DECORATION DAY AT THE FALLS

Fenelon Falls, August 2.—On Sunday morning, July 30, the members of Trent Valley Lodge of the Canadian Order of Oddfellows, met at their lodge room and proceeded in a body to St. James' Church, where they attended Divine service.

The Decoration services of the C. O. O. F. were held on Sunday afternoon at the cemetery. A large number of the brethren and their friends assembled to do honors to the memory of their departed brethren.

WEDDING BELLS

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Patrick's R. C. Church, Kinmount, on July 26th, at 9 a.m. of Miss Bridget Bryne, daughter of Mrs. Michael Bryne and Mr. Thos. Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Watson.

After the wedding dinner at the bride's mother, the happy couple drove to the G.T.R. depot, and left on the 4.20 train for Toronto and Longford Mills, where they will reside.

The young couple received many costly and numerous presents. Their many friends join in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.

HICKINGBOTTAM—ELLIOTT.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hickinglottam, 20 Bond-st., was the scene of a very pretty wedding this afternoon, when their daughter, Miss Maude, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. W. H. Elliott, of Madoc, engineer on the G.T.R.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the happy couple sat down to a sumptuous wedding repast, together with the assembled friends. The bride, who is a most popular young lady, was the recipient of many beautiful presents from her many friends.

Among the out of town guests present at the wedding were Mrs. Seth Jewell and daughter Essie, of New Liskeard; Mrs. C. Clarke, of Toronto Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stone, of Port Perry, Misses Edith and Ethel Elliott of Madoc; Mr. W. B. Hoyle, M.P.P., Mrs. Hoyle and daughter, Mabel of Cannington; Mr. and Mrs. J. Jewell, Mrs. F. Jewell and Miss Nevada Johnston, Cannington.
