Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are cured by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

ARMY WORM IN OPS TOWNSHIP

The destructive army worm has invaded Ops township on the farm of Mr. E. H. Hopkins and Mr. T. A. Newman. On Mr. Newman's farm the worm was found in a field of barley, which would yield fifty bushels to the acre.

Hon. Mr. Duff, Minister of Agriculture, who was at the Ontario Agricultural College on Monday, took up, among other things, the means of control of the army worm, which has made its appearance on the college farm. He said one field of barley had to be harvested before it was ripe, on account of the depredations of the insect. They had eaten away part of the stalk of the plants just under the heads, and the heads had fallen down, and were hanging by only a very slight support. A strong wind would have knocked these to the ground, and in order to obviate such loss the crop was cut and will be left to ripen in the stook.

CANADA SECOND AT BISLEY SHOOT

(Special to The Post.) BISLEY CAMP, July 22.—(C.A.P. Cable.)—The Canadian total in the Kolapore Cup competition was 253, Australia's 255, England's 249, India's 247, Guernsey 240.

This match finished under exciting conditions. Canada, among the three leading competitors, finished firing first, and when the Mother Country closed down a minute later, Canada was four points ahead. The Australians, however, who shot slowly, had several shots to go, managed to overtake the Canadians by two points. Reserriet Cross scored the highest Australian aggregate of 99.

When the Australians were declared winners the Canadians heartily cheered the victors. Australia twice previously won the Kolapore Cup in 1902 and 1903. This year's winning aggregate is 14 points behind that of last year, when the Mother Country won.

"FIGHTING JOE" MARTIN COMING BACK

The news that "Fighting Joe" Martin is shifting his political scenery—leaving the British House of Commons and coming back to Canada—is far from a surprise. But if he stays in Canada that will be a surprise. He has established a unique record, being the only man in the British Empire who has held a seat in four different Houses. He has been in the Manitoba Legislature, the Dominion House of Commons, the British Columbia Legislature (where he became Premier), and in the British House of Commons. He might now be expected to round off his career by introducing his dynamic personality into the rest of the legislatures and parliaments of the Empire.

Joseph Martin has held a career unmatched in Canadian politics. He left his birthplace in Milton, Ont., when a young boy, and before he was out of his teens he was a telegraph operator in the United States. Then came the panic of 1873, and he returned to Canada, to become successively a school teacher, a lawyer and a professional politician. Wherever he was and what ever he was at he exhibited revolutionary tendencies.

"He might be a good leader in time of war, but not in time of peace, and a mighty poor follower at any time," so he once was summed up. An Extraordinary Radical.

"Fighting Joe" started out not as an ordinary Liberal, but as an extraordinary Radical. He was up in Portage la Prairie, Man., and made a stand for provincial rights, thus winning a seat in the Manitoba Legislature in 1882. He stayed in that House ten years. While there he crossed the whole country by stating that "Mr. Speaker was the most unscrupulous partisan he had ever met." The Legislature refused to proceed with business until he apologized. "Joe" stayed away for several days, until his action became a widespread sensation. Then he turned up, and made an apology, which he closed by adding: "But it's true just the same." That was in opposition.

When the Liberals came into power Martin became Attorney-General in Thomas Greenway's Cabinet. Among other remarkable demonstrations of his individuality he announced that the French language would be abolished in the separate schools. This, it is said, was the commencement of the Manitoba school question.

Was B. C. Premier. Mr. Martin was next heard of in the Dominion House as member for Winnipeg. He sat there from 1893 until 1896, when his faculty of disagreeing with other people and standing rigidly for his principles led to his defeat.

Then he went farther west, and, of course, soon became a political factor in British Columbia. There, in spite of the dislike of the vester interests and the regular politicians and enemies, who took a pot shot at him whenever possible, Mr. Martin became Premier of the province. Lieutenant-Governor McInnes, in a period of turmoil, in which "Fighting Joe" mixed merrily, dismissed Premier Semlin, and called on Mr. Martin, who had been Attorney-General, to form a Cabinet. The situation did not please the members, who, with western impulsiveness, filed out of the House through one door as the Governor came in the other to prorogue the House. Martin hurriedly got together a Cabinet, but in the ensuing election he was given a tremendous trouncing, winning only nine seats.

Bobs up in England. After that the "stormy petrel" bobbed up in England. He was elected member of the British House of Commons for East St. Pancras, London, in 1910, and has since held that seat, where, they say, they "can't get anyone too radical for them." In Britain Mr. Martin has been as lively a "kicker" as ever. He has made things uncomfortable for Premier Asquith on various occasions, and has especially delighted in "roasting" Hon. Winston Churchill. He has hotly complained in the House of being ignored sometimes by the Speaker. He has while in England found time to give advice and pass judgment on the various Canadian leaders from time to time. He scolded Sir Wilfrid Laurier, gave hints to Mr. Borden, and when Mr. Rowell became Ontario Liberal leader Mr. Martin wrote him a lengthy letter of warning and counsel.

Mr. Martin has not told us just where he is going to settle, but if he returns to Canada he will be heard from as easily one place as another.

ANOTHER THEFT IS REPORTED

The mysterious disappearance of a chatelaine bag containing some seventy dollars has been reported to Chief Short.

The theft, as it is claimed to be, occurred on Monday at the home of a railroad man on Albert-st. north. The money included a portion of his month's pay and its disappearance is shrouded in mystery. When the sneak thief entered the house is not known, but it would appear that a citizen, who kept his cow in Murphy's field, noticed that the screen door in the rear of the railroad's residence had been torn and wrenched. In all probability the thief gained entrance to the house through this door some time during the night.
