Pithy Paragraphs
from the Point

What is Transpiring at Lindsay's Favorite Watering Place.

The golf links are being well patronized these days, in spite of the warm weather. It is astonishing what a fascinating hold this game gets of people. This is a nine hole links, and an ordinary player will probably walk a mile and a half once around, or three miles to a game of eighteen holes. They will play until physically unable to walk any more, and be at it again next day. The onlooker thinks it is a simple kind of a sport for men of parts to be seemingly wasting their time over, but if he or she allow themselves to be enticed into the game, they are immediately drawn into the vortex, and become as enthusiastic as the regulars — in fact become one themselves. This is the reason so many of our citizens fight shy of the game.

Saturday was a red hot scorcher, reminding some of us of what may be in store for us if we do not mend our ways. It was too hot for boating during the day—the sun was shooting his rays down with terrible vim.
There was not a breath of air stirring anywhere, and the water was as still as a mill pond. After sundown everyone who had a boat or a plank of any kind, got out on the water to cool off. Those who had boats for hire were kept busy and the river was dotted with craft of all sorts up to the arrival of the Kathleen. ...
It was a great night for poets and songsters, and every now and then a wave of song would come floating away over the waters.

The Kathleen brought up a good crowd on Saturday, the evening trip especially bringing up a full house.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mather, of Nashville, Tenn, spent a few days here, and went on down Peterboro way.

Every now and then we hear of a big fish being caught, but it is always some other fellow that does the trick. The last authenticated case was a perch six inches long, and the lucky man was so proud of his catch that he talked of nothing else all day.

Mr. McAdam and family have left for home after spending July at the Point.
Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Knight spent Sunday and the holiday with Mr.
Bert McLean.

Mr. Thos. Stewart, who is to defend Hunter left for Lindsay today.
If Saturday was hot, Sunday was, if anything, hotter, and there was no work done that could possibly be left over. A great many cottagers took their meals out on the lawns, where they got the benefit of any breezes that might be blowing.

Considering the extremely close nature of the day, quite a large number turned out to the service, which was in charge of Rev. Fordyce Barr, who is summing here with his family. Miss Mina Flavelle, as usual, presided at the organ, and Mrs. Bert McLean sang, "Jesus Saviour pilot me," by Hopper, with very great acceptance. Mr. Barr took as his text, "Ye call me Master and Lord for so I am—so ought ye to—" The speaker said that if most people were asked why they did not go to church, the answer would be that they did not know but that they were as good as those who did go, which might or might not be true. Those who went to church called Jesus Master, and yet fell very far short of their obligations to him as such. Jesus did not preach a doctrine or an ism. He preached Himself. I am the way, come unto Me, believe on Me, and other sayings of His all went to show that He was the great personal factor of the world and naturally should be the great personal factor in our lives.
If we claim Christ as our Lord, and Master, we should seek to follow Him in our daily lives and carry Him into everything in which we are interested.

Mr. Kerr MacMillan, of Princeton, N. J., is visiting his brother, Rev.
Dr. MacMillan.
The Rev. Father Collins was the guest of Mr. B. J. Gough over Sunday and conducted service for the Catholic part of the community yesterday morning.
Mr. Parnell McHugh spent Sunday and the holiday at the Point.
Mr. Brady, jr., spent the week end at the Point.
On Saturday night when the Kathleen came in the captain threw off only one mail bag instead of two.
After pulling out he discovered his mistake and had to turn back and come in again. By the time he got in, the mail wagon had left, and the mate was obliged to run at a 2.40 gait to the post office with it, as if the government was after him. This mishap kept the steamer about half an hour late leaving.

The weather today was somewhat more reasonable, there being no danger of getting sunstroked when one wished to go on the water, as there was yesterday and Saturday.

Miss Viola Preston and Miss Hazel Moynes left for home today after spending a few days with Mrs. W.
Williamson at Pleasant Point.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maunder left for home this afternoon after spending Sunday and the holiday at the Point.

Paul's Third Missionary Journey.— Ephesus. Lesson Acts xviii:23 to xix: 21.

Golden Text.—The name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. Acts xix: 17.

Verse 23.—Is a systematic "follow up system" as essential in Christian work as it is to successful business?
Are any so strong that we cannot derive "strengthening" from the prayers and experience of others, and are any so weak that we may not "strengthen" others?

Verses 24-26.—What is the minimum knowledge necessary that one may be a true child of God?

What are the minimum qualities essential to become a preacher of the gospel?
What good qualities for a preacher did this man Apollos possess?

What did the "baptism of John include and what did it lack of full orbed Christianity?
What percentage of present day preached will exceed Apollos (1) in their zeal and ability (2) in their Christian knowledge, i. e., personal experience of God's gospel?

If Apollos had been conceited or anything less than a man of God, would he have submitted to teaching from a layman and his wife?

Verse 27.—Should laymen use their pen more frequently to help preacher whom they know are going to other towns?

Verse 28.—Why is it that God has conditioned all human progress and betterment, including a knowledge of the gospel, upon the zeal, ability and goodness of those who already enjoy its benefits?

Chap xix:1-7.—Were these twelve persons whom Paul found at Ephesus actually the reconciled children of God at this time?

What proportion of present day Christians had practically the same experience as these twelve disciples had when Paul met them?

Is the Holy Spirit, as spoken of in this lesson, generally received at or subsequent to conversion?
If it is now the privilege of every Christian to receive the Holy Spirit and to walk in Him thereafter, how may He be received?

Has the gift of tongues and prophe-sying then, or is it now, a necessary accompaniment of the baptisms of the Holy Spirit? (See 1 Cor. 12. 2-11; 29-30.)

Is there anything necessarily implied in receiving the holy spirit, other than the constant realization that God dwells in us, to keep us holy, to guide us in all things, and to give us necessary power and wisdom to carry out God's purposes concerning us?

Verse 8.—Why ought or ought not, the pulpit now, as Paul did then, to dispute or argue and bring convincing proof's compelling men's reac-ons, by powerful evidence of the truths of Christianity and not be content with simple declamation as is now so common? (This question must be answered in writing by the members of the club.)

Verses 9,12.—Apart from the miraculous power that Paul had, what was the secret of his success?
Verses 13-17.—Why do some to-day blaspheme the name of God, and dare the power of God; are they possessed with the devil?

Verse 18-22.—Does conversion always imply restitution and the foresaking of every evil way?

Girl Charged
With Fraud

Brockville, Aug. 10.—The crown only got part way through with the preliminary hearing of the charges against Miss Grace Henderson of Gan-anoque, of embezzling from the Thousand Island Railway Co. of Ganano-que, in whose offices she was employed until January last. Previous to that time shortages had been found, and almost the entire staff was dis-pensured with. Recent expert investigation of the books led to Miss Henderson's arrest. Yesterday she was committed for trial on a charge of having cashed and applied to her use a check for $500.

Testimony was introduced to show that she sent a messenger to a bank with the check and that he, after receiving the money, deposited it with the defendant, who was working under the general cashier, John Marshall, who has since left the country.
The books show no record of the receipt of the cash.

Boy Drowns.
Canso, N.S., Aug. 10.—Phillip Lum-den, the three-year-old son of Jas. W.
Lumsden, was drowned yesterday afternoon by falling overboard from his father's wharf.

Doesn't Want British.
London, Aug. 10.—(C.A.P. Cable.)— The Premier of Western Australia, replying to a deputation of settlers from the old country, who brought a number of alleged grievances under his notice, became incensed and bluntly declared, "I have more trouble with British immigrants than any other class of settlers, and am going to tell the agent-general not to send out any more immigrants, no matter how much capital they have, unless he is thoroughly satisfied they are men who can make a success on the land."

Piano Agent Disappears.
Regina, Sask., Aug. 10.—Considerable anxiety has been caused by the disappearance of E. C. Corbeau, local agent of the Heintzman Piano Co.
Corbeau, together with his two little children, started for a drive on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock and expected to return home by six o'clock.
They were still missing yesterday.
The country around is well settled. He came here from Toronto.

Will Not Stop Traffic.
Toronto, Aug. 10.—Any traffic arrangements the C.N.R. may make with other roads to secure the movement of their freight westward will not be allowed to retard or interfere with the construction of a C.N.R. connecting section between Selwood and Port Arthur. President Mackenzie said yesterday that the C.P.R. was handling the C.N.R. freight between Sudbury and Port Arthur, from which point it was being picked up by the C.N.R. again, but that was an arrangement very common among railways and would not weigh against the completion of an all C.N.R. line at the earliest possible date.

A stretch of line forty miles long from Selwood north towards Port Arthur, Mr. Mackenzie said, was being rushed along now and would be completed before the end of the year.
The president added that satisfactory progress was being made by a gang of surveyors in the readjusting of the route of the Niagara-Ottawa line, which will be started this fall.

Stockholm Strike May Fail.
Stockholm, Aug. 10.—Many carts and street cars were moving through the street yesterday, despite the threats of the strikers to stop all traffic. King Gustave drove through the city yesterday, passing before the strikers' headquarters. He was without an escort.

The gas and electric plants are working without interruption and last night it seemed doubtful whether the employees of the railroads will join the movement.

Rumors are again in circulation concerning a probable collapse of the strike, the workmen being dissatisfied with the speeches and the methods employed by their leaders in carrying it on.

D.R.A. Bar New Bisley Sight.
Ottawa, Aug. 10.—The new sight used at Bisley, and which brought the back sight much nearer the eye than the former sight, will not be allowed at the D.R.A. matches. It extends from the sight bed some inches back, and the D.R.A. executive considers that it would not be suitable for active service, and therefore cannot be sanctioned. The chief executive officers of the D.R.A. meet, which opens here on Monday, Aug. 30, will be Lt-Col. Brown of Ottawa, with Major K.
Montgomery of Toronto, as assistant.
The entire Canadian Bisley team will shoot.

Ashes Consigned to Sea.
Chicago, Aug. 10.—A metal box containing the incinerated body of Mrs.
Ross Payton was sunk in Lake Michigan from the deck of an excursion steamer, while passengers looked on with bared heads and the steamship orchestra played a dirge. Twenty-nine years ago the husband of Mrs. Payton was lost in the wreck of the steamer Alpena, and the widow wished that her ashes be thrown in the lake near the place of the wreck.

McGuigan Denies It.
Toronto, Aug. 10.—F. H. McGuigan, who is building the Hydro-Electric Commission power line from Niagara Falls to Toronto, denied yesterday the rumor that he has been offered the $25,000 a year to become head of the Lake Superior Corporation at the instance of London financiers.
