ISLAY

(Special to The Post.)

Mr and Mrs. D. Tolmie spent the 24th visiting at the home of Mr and Mrs. Joe Moynes, of Pleasant Valley

Mrs Margaret Graham is spending a few weeks visiting friends in Toronto and Midland.

Mr. Warwick, of Balsam Grove, was in the district on Sunday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Cowieson spent Sunday with friends at Valentia.

Seeding is not nearly complete this district. Some have very little grain sown, others have none. The recent rains have been the worst ever known here. Several culverts have been washed out. At our corner the road was flooded worse than it was in the early spring. In some places whole fields have been under water. We sincerely hope for dry weather till seeding is completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Currins returned home on Monday after spending some weeks at the home of her sister Mrs. R. Robertson of Lindsay.

The annual summer meeting of the Islay branch of W. I. will be held on Thursday evening of next week, 13th inst., at the home of Mrs. Harry Boyd. The Institute delegate is Miss Robson, of Ilderton, who is known to be a talented speaker, will be present. It is also expected that one or two of the neighboring clergymen will be present to give addresses. Altogether a good programme is expected. A cordial invitation is extended to all, ladies and gentlemen, to attend this meeting.

Mrs. Knight and family, of Balsam Lake, were visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Boyd on Friday of last week.

The following from this vicinity attended the Institute convention in Lindsay on Monday: Mrs. Wm. Wilson, Mrs. Marshal Moynars, Miss Addie Elford and Miss Mabel Currins.

PLEASANT VALLEY
(Special to The Post.)

We are glad to hear that Mr John Hay is improving somewhat from the paralytic stroke which he received a couple of weeks ago. We hope that he may continue to improve.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Brien, and family of here spent Sunday under her parental roof in South Emily.

The recent rains have worked considerable havoc with the roads in this vicinity. In many places the culverts have been washed out, and in other places the roadbed.

Mr. Wm. Hay is busy these days making ready for the reopening of his store at the Point. He is expecting to do a good business this year, as there is a bright outlook for a large number of cottagers.

SCOTCH LINE
(Special to The Post.)

A number from here spent the holiday in town Monday.

We are sorry to report the illness of Mr. Thomas Robertson, of this place, who is suffering from trouble caused by a tooth. Hope he will

ELDON STATION

Mr. Archie and Misses Rachael and Mary McEachern visited their cousin Mrs. W. Emrie, Fenelon Falls, last Sunday.

A number of the young people from here attended the entertainment in Kirkfield Monday evening and report an excellent time.

Mrs. McLean entertained Miss Catherine Campbell for tea Monday evening.

PLEASANT VALLEY
(Special to The Post.)

Among those who attended the annual convention of the Women's and Farmers' Institute held in Lindsay, on Monday last were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smitheram, Mr. and Mrs. D. Tolmie.

Owing to the very heavy rains very few farmers have finished seeding operations in this vicinity.

In spite of the threatening weather and bad roads, there was a good attendance at the meeting of the P. V. G. club last week. The leading feature of the evening was a debate, the subject of which was: "Resolved, that the life of an old maid is less miserable than that of an old bachelor." The negative side won by a small margin.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Moynes were in Lindsay on Monday.

Miss Ethel Brokenshire, of Cameron Point, is visiting friends in this neighborhood this week.

LORNEVILLE JUNCTION
Visitors in our burg during the holiday:

Mrs. A. Eawkins, of Lindsay at Mrs. Walker's; Mr. and Mrs. Neil Cameron, Beaverton, at Mr. J. C. Smith's; Miss Taara and Miss F.

SANDERHAM ELDON

The farmers around here are looking kind of blue these times on account of so much rain. "But Cheer up," seed time and harvest will come.

A bad electrical storm came this way last Thursday night but did not do as much damage here as in some other parts, but unfortunately killed three head of cattle on Mr. W. MacInnes' farm, one belonging to Mr. MacInnes himself and the other of Mr. E. Robinson's.

Miss Margaret Campbell, of L.B.C. spent the week-end at her home here.

Miss Helen Fisher and Miss Prouse were the guest of Miss M. Fisher during the holiday.

Miss M. Thompson, of Cannington is the guest of Miss Campbell this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J.T. Gillander spent Sunday at Cameron.

Mrs. Hugh McDonald spent a few days last week here with her son, Mr. N. McDonald.

OBITUARY
WILLIAM LAMB

Fenelon Falls, June 5.--News of the sudden death at the Ross Hospital, Lindsay, on Tuesday morning of Mr. Wm. Lamb, came as a shock to the residents of this village and the Township of Verulam, where the deceased was well known and highly respected.

Mr. Lamb was removed to the hospital on Monday, June 3rd., his illness having been of short duration.

ANNA GUNN

The death took place on Tuesday evening, of an old and highly respected resident of Lindsay in the person of Mrs. P. Gunn, 75 Lindsay street south, in her seventy-fourth year.

The deceased lady was born in Port Hope and after residing for some time in Ops Township, removed to Lindsay, about 45 years ago. Her husband predeceased her many years ago.

The late Mrs. Gunn was a member of St. Mary's Church, her recent illness, which resulted in her death was of several months' duration. She leaves behind her a mourning her loss, one daughter, and three sons, John, of Ops Township; Hugh, of Argentine Bay, and Robert, Pinchin Creek, Ontario, so two sisters; Mrs. John Patrick, of Toronto and Mrs. D. Patrick, of Ops Township.

The funeral will take place from family residence, 75 Lindsay street, on Thursday morning at 8.45 o'clock to St. Mary's Church and thence to the Roman Catholic cemetery.

ZION
(Special to The Post.)

Miss Dorothy Brown spent a few days last week in town.

Mrs. W. B. Moore and daughter Miss Muriel who have been visiting their father, Mr. Lott Worthington, turned home to Fenelon Falls Friday evening last.

A very unusual thing is to be heard at Zion. Mr. Robert Phillips has a rye headed out, and some of the stems have no seeding done yet.

Most of our young people were at Cameron Sunday evening at their anniversary service.

A large number of Zionites attended the circus, also the playing of the W. I. and F. L. ball in Lindsay.

VICTORIA ROAD
(Special to The Post.)

Rev. Mr. He was in Toronto Saturday.

Mr. Sargeant, druggist, died Thursday. His body was taken to Toronto on Saturday for interment. He is survived by a widow and infant child.

Despite the unfavorable weather last Wednesday, the sale of the Mr. Edward Lytle was well attended. There will be no service in the odious Church next Sunday, as Mr. He is attending conference at Cobourg.

A large number from here attended the circus at Lindsay on Saturday and Monday.
