Week's Doings At Bobcaygeon

(Special to The Post)

The fishing season opened with a rush of visitors. Most of the boarding houses are full and the hotels are being well patronized.

The following are registered at the Rockland House: Edward M. Mahony, Samuel King, Leo King, Chas. Rickett, L. Strickland and wife, Toronto; E. E. Gauss, H. M. Morris, Pittsburg, Pa.

The fishing has been exceptionally good since the opening of the season on the 16th inst., and many fine catches, especially of bass, have been made right in the centre of the town.

Mr. Primeau, who spent his holiday with us last summer, intends opening up a branch "Meat Mart" in Mr. Burgess' old stand opposite the post office. Mr. Primeau intends living over his branch store during the summer months.

The Hamilton party at present numbering four are spending a delightful holiday on the lake. Mr. Hamilton has a fine house boat, and has it fitted out to afford all the conveniences for such an outing.

Mr. Bengough, of Toronto, entertained a good audience in the town hall Friday evening. Several laughable sketches were made of gentlemen about town.

The Iroquois Hotel is receiving a fair share of the tourist trade under the new management of Mr. John Kenny, the guests will be paid the strictest attention.

Mr. G. G. Gordon is busy with his boat livery, he has a fine fleet of skiffs and canoes and provides a safe craft for the summer tourists.

The village proposes having a long list of athletic and aquatic sports with a jolly old calithumpian procession here on Dominion Day.

The following is a list of the land sports to be run off between the hours of 10 a.m. and noon: Smoking Race, 1st box of 25 cigars value $1, 2nd pipe, 25c; Egg Race, 1st souvenir spoon, 2nd jack knife; Sack Race, 1st fountain pen, value $1, 2nd dozen oranges; Carrying bag of grain, 1st razor, value $1.25, 2nd whip, 50c; Novelty Race, boys under 15, 1st baseball, value $1, 2nd 50c mitt; Boys' Race, 220 yds., 1st hat choice, value $2, 2nd belt $1; Farmers' Race, 100 yds., 1st net for horse, $2, 2nd halter, $1.25; Fatigue Race, 1st 2 ties, $1, 2nd two handkerchiefs; 100 yard dash, 1st alarm clock, $1, 2nd hat 75c; Tug of War—North Verulam vs. South Verulam, for a box of cigars and caddie of tobacco to be pulled off after the procession.

A grand pyrotechnical display in the evening at 8.30.

The whole day's events are free to everybody and promises to be a gala day for the hub of the universe.

Nothing to do but to laugh and grow fat. Mr. Ormsby Boyd has his new 30 foot launch nearly completed. He has installed a Gray Motor and expects to get in the neighborhood of 12 miles per hour.

Mr. Routley, of Toronto, has purchased a launch and is enjoying an outing on the lake, cruising and occasionally stopping to land a big one.

Liquor Cases At Bobcaygeon

Bobcaygeon, June 22—A couple of young men and a couple of minors were in court last week for being drunk on the street and the offenders were fined each $2 and costs. Another case has arisen out of the one tried, and the one who sold the liquor will have to appear in court on a charge of selling liquor without license under the Liquor License Act. This promises to be an interesting case, and will be tried this week.

JUNE WEDDING BELLS

MENZIES—BLEWETT

The nuptials were solemnized on Wednesday, June 22nd in the city of Toronto, by Rev. Dr. McTavish, former pastor of St. Andrew's church Lindsay, of Miss Laura Irene Blewett, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Blewett, Lindsay, and Mr. Percy Menzies, of Detroit, Michigan, second youngest son of Mr and Mrs. R. J. Menzies, of Lindsay. The many friends of the young couple will extend congratulations.

ROGERS—WATSON

A very quiet wedding took place on Wednesday, June the twenty-second, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Watson, town, when their eldest daughter, Margaret May was united in marriage to Mr. Edgar Garfield Rogers of Winnipeg, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Rogers, of Toronto.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. P. Wilson in the presence of only the immediate relatives owing to illness in the family of the bride. After a dainty dejeuner Mr and Mrs. Rogers left on the afternoon train for Owen Sound, en route for their future home in Winnipeg.

AYERS—ZEALAND

A very dainty but quiet wedding took place on Wednesday, June 15th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Ayers of the township of Fenelon, when their second daughter, Ethel Pearl was united in marriage to Alexander Zealand of the township of Ops.

The bride looked charming attired in blue satin cloth trimmed with all over lace and she was attended by her sister, Miss Effie M, while the groom was ably supported by Edmund G. Pogue, and the Rev. W. T. Wickett, of Shannonville, a cousin of the bride, very ably performed the ceremony in the presence of only a few of the immediate relatives. The gifts to the bride were useful and costly.

After all had partaken of the wedding viands and seasonable delicacies the happy couple left for their new home, amid showers of rice and best wishes for a long and prosperous journey through life.

BISETTE—O'NEILL

A very pretty but quiet wedding was solemnized Monday morning at 8 o'clock, in St. Mary's church, when Miss Annie O'Neill, daughter of Mr. Patrick O'Neill, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. John Bissette, son of Francis Bissette, both of Kent-st. E., Lindsay.

The ceremony was performed by Venerable Archdeacon Casey in the presence of a few friends and relatives. The bride was assisted by Miss P. Bissette, and the groom by Mr. W. Cooke.

Mr. and Mrs. Bissette will reside in Lindsay. Both are very popular with a large circle of friends who will unite in wishing them many years of happy wedded life.

WEBSTER—RAY

This afternoon at 2 o'clock a very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Ray, Elgin-st., when their only daughter, Selina Maude, became the bride of Mr. Wilmott E. Webster of Oakwood. Rev. J. P. Wilson, pastor of Cambridge-st. Methodist church, performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of guests. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion. Miss Laura Doble of Sunderland, cousin of the bride, rendered the wedding march. The bride was becomingly gowned in a costume of cream crepe over silk, with trimmings of pearls and silk embroidered insertion, and wearing the bridal veil caught with orange

Lillis McMartin of Kenora was married to Mr. Archibald Donald Currie, of Messrs. Pearce and company's staff, Winnipeg, formerly of O'Loughlin & McIntyre's, Lindsay. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. E. Spence, pastor of Zion Methodist church, in the presence of a large number of friends. Both the bride and bridegroom were unattended. The bride was given away by Mr Allan Young, and as the wedding party entered the church, the wedding march was played by Mrs. McMeekin the music continuing through the service and until the married couple had left the church. The interior of the church was beautifully decorated with ferns and wild flowers the work having been done by the numerous friends of the bride. The bride was dressed in a suit of natural rajah silk over a white lace blouse with large leghorn hat faced with pink and trimmed with pink roses and black velvet. After the ceremony the newly married couple left on this morning's train for Winnipeg, where they will reside.

McLEAN—HEARD

Fenelon Falls, June 22—The marriage of Miss Mary Esther (Mae) Heard daughter of Mr. Jos Heard, of Fenelon Falls, and Mr. Duncan McLean of the Montreal Bank staff, Montreal, was quietly celebrated on Monday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents on Colborne street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. A. French, rector of St. James' church.

After luncheon Mr. and Mrs. McLean left on the afternoon train on a short trip and on their return will spend the remainder of their honeymoon on the Kawartha Lakes, before leaving for their home in Montreal.

SOANES—BROWNING

The wedding took place this afternoon of Mr. Harry Soanes of Peterboro, but formerly of Lindsay, to Miss Lottie Browning of Havelock. The ceremony was performed in Havelock.

CURRIE—McMARTIN

A Kenora exchange says: A pretty wedding was solemnized this morning at a quarter to eight o'clock in Zion Methodist church when Miss

The guests from a distance were:

Deadly Stuff

You buy Paris Green, Arsenate of Lead or other poisons for killing purposes and for the protection of your crops, you want materials that can be depended upon to do the business.

Failure to get proper results means loss of time and money.

We buy these insect poisons from the best manufacturers, our stock is all fresh this year and will be found effective to the highest degree.

A. HIGINBOTHAM Druggist, Lindsay

Mr. F. Veals, Markham, Miss Edith Herbert, Midland, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Brown, Lindsay, Mr. and Mrs. Comstock, Kendall, Mr. Harold, and Miss Eunice Porteous, Nestleton. The bride was the recipient of many very beautiful and costly presents. Mr. and Mrs. Porteous will reside near Bethany.

Rain Badly Needed

Rain is very much needed and if a shower does not arrive soon, there will be a great shortage in the strawberry crop this year. Those having vines are drawing water and using every effort to help the crop. Mr. E. Blewett, of the east ward has two acres of the finest strawberries, and has built a watering cart with which to water them and has promise of a good crop.

Read Pascoe Bros' Ad

In another column will be found an advertisement from Pascoe Brothers, of Oakwood, announcing a large sale consisting of their entire stock of dry goods, groceries and general merchandise. Pascoe Brothers are compelled to have this sale owing to having to give up their present premises on the 15th of April. They mean business and are giving bargains.
