PLEASANT POINT

(Special to The Post.) The Fenelon stone crusher is at work in our corner at present. So far they have covered considerable of the roads on the several beats with stone which after a bit will make fine travelling upon. A very pleasing function took place last week at the home of Mrs. Samuel Endicott, when her daughter, Elizabeth was united in marriage to Mr. Albert Fore, also a gentleman of this corner. The young couple have taken up their residence in our corner, and we all join in wishing them the heartiest congratulations. A large number from here took in the garden party at Dunsford last Friday evening, where they claim to have had an excellent time. Miss M. Evelyn Brien, graduate nurse of the Ross Memorial Hospital, spent a couple of days under the parental roof, before leaving for Pembroke, where she has accepted a position in the Cottage Hospital of that place. We wish Miss Brien every success in her new work and undertaking. Mr. Vicars Beatty, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Kennedy, of the Scotch Line, and Mrs. Wm. Wright and two children, Bert and Mildred, of Peterboro, were guests at Riverview Farm on Sunday. Mr. Robt. Agnew, of North Ops, has erected a fine barn this summer, which is modern in every respect, and greatly adds to the appearance of the place. Haymaking is the order of the day at present. Most of the farmers have cut their fall wheat, which proves to be a fair crop this year. He wish to congratulate Marvin Hamilton and Thomas Fox, both at this corner, who have been successful in the recent entrance examinations. Miss T. M. Peel, teacher of the North Ops school, is also to be congratulated on passing her full class.
