IMPORTANT CHANGE AT POST OFFICE

Deputy Postmaster A. Palen, has receiped notice from the Post Office Department at Ottawa to the effect that the lobby of the local post office will be open at seven o'clock each morning, and remain open un til 9.30 o'clock in the evening.

This change, which has been brought about, througg a suggestion of a gentleman in'lithe columns of the Post, will be hailed with pleasure by our citizens.

LINDSAY AND THE POWER QUESTION

Mr. Geo. Martin, of Fenelon Falls one of the oldest and most expersenced lumber men in this district. in conversation with a representative of the Post Thursday, said he had no interest in whether Lindsay bought Feneion Falls power or not, but he was confident that if the citizens of Lindsay expected to get more than 1000 horsepower, less Fenelon Falls share, they would be sadly mistaken. In his experience of over fifty years, as a - councillor lumberman, and as an employe of the Smith estate, he was thorough ly conversant with the Fenelon Falls development. He said he had been one of a deputation one season to wait on the Government to obtain their consent to allow the Howry Lumber Company to use the water after it had gone down as to interfere with navigation. There had been many seasons during his experience when the amount of power developed during the dry season. had been very small. He thought Lindsay would be wise to first have a careful measurement of the water during the entire season. to out positively what power were likely to obtain and not get themselves into trouble by contracting to deliver more power than the plant was able to produce. He thought that the estimate given by the Hydro Electric Commission had not been given proper consideration

DROWNING ACCIDENT AT PETERBORO

The following from the Peterhoro Examiner refers to a gentleman who has relatives in Emily and Lindsay A sad drowing accident occurred Saturday morning in the Otonabee River, when Albert John Costello, of Peterboro, and son of Mr. Paul Costello, of Ennismore, lost his life by falling off a scow into river. The unfortunate young man was employed as scow-man, in connection with the dredging plant of

The Captain of trip. the tug, Harry Deglas, as was his custom, kept looking to see that the scow was towing all right, and in one of these backward glances, was shocked to find that Costello was not on the scow. Almost at the same instant he saw his head appear above the water in the wake of the scow, and that was the last seen of the unfortunate man. The tug was stopped, but Costello had possible chance of rendering any assistance.

How the accident happened no one knows. Whether he was seized with a sudden attack of dizziness or heart failure, or whether he stumbled over something will never be known.

Mr. J. H. McClellan, the Superintendent of the Canal was notified at once, and the dredging operations were immediately suspended, while the entire staff of the dredginb plant proceeded to grapple for The body, which at the time of going to press had not been recover-
