Mr. James Boxall's twenty-one years' faithful services as Superintendent of the Cambridge-st. Methodist Church, was fittingly recognized last evening, when he was the recipient of a presentation and address in the Sunday School room.

It is hard to sever the connections of years; life is full of separations and farewells, but our lives are stronger, our affections purer, our aspirations higher for memories of friends and associations.

Lindsay, July 15, 1914

Dear Mr. Boxall,—We, the members of Cambridge-st. Methodist church would like to express to you our sincere appreciation of your work as our Sunday School Superintendent during the last twenty-one years.

To those of us with whom you are at present associated, comes the sadness of saying good bye. In saying this we wish to present to you and Mrs. Boxall this Victrola, which we hope will not only give you many hours of pleasure, but will recall the days spent in Cambridge-st. Methodist Sabbath School.

Words are weak and expressions most inadequate to convey to you all we feel. Now after twenty-one years of service you feel it incumbent upon you to resign, and our thoughts are too deep for words. How many boys and girls you have guided; how many youths and maidens you have ushered into life's work, the stronger to resist temptation and the braver to fight life's battles, and how many are taking their positions in the world because of your help and influence and above all how many are serving their God and their generation, whose feet were early turned into paths of right by your teaching.

Signed on behalf of the Quarterly Board, S. J. Shorey.

The Trustee Board, W. H. Clarke, W. Flavell.

The Sabbath School, W. W. Staples.

Rev. Dr. Shorey spoke on behalf of the church and congregation, and referred to the zeal and earnestness which had characterized Mr. Boxall's labors on behalf of the Sunday School.
