Hunter charged with murder- quietly along to the police cells. ing his wife Rose Hunter at the Hotel Royal at Bobcaygeon on Saturday morning last took place today before County Magistrate Moore. K. C., at the court house.

IN JUDGE'S CHAMBERS

The trial took place in the judge's chambers upstairs, only those directinterested being allowed admittance. Large crowds of spectators gathered in the halls and corridors of the court house, but special constables were on duty to keep them downstairs.

HUNTER'S APPEARANCE.

Hunter, pale and wan looking, but not in the least bit nervous, was led in by Chief of Police Vincent and without glancing to either side took place in the prisoner's chair. When once seated he looked around him in a very calm manner and resembled a man who was charged man. with a minor offence rather than man who was on trial for his life. He wore a nice blue suit and had his hair brushed back off his face. He quietly shook hands with his two children, Grace and Carman, smiling as he did so. Throughout the trial he sat quietly watching the different witnesses with a steady gaze At times he seemed as unconcerned as could be.

a wet cloth around his forehead. She atked what was wrong, and Hunter replied that he had a headache. Mrs. Hunter then went to bed, but did not sleep all night. About five o'clock next morning she heard a footstep and leaning up on her elbow she saw Hunter pass her door, which has a curtain separating the two rooms. Mrs. Hunter then listened for him to go downstairs, but the footsteps stopped and everything was quiet for almost two minutes. A rifle shot then rang out and Grace, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hunter, screamed, "O, grandma, mother is shot." Mrs. Coulter then jumped out of bed and ran into Mrs. Hunter's room. Hunter stood near the door with gun in hand but did not speak a word Mrs. Coulter said "Rose, are you dead? Speak to me if you can," and at the same time shook her to see if she was dead. He said that on the morning of Saturday, August 7th he was awakened by a crash just outside his door. He immediately jumped up and ran to the door and saw Hunter standing just across the hall. He could hear loud talking, so he put on his trousers and came out again. He met Hunter in the Hall and said, "Joe, what is this that happened?" Hunter made no reply and just at that moment several other men came running up the hall and took hold of the accused. Mr. Mitchell did not see Hunter make any resistance or try to get away. THE HOTEL PORTER

Mr. Percy Vickers, the hotel porter, night of the murder gave his sion of the affair. He said "I was awakened on Saturday morning last by a gun shot, and at the same time I heard a lot of screaming and yelling. As quick as possible I got dressed and ran down to the second floor to room number 14, where the yelling was going on. At the same time a number of other people ran up and when I reached the scene the hostler had a hold of Hunter. I asked him if I could do anything and he told me Constable McMullen. Hunter seemed

THINGS

Fort William, Aug. 14.-With 150 local men of the 96th Militia Regiment and 70 men of the regular Mounted Rifles from Winnipeg on duty, there were no signs of trouble from the striking C.P.R. freight handlers yesterday. All parts of the company's sheds are being guarded by the sol-

The first work done by the military yesterday was to clear a mob of strikers from the streets around the Avenue Hotel, Col. Steel's headquarters. Some of the strikers took refuge in a deserted building, but were driven out without an argument, after which a big batch of the strikers, who are all foreigners, were rounded up and searched for concealed weapons. Only one man was found with a revolver and he was arrested. A search of hotel! the houses tenanted by the strikers, was then begun, but the ammunition and firearms located and seized proved comparatively small. We don't anticipate further interruption of traffic with the troops here. We are ready to act under the Lemieux Act and rest on that. These men quit without notice and without any effort to confer with the company. We attribute this to the Greek element, of which there are some two hundred among the dock strikers. We had one thousand men altogether, the balance being Huns and Italians. The Greeks told them on Monday they must quit work or they would shoot them, adding that they were going to hold the company
