 couple of days visiting friends in land for a couple of days' visit.

 The June meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. J. F. Dix, on Tuesday, June 4th. This being the annual picnic, the meeting was to have been on the spacious lawn under the shade of the spruce and maples, but on account of the previous rains it was thought better to have it indoors.
 The day being bright, the ladies turned out in large numbers, and the house was packed to the doors.
 There was a splendid program. Two delegates were present from the department and gave extra fine addresses. Miss McKenzie's talk was on disinfecting in the home and ban-daging. She demonstrated on ankle bandaging and both of these were practical, as so many get sprained ankles or wrists in their work, and it is well to know how to relieve the sufferer, and also to learn the best and easiest way of disinfecting. The next speaker, Miss Robson, of Ilderton, gave a talk on economics of the country girl and also a very pointed talk on the value and care of the human body and its care and protection. She impressed all with the fact that the highest standard of womanhood and manhood was only attained by being socially connected in their happy homes, making them the throne of the realm. Mrs. Mc-Phail, of Manilla was present, and conducted the question drawer in her usual able manner. Many questions were asked and well dealt with. Mrs.
 McPhail also gave a beautiful solo, accompanied by Mrs. A. L. Tremmer.
 Miss Yerex, of Oregon, gave a very fine solo entitled, "Mary of Argye." She played her own accompaniment.
 Miss B. Jenkins and Mrs. A. L. Tre-mmer also gave a piano duet.
 The music was very much appreciated, and it always adds materially to a programme to have good music, as was given all through the afternoon session. There were visitors from Manilla Mrs. Elliker and Mrs. McPhail, from Oakwood, Mrs. Jordan, Miss Jordan and Mrs. T. Webster, from Oregon, Miss L. Yerex and her sister, also a number of visitors from the surrounding country. The newly elected president, Mrs. Short, was in the chair, and conducted the meeting in an able manner. Mrs. Avery, the new secretary was also present, and at her post. The programme and lunch committees deserve credit for their work. The dainty and ample spread of the lunch given at the close was only in keeping with the Little Britain ladies. Glad so many girls attend these meetings.
 The funeral of Mr. Tait, one of our villagers, was held on Monday afternoon.
 Mr. J. McWatters died on Monday at the good old age of 99. He was buried in the Methodist cemetery on Wednesday. Rev. J. Archer conducting the service.
 Our pastor, Rev. J. F. Chapman, is attending the conference this week.
 He was on the Manilla circuit last Sunday and Rev. Dafoe, their minister, took the services here. On account of the rain and an anniversary at Valencia, our congregations were not as large as usual.
 The prospects of fine weather look more promising just now, and the farmers will be a little more hopeful of a harvest.
