TURNIP SEED NEWS

Farming to-day like any other business or profession must be conducted along scientific lines in order to get the most out of it, and no person will question the splendid work being done by the Agricultural College in disseminating scientific knowledge regarding every department of farming. They experiment with and test seeds as to their productivity and quality, the test covering a period of five years, which leaves no doubt as to the exactness of the test. We are keeping in close touch with the department and are handling the seeds showing the highest test and having authorized literature can give you the same information as is to be had at Guelph. Inspection of Collegiate Cadets

Annual Review Took Place Monday Evening—Retreated to Ice Cream Parlor

On Monday afternoon the Collegiate Cadets turned out and marched down to the union school grounds to be inspected by Col. Young. The corps presented a very neat and warlike appearance as they stood at attention and faced the large crowd that lined the sidewalk.

Shortly after half-past two Col. Young arrived and requested Captain [Name] to put his men through some of the exercises of their military training so that he might gauge their standing with the other corps of Canada. The high efficiency of the cadets was shown by the colonel writing "very good" after each manoeuvre, and in the way he complimented Instructor [Name] on having so fine a company of young men of almost uniform height.

After the inspection, the cadets retreated to the "gym" where Mr. [Name] and Mr. [Name] treated them to fruit. Three cheers and a tiger were heantly given to both gentlemen, as were also to Mr. Rosevear and Capt. Thompson.

In the evening the corps marched down Kent-st., forming in different columns, and displaying their speed and precision, after which a hasty retreat was made to Mr. A. B. Torry's magnificent ice cream parlors. There the hour was spent imbibing exquisite delicacies and despatching in rapid succession dishes of delicious ice cream and cake. When the cravings of hunger had been entirely allayed the toast list was considered and Mr. [Name], as toast-master, proposed the following toasts: The King; The Present Cadet Corps - Responded to by Capt. Thompson, first Lieut. McRae, second Lieut. McQuarrie; Last Year's Corps - Responded to by Chalmers Graham.

The Collegiate Staff - Responded to by Principal Harstone, Mr. Walks, Mr. [Name], Mr. [Name]. The Press - Responded to by L. [Name], R. Wilson, W. Carley. The Ladies - Responded to by J. [Name], D. Puffer. Instructor Rosevear - Proposed by Mr. Harstone, responded to by Mr. [Name]. Several civilians were called on, among whom were Messrs. McLaugh-

Y.M.C.A. Party to Pay Visit to Historic Spots in That Neighborhood

Ald. Smale and secretary Cook, of the local Y.M.C.A., are at present making arrangements for a trip to Champlain and Sturgeon Point in which a number of boys will participate. The party is to go down there for a day and visit all the historic spots and places of interest especially where Champlain travelled and camped on his way westward.

The trip is expected to be very interesting especially so in view of the near approach of the Quebec Tercentenary. The excursion will take place in about two weeks. While here the party will be lectured on Champlain and everything of interest in that connection pointed out to the boys.

Child Scalded Will Likely Die

Fell Into Tub of Hot Water Prepared for Scalding Pigs Buggy Wrecked on Way to town old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Waldon, of South Ops, was brought to the Ross Hospital Tuesday in a badly scalded condition. The story of the accident is as follows: The father of the child, Mr. Waldon, was making preparation to kill pigs and a large tub of hot water was used in the process of butchering was sitting in the yard. While the father was looking elsewhere the little fellow backed into the tub, and in consequence was scalded from his head down to his knees. He had fallen backwards into the hot water and was unable to get out. Hearing his cries the father rushed to his aid and taking him into the house the mother rendered what aid she could, taking off his clothes and wrapping a sheet around him. The parents then hurried to town with their child.
