Meeting of Farmers' Bank

A meeting of those depositors of the d.funct Farmers' Bank residing at Lindsay and in the surrounding country points like Dunsford, Kinmount, Nestleton, Janetville, Bethany and Pontypool, was held at the Town Hali, Lindsay, to-day.

Many harrowing tales were told of losses suffered by depositors in connection with the unfortunate failure. In one case an aged couple had sale of their stock and farm and had deposited the entire proceeds in the Farmers' Bank shortly before its failure. This unfortunate couple now find themselves practically penniless in their old age, their entire savings having been wiped out,

Mr. John C. Ashmore, of Emily CIVIC HOLIDAY Township, a large depositor, occupied the chair, and addresses were made by him, Messrs. I. E. Weldon, Lindsay, Robt. J. Mitchell, of Verulam,
