LITLIE BRITAIN. (Special to The Post.)

Meetings of unusual interest have been held in the Little Britain Christian church, under the supervision of the pastor during the month of Auguet, as follows ;-First and second -Sabbaths, Rev. L. W. Hainer, of Norristown, Penn., preached at 11 a. m., and W. H. Hainer, of Trvington, N.J., preached at 7 p.m. The third Sabbath Rev. F. L. Hainer, of Provi-Pdcnce, preached at 11 a.m., and the pastor by special request repeated his sermon of a few weeks ago, "The handwriting on the wall." Dan. 5, 5. Av 3 p.m. the ordinance of baptism. was administered by immersion; in the stream near the parsonage in the presence of several hundred witnesses Solemnity prevailed throughout, and many were moved to tears as they witnessed the solemn scene. Last Sabbath Rev. T. L. Hainer preached both morning and evening. His sermons were coth scholarly and spiritual. Many have been turned away from these services, unable to get even standing room. The committee is now discussing the propriety of either building an ew church or butting 20 feet to the old one;
