Mrs. McLean returned last week after an extended visit to relatives in Nottawa.

The W. F. M. S. concert, on Wednesday of last week, while not largely attended, was one of the best entertainments held here in a long time. Addresses interesting and amusing were delivered by Rev. Best, of Beaverton, Rev. Young, of Lorneville, and Rev. Jones, of Victoria Road. Miss Dalgleish's piano number were given with excellent technique and expression. All thoroughly enjoyed the various vocal numbers by Miss Best, Miss Barrett and Mr. Benton. The audience was delighted with Mrs. Young's recitations from first to last. It is rarely that people in a small village such as ours have an opportunity to hear such well rendered selections. Rev. Turner acted as chairman and at the close of the programme ice cream was served by the ladies of the W.F.M.S.

Civic holiday was held on Friday, and was even more of a success than last year. The programme of sports lasted from early afternoon until dark. Then the dancing attracted the crowd. Supper was served by ladies of the Presbyterian church. The days receipts were beyond expectations, and the K.A.A. are quite satisfied with the results of their hard work. The steamer Hiawatha took several passengers to Fenelon Falls on Monday to celebrate Civic holiday there. A dance under the auspices of the Kirkfield dance club in being held in the town hall on Friday of this week. Miss Nettie McInnis has returned to her school in Kennewick, in Peterboro county.

Mrs. John Hunter left here this morning en route for Saskatoon, Sask. to visit her daughter, Mrs. Beatty.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Webster on the birth of their little daughter No. 2. We all wish them the best of health and luck.

"Death of Mr. John Bell, at the age of 107 years," is the heading one local paper has, but John is very much alive these days, and he certainly has quite a bit to go for the 100 year limit. Am glad to see The Post had a correct headline, anyway.

Mr. C. Laplain is unfortunately keeled up with a twisted knee. He tells me he wishes it was all right again, and I said the same to him, Oh, why did I play that dashed football game. Is poor old Chris L's exclamation, When I might have been out having all fun that came, 'Stead of being cooped up in the station.

A BOOK ABOUT A BETTER SCHOOL

The new Kennedy School book is ready. It tells how we have won the typewriting championship of Canada, of America, and of the world.

It tells of our Employment Department, where we received last month over 400 applications for stencigraphers, and filled 351 positions.

It tells about a business course taught by business men. In short, it tells about a better school. It is sent free.

Ask for it by the name "Its Work."
