

Window Sill With A History

Member of Oak Tree Which Sank Forty Years Ago

The sill in the front door of the residence of Mr. Sam Mitchell, Emmet-st., has a history. About two years ago Mr. Mitchell started the erection of a house he now lives in, and the tree, which was sawn up and used for the sill, was cut by him and another, Mr. Zach Mitchell, 43 Emmet-st. It was put on the ice on Lake, and when the ice thawed in the spring it sank.

Change the Course To Durham-st

Deal With the Sussex-st Drain Problem

Alderman Dobson on Monday evening brought up in the council a question of considerable importance, and which is going to entail expense on the town, but must be attended to.

to do with the water which accumulates at the town park and near Emmet-st. near this point is the drainage problem. Dobson urged strongly to the council the necessity of dealing with this matter. The park had recently been put in a better shape, at considerable expense and they could not afford to have the good work done destroyed by the surface water, which he argued should go down Durham-st.

A Wise Youth

A little chap was offered a chance to spend a week in the country, but refused. Coaxing, pleading, arguing, promising of untold wonders 'alike brought from him nothing but the stubborn ultimatum, "No country for me!"

"But why not?" someone asked, finally.

"Because," he answered, "they have thrashin' machines down there, an' it's bad enough here where it's done by hand."—Cleveland Leader.

Cut Down the Noxious Weeds

The town council is to be commended on the action taken Monday evening to eradicate the noxious weeds nuisance in the town.

The question was taken up after Deputy-reeve Jordan had presented a complaint of a citizen regarding noxious weeds in an adjoining garden. The aldermen with commendable unanimity supported a resolution introduced by Reeve Jordan and alderman Dobson to the effect that notices be placed in the local papers notifying the owners of vacant and other lots where noxious weeds are allowed to grow, that unless the same is cut, the town will act and the expenses charged to the property.

Jack the Peeper At Work Again

Was Doing the "Peep" Act Near Roundhouse last night

Jack the Peeper is still on the go and a south ward resident gave him a good scare last night. About 12.30 o'clock as the residents in the neighborhood of the G. T. R. station were going to bed a strange looking individual was seen hanging around the houses as if looking for somebody. One of the residents made it his business to watch him, and two or three times he saw the stranger go up to the window of a neighbor's house and look in. When anybody would come along the sidewalk he would creep into the bushes.

The Bridegroom Never Came

The non-appearance of the bridegroom at the time appointed for a marriage to have been celebrated at Lakefield last week, caused considerable consternation in a home in the vicinity of Burleigh Falls. It appears that the young lady and gentleman who had contemplated entering matrimony had arranged that the ceremony be performed in Lakefield on Wednesday last, whereupon the bride to be and the lady with whom she was staying set out for the village and reached it at the time the happy event was to be celebrated. But there they waited at the minister's house. No bridegroom showed up, and after a wait of some hours the two women returned home, and it is said that the man who failed to put in an appearance had left Lakefield and his destination was not definitely known.

At the Council meeting on Monday evening Alderman M. J. Lewis gave notice of motion to the effect that at the next meeting he would present a motion that a local option by-law be prepared by the town solicitor for submission to the ratepayers on January 1st 1910.

Good Price For Hogs

Those who have hogs to sell at the present time are lucky, as every pound of pork is worth 8½ cents to the owner. This morning while a Post man was at the market a farmer drove up to the scales and had two hogs weighed at 8½ cents per pound. They netted the farmer in the neighborhood of $40. The animals were only eight months old but they certainly were dandies. Who says there is no money in hogs?

Is Doing Canada In His Auto

President Of a Pennsylvania Oil Company Visits Lindsay

A prominent visitor to town Saturday was Dr. Alexander, of Randolph, New York. The doctor who is president of the Sterling Oil Co., of Emmetton, Pa., one of the few companies that have withstood the onslaughts of the Standard Oil Co., was accompanied by his family, and is doing Canada in his handsome auto touring car. This car is a "beaut" and no mistake. It is fitted up with everything conceivable that would be likely to be needed on such a trip.

Town Council Regular Meeting

Aldermen Held A Short Session last Night—Business Transacted

At the council meeting on Monday evening, at which all the members were present with the exception of Aldermen Babcock and Campbell, a communication was read from the secretary of the Water Commissioners in reference to the placing of a hydrant at the corner of Bond and Victoria-sts.

On motion of Reeve and Deputy-reeve Jordan, the request of the Commissioners was granted and the placing of said hydrant approved.

TO SEND DELEGATES

The Ontario Municipal Association requested the council to send two delegates to the convention the first week in September. His Worship Mayor Begg and Reeve Jordan were the delegates last year. The matter will be dealt with at the committee meeting.

PAVEMENT WANTED.

A petition was read from property owners on the south side of Bond-st. asking for a pavement five feet wide from Adelaide to Albert-st.

The aldermen were strongly of the opinion that a four foot would be sufficient, and the petition was referred to the commissioners to report, with a recommendation that it be a four foot walk.

DANGER OF FLOODING

Alderman Howkins referred to the condition of the intake pipes on William street at the Corner of Francis and Colborne-sts. During every rainfall they became plugged, and there was a danger of adjoining property being flooded. This matter will be attended to.

IMPORTANT MATTERS.

Alderman Dobson said that some time ago the council had asked the G. T. R. to give access to the river south of the town. This request had not been complied with; also that the crossing over the tracks on Durham-st. had not sufficient gravel on it. He understood they could get this attended to if they asked for it. The council will deal with these matters later. ...
