FITZSIMMONS—MEEHAN

At St. Basil's church, Toronto, this morning, the wedding took place of Rose Maud, daughter of Mr. P. Fitzsimmons, formerly of Ops, and Mr. John Meehan, of Lindsay.

MILLSON—DEVITT

St. John's Church, Blackstock was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday, the twenty-second day of June, when the marriage of Annie Bertha, daughter of Mr. J. H. Devitt, M.P.P., and Mrs. Devitt, to Edward O., son of Mr. and Mrs. Eber Millson, was celebrated. The quaint old church was resplendent with a profusion of flowers and festoons, and the bride was escorted by her father, who gave her away. The groom was attended by Mr. Gordon D. Conant of Oshawa, and the ceremony was conducted by Rev. J. H. Kidd. The bride, carrying a bridal bouquet of cream roses and maiden-hair fern, and wearing a beautiful gown of allover lace over cream duchess satin, trimmed with pearls, looked very charming. The maid of honor, Miss Myrtle Devitt, was pretty in white nixon over yellow silk, with trimmings of lace, and carrying a splendid bouquet of yellow roses and maiden-hair fern, while the bridesmaids, Miss May Glede, of Port Perry, and Miss Edna Maxwell, of Seattle, wore pale blue silk, with trimmings of lace, and carried bouquets of pink roses. As the bridal party was leaving the church, Miss Madeline Philip, of Toronto sang "Because." After the ceremony at the church, a reception was held at the home of the bride's father, "The Maples," after which supper was served on the lawn. The groom's gift to the bride was a necklace of pearls and emeralds, to the maid of honor and to the bridesmaids each a sunburst of pearls, and to the best man a diamond scarf pin. The bride's going-away costume was of cream serge, with touches of black, with hat to match. The couple left on the evening train for a week on Lake Rosseau, and a trip through the west later. Among those present from a distance were: Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Devitt, Bowmanville; Mr. and Mrs. Eber Millson, Oshawa; Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Bain, Taunton; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Millson, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Courtice, Oshawa; Mr. Fred Ferguson, Lakelet; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Sharpe, Toronto; Miss Maude Watson, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Sison, Bethany; Miss Hazel Carscadden, Elmbank; Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Irvine, and Mr. John and Miss Jennie Devitt, Lindsay.
