. G. B. Rennie. Secretary—Mrs. M. Gilson. Treasurer—Mrs. G. A. Washington. District Representative—Mrs. R. G. Webster. Branch Representatives—Mrs. W. Channon, Mrs. Thos. Grimston. A short but interesting program was then rendered. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Thorndike kindly treated the ladies to delicious candy. Mrs. Charlotte Short has returned home, after visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jesse Gorill. The many friends of Mr. James Sparks regret to learn that he is not recovering as speedily as is wished for. Miss Dorothy Sparks of Little Brittain, is the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Short. The Mariposa township council held their regular monthly session in the town hall on Monday. BURY'S GREEN. (Special to The Post.) The farmers of this community have about completed seeding. We are glad to hear that Miss Alice Green has entirely recovered from a severe attack of scarlet fever. Mr. Albert Billett has recently sold his fine stock horse, "Prince Newbridge," for a handsome sum. Our new Rural Mail Delivery from Fenelon is now in full operation and is giving excellent satisfaction. Mr. Jacob Walker is making great improvements this season draining his farm. Mr. Kinghorn, of Woodville, has taken the contract. Mr. John Howie, sr, recently returned from the West but is at present in poor health. We hope to hear of his speedy recovery. Mrs. John Flett, jr, visited Mount Horeb friends this week. We expect several barn raisings in the near future. Mr. W. J. Flett, a will doubtless be the first as contractor Moffatt is rushing it to completion. We understand the stone work is already finished. Brougham is Much Admired Messrs Lindsay and Trotter have purchased a brougham. The carriage will carry three person quite comfortably. The wheels are fitted with a rim of rubber, making it a very comfortable rig to in which to ride. A handsome chestnut horse has been purchased to draw the brougham. Messrs Trotter and Lindsay intend going into the hack business extensively.

Price of Sugar Is Reduced

Montreal, May 13.—The immediate results of the statement made in the House of Commons that the Government would reduce duties on the importation of raw sugar into Canada is the announcement made today by the refineries that the price to the trade would be lowered today 20 cents per hundred lbs. or $4 per ton. This will have the immediate effect of cheapening the article to the consumer.

"Bunt" Married Her Father

New York, May 13.—Molly Pearson, the English actress, who played the role of Bunt in "Bunt Pulls the Strings," sailed for Southampton via the West Indies on Saturday by the Royal Mail steam packet Magdalena. Before departing she omitted to tell her friends in New York that it was her wedding trip, as she had been married to Ethelbert D. Holes, who played the part of Bunt's father in a brief message to William A. Brady, which read: Good-bye, and many good wishes. VALENTIA.

(Special to The Post.) Mr. R. W. Walker and Mr. Herman Walker, of Utica, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Wm. Lane. Mr. Stansly Moffatt, of Toronto, is renewing old acquaintances here. Mrs. J. A. Swain attended the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Cathcart, at Ida on Friday. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Beadle spent Saturday in town. Our local telephone experts are busy putting up the new line and in a few days all the phones will be in. The recent frosts have damaged the plum and cherry blossoms to quite an extent. Mrs. Edie is visiting her mother, Mrs. Tait, at Valerita. The League on Sunday evening was well attended. An excellent paper on the topic "Love not the World" was given by Miss Dix. Rev. F. Johnson, of Seagrave, will occupy the pulpit on Sunday next. Mr. W. R. Swain paid a business trip to Lindsay on Tuesday. Mr. Stanley Moffatt, of Toronto, is the guest of Mrs. Sharpe, of the North Ward. Min is spending a few days with Mrs. James Swain. Mrs. Walker and her youngest son, of Columbus, are the guest of her daughter, Mrs. M. Lane and her numerous friends. Rev. Mr. Archer, of Little Britain, occupied the pulpit of our Methodist Church on Sunday last in the absence of our pastor, Rev. Mr. Robbins, who was taking Rev. Mr. Garrett's work at Cobourg. Our enterprising blacksmith, Mr. C. Beadle, has been enlarging his already commodious lawn, having purchased some land from Mr. C. Hicks. Mr. Philip Mark is very busy these days erecting our new telephone system and installing the phones. In a few days he will have over fifty phones in operation. We are pleased to learn that Miss Woodens who has been on the sick list for a few days is able to resume her duties in the store. Mr. Arthur Lane, of the Standard Bank, Little Britain, spent Sunday under the parental roof. Mr. James Casey is selling a quantity of stone to the council for the roads. Mrs. Jones and family who have left the mother land to join her husband, who has been employed on Mr. A. Swain's farm for some time, arrived safely last Thursday. The weather has been excellent for seeding, hence there will not be so much buck-wheat as usual sown. The ladies are busily engaged practicing the children for our S. S. anniversary which is to be held on Sunday and Monday, June first and second.

The Cause of Rheumatism

It is frequently supposed that rheumatism is brought on by cold and damp effects on the surface of the body, but this theory is wrong. Cold and damp only excites the disease that is settled in the blood. Rheumatism is a blood disease and Rheumo is guaranteed to remove the cause and enrich the blood so that uric acid cannot exist. Rheumo is a wonderful rheumatic cure. If you have rheumatism in any form don't delay going to A. Higinbotham's drug store and get a bottle of Rheumo today. $1.00 a large bottle. Be sure to go to A. Higinbotham other stores cannot supply you.
