Different and Better Clothes

Whether or not you have decided what sort of a Spring Suit you want, come in for a look.

We're always glad to show you the good things we have here and we won't say a word about buying.

You can try on to your heart's content.

Our clothes, themselves, are our best arguments, and our experience is that most men who look and go, come back to buy. Of course there's a reason for it, but you'll see that when you're looking at the clothes.

From $7, $8, $10, $12, $15, $18 to $20

Consider the quality and then match them elsewhere at these prices if you can.

OUR RAINCOAT

Nothing takes the place of the Raincoat for its particular service.

The Raincoat is as much a part of a man's wardrobe as his overcoat.

We have Raincoats of every approved fabric—rubberized or waterproof. They are cut quite long and most of them have the high button military collar so appropriate for this style of garment.

See our assortment at $8, $10, $12, to $15

We guarantee our Raincoats to do full duty, and so you see that, as usual, you take no risk when you buy a Raincoat here.

The summer meeting of the branch of the Woman's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Small, on Wednesday, June, 7. Over forty ladies being present as the weather was cool, all gathered in the parlors and on the verandah.
The President after the opening exercises introduced the speaker, Mrs. Farley, who gave a very instructive talk on canning fruit and vegetables also some hints and helps over hard places. The meeting was enlivened at intervals by the kindness of Miss Buchanan of Toronto, who sang a song, "A Song of the flowers". Mrs. Delbert Rogers also sang and Mrs. Bedington who gave an instrumental. Several new members joined. We note a growing interest in these meetings. The women of the country are beginning to appreciate the kindness of the department in sending out delegates so well fitted to give us these hints and helps over the hard places, so often found in the home. A vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Farley after which refreshments were served.
Mr. Ford and his of Cavendish were in town on Friday last week.
Mr. Alfred Stephens, of Gelet, was in town a few days last week on business.

LIBERAL CONVENTION

On Wednesday, June 28th, a convention of the Liberals of West Victoria will be held in the Assembly of Musc. for the purpose of nominating a candidate to contest the riding at the approaching provincial elections.
There should be a large attendance at this convention, as the prospects for redeeming the fortunes of the very brightest.
Hon. A. G. McKay, the eloquent leader of the Provincial Opposition, will address the meeting in the afternoon. Indications point to the fact that the convention will be the most enthusiastic one.
There is one medicine that every family should be provided with, especially during the summer months, viz., Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed. It costs but a quarter. Can you afford to be without it? For sale by all dealers.
