

G. T. R. STRIKE SETTLED MEN GET SCALE IN 18 MONTHS

Montreal, Aug. 3.—The strike of the Grand Trunk Railway trainmen and conductors, which was launched at 2:30 p.m. on Monday night, July 18, was officially declared off at 6 o'clock last night.

The effect of the G.T.R. strike settlement is a compromise. Whereas the company was willing that the standard rates should go into force in 1913, they have agreed that they shall go into force in 1912. Also, the rules which have gone into force on the C.P.R. have been agreed upon. They are particularly favorable to the men. The terms of the settlement of the difficulties are as follows:

1. The company will put back as soon as possible the men, other than those who have been, or may be found, guilty of acts of violence or disorderly conduct, the understanding being that there is to be no coercion or intimidation used towards the new men.

2. The company will put into effect, from May 1, 1910, the rates named in schedule of rates dated July 18, 1910, those rates to be embodied in the present schedules now in effect on this line, it being understood that those rates shall in no instance effect a reduction in any existing rate.

3. The company will, on Jan. 1, 1912, make effective in train and yard service on the G.T.R. the rates of pay and the rules contained in the schedule or agreement on that date in effect on the lines of the Canadian Pacific Railway east of Fort William.

The three above propositions shall apply also to the Central Vermont Railroad Co., the said railroad to be substituted for the Grand Trunk Railway, and the Rutland Railroad to be substituted for the Canadian Pacific Railway, wherever the same are used in the above.

In the case of the Central Vermont, by the "schedule of rates dated July 18, 1910," is meant the schedule issued by the management of that company since July 1.

Signed by Charles M. Hays, President G.T.R. System. Attested: A. B. Garretson, pres. O.R.C.; W. G. Lee, pres. B. of R.T. For the O.R.C.: Robert Kelley, N. Roy, Ed. Z. Sinclair, J. E. Mann. Approved by S. N. Berry, V.P. For the B.R.T.: John Maloney, J. A. Conner, W. E. Berry, P. A. Hebert. Approved by James Murdoch, V.P.

It was stated by President Garretson of the O.R.C., last night, that the company and brotherhood officials parted on the most friendly terms.

The following general order was sent out by Vice-President Jas. Murdoch, B.R.T., and Vice-President Sam Berry, O.R.C., to the strikers' committees: Advise all men to report for duty at once.

Instruct to carefully avoid any mistreatment of strikebreakers until they are all eliminated from the service. All men will be returned to the service as soon as possible.

The printed wage schedule issued by the company becomes effective May 1. Canadian Pacific rates and rules become effective Dec. 31, 1911.

On the afternoon the strike was called off, Mr. Hays offered to standardize the rate of wages on January 1, 1913, or a gain of a year for the men. The wage offer of Mr. Hays now in force is accepted by the men till the standard rates are adopted.

The increased rates of pay are made retroactive dating from May 1, 1910. The standardization on the Central Vermont also is made Dec. 31, 1911, but the same to the Rutland, rather than the C.P.R., as in the Grand Trunk system.

As to the question of having restored to the strikers the pension privileges lost by the strike, Mr. Murdoch said that had not been discussed in the conferences. He explained why.

He stated that the successful issue of the negotiations was due mainly to Sir Frederick Borden.

Indeed, he remarked, that had it not been for the services of the Minister of Militia, he did not believe that the strike would now be ended.

Angry With G.T.R.

North Bay, Aug. 3.—Citizens of North Bay, and members of the Northern Volunteer Firemen's Association, are saying some very uncomplimentary things about the Grand Trunk Railway Co. to-day, as a result of the company's action in cancelling all excursion trains to North Bay for Wednesday, the occasion of the annual tournament of the association, which embraces ten towns, including Penetang, Orillia, Barrie, Parry Sound, Midland, Bracebridge, Huntsville, Burk's Falls, Gravenhurst and North Bay. Excursions had been arranged from all these points, and special trains contracted for.

On account of the strike negotiations were opened with the executive more than a week ago as to the advisability of a postponement, but assurances were received that trains would be furnished. Yesterday word was received that the company had cancelled all excursion trains for the tournament, thus keeping several thousand people away from the celebration.

Considerable expense was gone to by the North Bay committee for the two days' celebration, including a firemen's tournament, band competition, field sports and horse races, and the cancellation of the Grand Trunk excursion trains at the last moment has aroused intense indignation. The citizens decided to go ahead with the celebration and make the best of a bad situation.

GUELPH ALDERMAN IN A FIGHT

Alderman Kelly Has Fight With Civic Officer at Guelph

Guelph, Aug. 3.—The most sensational session that the City Council of Guelph ever held was their meeting last night, when Ald. C. W. Kelly and Commissioner J. J. Drew, K.C., came to blows over an animated discussion that arose over the question of whether or not the radial railway commissioners, Drew and Ryan, and their chairman, J. W. Lyon, be permitted to take seats at the board, to discuss with the aldermen a question relative to the People's Railway.

There is a railing about four feet high, dividing the council chamber proper from the space provided for spectators, and over this obstacle the scrap between Commissioner Drew and Ald. Kelly began. It seems the commissioner made some remark to the alderman that caused him to lose his temper, and the latter, reaching over the railing, struck Mr. Drew a resounding smack. Mr. Drew had his hat in one hand and a light walking cane in the other. The aggressive alderman in the next instant received two or three smart raps of the cane over his head and knuckles. Ald. Kelly tried to vault over the railing, but was held back by the aldermen sitting next to him. On the other side, it took several of the commissioners to hold Mr. Drew, who, in a tone of indignation declared, "Let me alone. I must defend myself against this man." Breaking away from his fellows, Ald. Kelly ran around the partition, determined to have it out with his opponent, but just as he had about made his way, Ald. Carter forced him on to a bench and held there, bringing the scrap to an end.

The Gathering of the Clans

All arrangements are now completed for the Gathering of the Clans and Caledonian games at Campbellsford on Thursday, Aug. 11th. A special train bringing the famous 48th Highlanders brass and pipe bands and a large number of competitors, will be run from Toronto, also special excursions from Belleville, Natic and Cobourg. In addition to the regular program there will be a lacrosse match between Oshawa and Campbellsford. This promises to be an exciting game, as both teams are playing good lacrosse, and are out to win.

Charlton May Get Freedom

Forty Days Allowed Italian Government for Porter Charlton Has Expired

New York, Aug. 3.—The forty days allowed the Italian Government under its treaty with the United States, to make formal demand for the custody of Porter Charlton, held in Jersey City, N.J., jail for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Mary Scott Castle Charlton, at Moltrasio, on Lake Como, expired at midnight last night.

No such request has been received by the State Department in Washington.

The interest of the U. S. Government in the case dies with the expiration of the forty days, and the unusual situation confronts the officials of a confessed murderer being held without legal process.

Three courses are open to the attorneys retained by Judge Charlton, father of the young assassin. The first is simply to demand that the youth be released, there being no legal charge against him. The second is the issuance of a writ of habeas corpus to secure his release, while the third is the institution of insanity proceedings.

Gleanings From Powles' Corners

On Saturday, the 17th of June, 1882, your humble correspondent and several others in this locality went to Lindsay to hear the Hon. Edward Blake speak in the drill shed, and on the 20th of the same month the general election took place. During the past 28 years the farmers have had 18 years of national policy and about 14 years of government under the Hon. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and the politicians of all shades can see the mighty expansion of business and trade with other countries compared with 18 years of stagnation under the Conservative regime. The Canadians were pouring into the United States. They are all back again long ago, and have brought a lot of Americans with them.

Mr. E. Dunn, of Cameron, passed through here the fore part of last week to Mr. Geo. Isaac's farm near Rosedale. Mr. Dunn is a first class man with a first class threshing outfit.

The Fell brothers drove back to their ranch in Somerville last Saturday, and drove home six fat cattle. Their destination will be Mr. Thos Arnold's slaughter house near Lindsay.

The T. Eaton Co. of Toronto, have quite a few customers here. At the least calculation there is over a hundred dollars a year sent to the T. Eaton Co. of Toronto.

Mr. Geo. A. Powles addressed the Epworth League here last Wednesday evening.

Mr. W. Glaspell had a little bit of a picnic last Monday afternoon. There was a little difference between Wilbert and the three horses he was working on the binder and in the act of correcting the motive power, they suddenly made a bolt and ran about twenty rods. The binder was damaged some.

A boy about 12 years of age turned up early last Sunday evening on horseback. He had been living with a farmer named Oliver in the township of Verulam. Mr. Oliver being away from home last Saturday, the boy ransacked the house, and then skipped out, taking a horse valued at $175.00. Mr. J. T. Brown, of this place, kept the boy all night and when the lad retired for the night, Mr. Brown took the horse to a neighbor's for fear of a midnight fight. The boy and horse were captured Monday morning.

Mr. Bert Parrish, of Sutcliffe & Sons' staff, Lindsay, enjoyed a week's visit with his parents, Mrs. Mrs. Parrish and their little girl, were down, too.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Mark, of Peterboro, called on friends here last week.

Mr. A. C. Greenaway, of Carbray was looking up some of the boys of former years.

Mr. Sid Smith was visiting relatives at Burnt River over Sunday.

Some of those who have tried their new potatoes have made an estimate, which is away below last year's crop, but they may be like a singed cat, better than they look.

"But the children, O John, I can't see them starve,

"From the hunger hear them call."

He lifted his hand, that father struck his wife a terrible blow,

And said, as he went again to the bar—

"That's all she'll get—she can go."

Enter Faculty of Education

Successful Pupils of Victoria County in Recent Examinations

The Education Department yesterday announced the results of the examination for entrance into the faculties of education. Below is given a list containing the names of Victoria county candidates who have passed in one or more parts of the examination for entrance into the faculties of education. The examination passed is indicated after each name. In connection with the announcement the Education Department made the following statement:

"The certificates of those who passed and the statements of those who failed will be mailed to the principals and inspectors in the course of a week. As in the other examinations no appeal can be allowed to candidates whose papers are stamped as having been re-read. In other cases of failure appeals will not be refused if made before September 1, and accompanied by the fee of $2. In view of all the precautions taken, however, it is unlikely that such appeals would be successful."

The pass list is as follows:

M. C. Brokenshire (part II), H. G. Burn (part II), A. G. Cameron (part II), M. A. Cinnamon (part II), L. Cruess (part I), R. W. Hardy (part II), L. S. Hart, (part I), I. Jordan (part I), M. K. Sisson, (part II).

The Limitations of Science.

Johnny was sent to study mathematics, and the teacher told him that it was a true science.

"For instance," she said, "if it takes one man twelve days to build a house, then twelve men could build it in one day."

Johnny replied: "And 288 men will build it in an hour, 17,280 in a minute, 1,088,800 men will put it up in a second. Now, I don't believe they could build even a single brick in that time. Again, if one ship can cross the Atlantic in twelve days, twelve ships should be able to cross it in one day. I don't believe that either, so I'm not going to study mathematics." And Johnny left the teacher studying it herself.

THE WORD "GOWN."

It First Came Into Use In The Fourteenth Century.

Female costume in the tenth century was classical in its simplicity. The women wore long, loose, flowing skirts reaching to the feet and a draped "cote," or upper garment. Chaucer, who died in 1400, when Henry IV. was king, frequently uses the word cote. In the "Canterbury Tales" he depicts the sergeant-at-law as wearing a "medley cote," which no doubt means a coat of many colors, while the miller he describes as wearing "a whyte cote." It was in the fourteenth century that the word "gown" first came into use. An anonymous author in no mild words finds fault with the fashion of his days. He writes that "the commons were besotted in excess of apparel, in wide surcoats reaching to their loins, some in a garment reaching to their heels, close before and strutting out on the side, so that on the back they make men seem women, and these they call by a ridiculous name—gown."

As early as the twelfth century women's cotes were made with trains, and in the first quarter of the thirteenth century a bishop moralizes early on their vanity for wearing trained cotes, some of which contained seven ell and a half.—Westminster Gazette.

Lore of the Clover.

Any one who carries about a four leaved clover will be lucky and will have the power of discovering ghosts or evil spirits. With it under the pillow the lover may insure dreams of the beloved one. A fragment in the shoe of a traveler insures a safe journey. Of the five leaved clover it is declared that if it be worn on the left side of a maiden's dress or fastened behind the hall door the Christian name of the first man who enters will be the same as that of the future husband. The power of the four leaved shamrock for good is familiar to all from Lover's pretty and once popular song, the speaker in which pictures what she would do should she find the magic plant:

I would play the enchanter's part and scatter bliss around,
And not a tear or aching heart should in the world be found.

—London Globe.

Even In His Day.

Croesus was complaining of the high cost of living.

"The worst of it, though," he grumbled, "is that I don't know whether it's caused by the tariff or an oversupply of gold."

Bitterly regretting the necessity for economizing, he canceled his order for a mess of ortolans' tongues and told the waiter to bring him an omelet of humming birds' eggs.—Chicago Tribune.
