POWLES CORNER (Special to The Post.)

Some of the citizens attended the Sabbath School anniversary at Cameron last Monday.

The baseball team here played game with a team made up the Cambray and Eden boys. The game was played at Cameron last Monday afternoon. The number runs that each team made is not known to us except that the boys were only beaten by one.

The farmers don't exactly know how to take in the situation owing to so much wet weather. Mr. N. C. Hart, of Mt. Horeb, spent' a few days with Mr. J. B. Powles. Quite a number from here attended the church services at Cameron last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Truman Palestine, spent Thursday at Mr. J

B. Powles. A' fox den was found on Mr.

Day's farm in a pile of stumps. The number of inhabitants was two old ones and two young ones. One the old ones was shot and one of the young ones killed and one caught alive. The senior foxes had a surplus of fresh fowl caught which was composed of one dead cat, one ground hog, one pair of ducks and a roos-

CHICAGO, June 4 .- Sprinkles of rain today at scattered points in Nebraska and Miss Stewart, Cannington, and Kansas disturbed to some extent the confidence of wheat bulls, who have been acting on reports of severe crop damage, the result of heat and drought. In consequence, the market, altho closing with a net gain of 4c to 3c to 4c, had a rather weak tone. Corn wound up at an advance of 1/2c to 11/4c, and oats dearer by 1/3c to 11/sc. The outcome in provisions was 71/20 to 12%c decline.

The Liverpool market closed to-day on wheat unchanged from to 1/4d higher than Monday, and on corn %d to %d lower. Antwerp closed unchanged on wheat, Ber-lin %c lower. Winnipeg Options.

FENELON FALLS

(Special to the Post) Mr. W. H. Kearns spent Monday in Lindsay.

The annual meeting of the Upper Canada Bible Society was held in Dickson's Hall on Monday evening, June 3rd. Mr. W. M. Kiteley, a student of Victoria Callege, Toronto, gave a lecture beautifully illustrated with stereoptican views. The subject was "Around the world with the Colporteurs and Bible Women of the Bible Society."

Mr. Thos. Guy of the staff of the Bank of B.N.A. at Fenelon Falls for the past few years, is leaving this week for Midland. Mr. Guy has made a host of friends during 'his stay in the village, and will be very much missed in the choir of St. Andrew's church, as well as by his many Oats-Higher: No. 2 white, 574c; No. 3 friends in town. His successor is Mr Hathaway of Midland, who arrived on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott and children, of Toronto, are occupying Mr Jennor's cottage at Cameron Lake this month.

noon at the Academy were well attended, the Women's Institute being represented by a large number. The Farmers' Institute meeting in the council chamber at 10.30 a. m. was very poorly attended, the farmers being too busy seeding at this season to attend, particularly as the rainy weather has retarded their work in this branch. For this reason also their attendance at the afterhoon session was unusually slim. Mr. W. H. Cullis presided at this meeting, at which a good program was rendered.

The steamer Wacouta was forced to cancel her trip to Lindsay and return on Monday, the King's birthday, as advertised, owing to logs in the river. This was a disappointment to many who intended to enjoy the trip and attend the W. I. convention in Lindsay on that date.

COMPLAINT FROM COBOCONK To The Editor of the Post:-

Dear Sir.-Will you please allow me a small space in your paper to make known some of the regretable things that are taking place in our village.

While we live in, I hope a civilized place, we have a few disorderly persons regardless of law or shame. Time after time and Sunday after Sunday, we see some of our citizens in drunken state, staggering around the streets. It's a disgrace and a shame and it is about time some action was taken to remedy this evil menace to our otherwise quiet village.

Hoping that a little timely warning from one who wishes to see all men living right, and thanking you, Mr. Editor, very much for this space, Yours Truly, A CITIZEN. Coboconk, June 3rd.

The proprietor of the hotel in Coboconk is a gentleman, who is known far and wide for his strict observance of the Liquor License Act, and especially the section dealing with Sunday selling. If the conditions are as our correspondent says, it is the duty of the License Inspector of that district to take action. Too often characters of this sort procure liquor at outside points and bring discredit on their town, or village, and themselves, by becoming intoxicated on Sunday. If the characters referred to stagger about the streets as the writer states, it is the duty of the Coboconk authorities to see that they re arrested .- Ed. Post.
