We Have The Pure Paris Green

When you buy Paris Green for potato bug extermination get the kind that kills. It is only a waste of time to use inferior grades, for the only effect may be that they seem to have it to give the bugs greater appetites and their work of destruction goes on with renewed vigor. Every lot of our Paris Green is tested. It is pure and has the greatest possible killing power. Use it and save your potato crop. 25c lb.
