The following from the Times, of Sinaluta, Sask., is of local interest. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Fennelly, of Lindsay.

A quiet June wedding was celebrated in St. Anne's Church, Wolseley, on the morning of June 4th, when Miss Marie Kennedy, of Elk Lake, Ont., became the wife of Mr. M. J. Fennelly, of Sinaluta. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Malliard. The bride was attired in a cream serge daintily trimmed with silk and seed pearls, and wore a large picture hat with willow plume. She also carried a beautiful white prayer book and Amethyst prayer beads the gift of her uncle, the Rev. Father Walsh, of Toronto, Ont. Miss Ellie Curran, of Indian Head, acted as bridesmaid, whilst Mr. Dennis O'Shea assisted the groom. After the happy event, the party, including the Rev. Father Malliard, breakfasted at the Empire Hotel. Immediately after Mr. and Mrs. Fennelly left for Regina and other points west, the bride travelling in a neat navy blue panama suit. The happy couple returned to Sinaluta on Friday afternoon, where they will reside in the house formerly occupied by Mr. Walker. WAS A CONFIRMED DYSPEPTIC

Now Finds it a Pleasure to Enjoy Meals

Here is a case which seemed as bad and as hopeless as yours can possibly be. This is the experience of Mr. H. J. Brown, 384 Bathurst St., Toronto, in his own words:

"Gentlemen—I have much pleasure in mentioning to you the benefits received from your Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets and can cheerfully recommend them. I simply had confirmed dyspepsia with all its wretched symptoms, and tried about all the advertised cures with no success. You have in Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets the best curative agent I could find. It is now such a pleasure to enjoy meals with their consequent nourishment that I want to mention this for the benefit of others."

The fact that a lot of prescriptions or so-called "cures" have failed to help you is no sign that you have got to go on suffering. Try Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets and see how quickly this sterling remedy will give you relief and start your stomach working properly. If it doesn't help you, you get your money back. 50c a box at your druggist's. Compounded by the National Drug and Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited, Montreal. 141

Ottawa, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Marks, of Lindsay. The rooms were beautifully decorated with bridal wreath, marguerites, roses and smilax. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Marrun, of Clarence, uncle of the bride, and the wedding marches were played by Miss Winnie Granger, of Hamilton. During the signing of the register, Miss Ethel Reed, of Woodville, and Miss Granger sang a duet. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a beautiful gown of duchess satin, trimmed with shadow lace, seed pearls and pearl ornaments, the long court train being caught with clusters of orange blossoms. She carried a shower of roses and lily of the valley and wore the groom's gift, a crescent of pearls. Miss Anna Jordan, the bride's only sister, was maid of honor and Miss Vivian Marrun, of Albert College, Belleville, was bridesmaid. They were gowned in pale silk satin, veiled in pink tulle, with pearl bandeaux in their hair. Each carried a large bouquet of pink roses and wore the groom's gift, a gold bar pin. Mr. Gordon Marks, of Hamilton, a cousin of the groom, was best man, and received a gold-mounted cane from the groom. A reception was held afterwards, the bride's mother wearing brown satin with lace, and a bouquet of cream roses. Later in the afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Marks left for Muskoka, where they will spend the summer, the bride travelling in a suit of very dark blue serge, with Panama hat. On their return they will take the Thousand Islands trip to Ottawa where they will reside.

PRITCHARD — HOGG

A very pretty but quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Pritchard when Miss Rubena Hogg was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Alfred Pritchard. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. M. Whyte, Minden, Ont., in front of a bank of ferns and snowballs. The bride was given away by her father, and looked very pretty in a beautiful dress of muslin delaine and tulle veil caught with a wreath of orange blossoms. The bridesmaid Miss Nellie Pritchard, sister of the groom, was beautifully attired in a dress of blue and white voile. Mr. Richmond Hogg supported the groom. After the happy couple had received the congratulations of the guests a dainty tea was served in the dining room. The numerous, useful and valuable presents received were indicative of the high esteem in which the bride and groom were held. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold locket set in pearls, to the bridesmaid a gold locket and to the groomsmen an amethyst stick pin.—Minden Echo.

CANADA HAS ITS DIVORCED

Ottawa, June 27—Interesting figures were given out today in connection with the recent census. There were 839 divorced men and 691 divorced women in nineteen eleven, as against only 337 men and 324 women in nineteen one. In nineteen eleven there were 89,000 widowers and 179,000 widows. There were 236,900 bachelors and 194,100 spinsters in ten years ending nineteen eleven. Ontario's rural population decreased fifty thousand and its urban population gained 392,600, which shows the drift from country to city life.

WEAK, TIRED PEOPLE

Are Usually the Victims of Pale, Watery Blood.

Anaemia is the medical term for poor or watery blood. It may arise from a variety of causes, such as lack of exercise, hard study, improperly ventilated rooms or workshops, imperfect assimilation of food, etc. The chief symptoms are extreme pallor of the face, lips and gums, rapid breathing and palpitation of the heart after slight exertion; headaches, dizziness, sometimes fainting spells and a tendency to hysterics, swelling of the feet and limbs, a feeling of constant tiredness and a distaste for food. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a certain cure for anaemia, because they make new, rich blood, which stimulates and strengthens every organ and every part of the body.

The following is one among thousands of cases of this serious trouble, cured by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Miss Georgina Raymond, St. Jerome Que., says: "About a year ago my health began to give out. I suffered from headaches, heart palpitation, dizziness and appeared to be threatened with a general break-down. I was at this time employed in the family of a doctor, who, seeing my condition, gave me medicine. I took this faithfully for some time, but with no benefit, and I grew much discouraged. Then a friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, saying that she had found a cure through them in similar conditions. I took her advice got a supply of the pills and took them regularly for some time. Gradually I became strong and in the course of a month or so I was again enjoying the best of health and have not since had the least return of the old symptoms. I can heartily recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to all weak girls."

Sold by all medicine dealers at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 or sent by mail, postpaid, by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co.
