YORK SHOT A POLITICAL HANGER-ON

(Special to The Post.) New York, Aug. 10 .- Wm. J. Gaynor, mayor of New York City, was shot in the head and seriously wounded resterday as he stood on the promenade deck of the steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, by James J. Gallagher, a discharged and disgruntled city employe. Gallagher was almost instantly overpowered and arrested.

The shot was fired at 9.45 o'clock vesterday morning, fifteen minutes before the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse was due to leave her pier at Hoboken. NJ., and the mayor was receiving God-speed from a group of friends preparatory to a vacation trip to Eumpe. The bullet struck him behind the right ear and ranged downward, this morning, at 10 o'clock, inflicting a dangerous, though not neressarily fatal wound. Unless blood mison develops, surgeons are hopeful of the mayor's recovery, although at his age, 59 years, such a wound is essentially grave.

The mayor is at St. Mary's Hosnital, Hoboken, surrounded by specialists, with members of his family gathgred near. All early reports from the hospital were hopeful in tune, and ast night six X-ray negatives of the wound were taken, to facilitate an operation for the removal of the bul-

The big liner was gay with flags and ringing with shouted "good-byes" when the tragedy occurred. Most of those who had been aboard the ship to say farewell to friends and relatives had gone ashore, but a little group remained to talk with the may-They were standing on the port side of the vessel, near the promenade deck and were posing for a group photograph when Gallagher, unnoticed, pushed his way almost to the mayor's side and fired point blank at

He used a 38-calibre revolver, and an examination later disclosed that the first cartridge had missed fire. This probably saved the mayor's life, or Gallagher was less than two feet sway when he first pulled the trigger. Backing away slightly in his excitement, he pulled the trigger a second time, and sent a bullet crashing into the mayor's neck, below the ear.

William H. (big Bill) Edwards, summissioner of street cleaning, and the former Princeton football star, lunged forward with his 300 pounds, just as Robert Adamson, the mayor's secretary, struck Gallagher's arm. As he did so a second shot pierced Edward's sleeve, inflicting a slight flesh wound on the commissioner's right arm, which remained undiscovered for hours because of the excitement. Unmindful of his wound, Edwards hit he man a crushing blow in the face, and they crashed to the deck together. Gallagher, struggling with the 1 the worse for their ducking. strength of desperation and pulling vicously at the trigger in an attempt to fire another shot.

Edwards was too much for him. He mined blow after blow in Gallagher's now bleeding face, while Adamson and Archibald R. Watson, corporation counsel for the city, flung themselves on the struggling two in an attempt to grasp the weapon. When Mr. Watson had obtained possession of it, Edrands and Gallagher continued a biter struggle about the deck, Edwards Now crying and shouting in his anger and excitement, and Gallagher panting, but fighting hard. When completely subdued by the former football star, a pair of steel nippers were sliped on his wrists by a special officer aboard the ship, and he was rushed arough a hooting and threatening crowd off the vessel, into an automoand arraigned before Recorder acGovern of Hoboken.

Gallagher, judging by appearances and actions, is not a lunatic, but he as nourished in his heart a hatred Mayor Gaynor ever since he was scharged as a night watchman in de department of docks and ferries In July last for incompetency. Since hen he has repeatedly written the mayor, harping on an obsession that te had been persecuted, and demandleg redress. He has even written to governor, so it became known ast night, and he went on board the Alser Wilhelm der Grosse yesterday the expressed purpose of mursering the man whom he charged with ring robbed him of his bread and

What might have been a most serious accident occurred Monday Buckhorn. The boys evidently had been brought up on the water, as they both mounted their waterlogged craft and paddled ashore, apparently none

Homicide's Wife

Brockville, Aug. 10 .- An almost direct result of the murder of Nathan Bolton by his cousin Albert Holmes near Cardinal on April 21 last was the death of the wife of the homicide, which occurred in the hospital here after a lengthy illness. Mrs. Holmes was in poor health at the time of the tragedy, which so completely unnerved her as to hurry on the end.

The news of her demise was conveyed to the husband in his cell by his only daughter and the scene was a most affecting one. Holmes, who is a physical wreck, and broods constantly over his crime, could hardly bear up under the strain.

FENELON FALLS HOLIDAY SPORTS BEST EVER HELD IN VILLAGE

The annual Civic Holiday celebration was this year in the hands of the Curlers, who made a "clean sweep" of all previous records in this line. They spared neither pains nor expense to make it the best ever, and were amply rewarded for the efforts put 'forth to provide a whole day of good clean His Judgment out door sport by seeing assembled, the largest, best natured and best the largest, best natured and best looking crowd ever witnessed on a similar occasion. The greasy pole stunt always is loads of fun, and this time lasted longer than usual, the repeated attempts of the boys to get the flag being unsuccessful until at last the trophy was carried off by Fraser Mann I amid loud cheers by the crowd.

The Lindsay band arrived per Str. Manita and rendered many choice selections while the sports were in progress. The Highland Pipers in full Highland costume played at intervals also, and the weird strains of the bagpipes contributed pleasing variety to the programme. At noon the crowd dispersed for dinner or lunch all the hotels and restaurants being taxed to their utmost capacity to provide accommodation for the large number of guests.

At 1.30 p.m., a procession was formed at the head of Colborne-st., an marched to the agricultural park, where the remainder of the were held. This procession, which was unique, was headed by the kilties playing one of their most inspiring tunes, followed by the members o the Fenelon Falls Curling Club, forty two strong, armed with brooms and carrying a banner inscribed "If you
