the train inevitable. The indentations on the spike and the rail, caused by the flange of the wheel, indicated that such was the case. Some of those who were in a position to know, were not prone to believe in the diabolical act of maliciously placing the spike on the track, so as to cause derailment, but are rather inclined to think that it was the work of juveniles who committed the act unthinkingly. It was also noted that there was no spike displaced along the track at the spot where the spike was discovered.

SOLEMN CEREMONY AT MT. ST. JOSEPH

Peterboro Examiner: Mount St. Joseph was the scene of a very inspiring ceremony Saturday morning, when a number of young ladies were received into the church. The surroundings of the convent were in perfect harmony with the solemn and impressive ceremony taking place inside, long avenues shaded by overhanging trees, with velvet sward, down to the road.

The Chapel was filled with the congregation, who had come to honor those who were giving themselves up to the life of the convent. Some had come from other towns in Ontario, while others were Peterboro people. The ceremony of reception and profession of the new Sisters began at 8.30, and was concluded at about half-past ten. Rev. Bishop O'Connor officiated at the solemn ceremony and was assisted by the local clergy and other visiting guests: Father O'Sullivan of Victoria, Father Guiry of Lindsay, Father Walsh of Montreal, Father Kelly of Norwood and Father Phelan of Lakefield.

Eleven young ladies received the holy habit to enter on their period of novitiate; Miss Mary Doyle, Quebec, who will, in future, be known as Sister Margaret; Katherine Coleman, Webbwood, to be known as Sister Colette; Mary Burns, Webbwood, Sister Bertha; Bertha Hickey, New-castle, N. B., Sister Dolores; Agnes Sloan, Binton, Que., Sister Ermelinda; Clara Breen, Douglas, Ont., Sister Anita; Annie Dohl, Ottawa, Sister Othelia; Lyda Beman, Quebec, Sister Louise; Teresa Sullivan, Sault Ste Marie, Mich., Sister Corona; Alice Smith, Baysville, Sister Mary Alice and Katherine Kennedy, Newfoundland, Sister Aloisia.

Seventeen other young ladies made their vows of poverty, chastity and obedience, and will, in future, be known as Sisters Augusta, Camilla, Jane Francis, Cassimer, Alexis, Mary Immaculate, Felicitas, Loretto, Clement, Margaret, Agnes, Patronella, Lucretia, Margaret, Agnes, Callista, Anerita and Ernestine.

Bishop O'Connor congratulated the young ladies on surrendering themselves to the church by taking the vow of poverty, chastity, and obedience. By helping the poor, aiding the sick, and teaching the ignorant they are serving Christ Himself. The parents and relatives are to be congratulated for sending their daughters to join a religious community, who will there devote themselves to the spiritual welfare of the community.

The custom of retiring apart from the world is of very ancient origin. Beginning in the East, it spread over Europe in the middle ages, in the times when might was generally right, necessitating a shelter against violence. The work, which the good men and women did, in providing for the sick and needy, in preserving literature, and in starting the regeneration of Europe, is almost incalculable.

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are not a new and untried remedy—our grandfathers used them. Half a century ago, before Confederation, they were on sale in nearly every drug or general store in the Canada of that day, and were the recognized cure in thousands of homes for Constipation, Indigestion, Biliousness, Rheumatism and Kidney and Liver Troubles. Today they are just as effective, just as reliable as ever, and nothing better has yet been devised to

The services at the house and at the grave were conducted by Rev. Mr. Kingstone, curate of St. Paul's church.

On Thursday of the past week, as was his custom, since the heated term came on, he took his usual seat on the lawn, after partaking of a hearty evening meal. He had been seated but a few moments when the faithful wife came out to join him, but that pleasure was never again to be hers on the shores of time, for

REV. H. B. CAREY Minden Echo: A telegraphic message on Monday announced the death of Rev. H. B. Carey, formerly a missionary of the Anglican church at Minden, and where there are many who learn with sorrow of his demise, remembering his faithfulness as a worker for the Master. Their prayers and sympathy go out to his sorrowing widow, whose home was in our midst. Five years ago deceased was appointed to the Washago Mission, and a year later led to the altar Miss Lillian Peck, daughter of Mrs. F. Peck of town. For several years the deceased had been a sufferer from chronic indigestion, but last fall was taken seriously ill. Since then he has been unable to attend to his pastoral work, and after seeking relief for some time in the hospital at Orillia, came to his home at Washago, where death took place. His wife's people are the only relatives he had in this part of the country and interment took place in the family plot at Albury, Prince Edward County. Mr. Percy Peck and his mother left Tuesday morning to attend the funeral.

HANNAH SWAIN The funeral of the late Hannah Swain took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of her sister Mrs. M. Weldon, 70 Russell-st., to Valentic cemetery, and was largely attended by sorrowing friends. Impressive services were conducted at the house by Rev. Dr. Shorey, of the Cambridge-st. Methodist church. The pall bearers were Norman Bruce and Harold Staples, Lindsay, Arthur Swain, Jack Swain, Jack Bruce and Stanley Bruce, of Valentic.

AGNES HALLIDAY Oakwood, Aug. 15—The hand of death has again visited our village, this time removing from our midst Agnes, Halliday, relict of the late James Halliday, who quietly passed away on Saturday evening, August 10, at 9.30 o'clock, aged 84 years. Mrs. Halliday, whose maiden name was Agnes Somerville, was born in Scotland and came to this country while an infant with her parents. She was a great sufferer, being confined to her bed with a broken thigh for nearly five years, and leaves to mourn her loss one daughter, Mrs. Robert Nichols, who cared for her mother during all her suffering with a daughter's love and devotion. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon, service being conducted at the house by the Rev. J. O. Watts, after which the remains were laid to rest beside those of her husband in the Christian cemetery, Little Britain, Mr. W. F. Webster having charge of the funeral arrangements.

THOMAS W. BIRCHARD The following from the Kellogg, Iowa, Enterprise, refers to a brother of the late Clark Birchard, of Linden Valley: Thomas W. Birchard was born September 21, 1837, in York county, Canada. Was married at Peterboro, Canada west, to Jane Pedlar on Jan. 1, 1859.

Shortly after their marriage they came to the United States, locating in Jefferson county, Kansas. Their stay there was brief, for they soon came to Jasper county, Iowa, which county has been the home of the deceased for fifty years. He has been a resident of Kellogg for 36 years. Seven children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Birchard, all of whom are living except Glin, the youngest who died in infancy.

Three sons and three daughters are today sustaining the irreparable loss of a devoted, sympathizing father, their mother having preceded him to the Eternal City on September 17, 1881. The children, Electa S., Sarah A., Della V., Rufus C., Samuel G., and Thomas L., are all married and with their families are located in Kellogg and vicinity, with the exception of Electa and Thomas, whose homes are in Pawnee, Oklahoma.

Mr. Birchard united with the M. E. church of Kellogg, something near a third of a century ago, and has ever remained true to the faith. Was never absent unless the condition of his health rendered it necessary. Mr. Birchard was married to Mrs. Katherine Osborn, October 5, 1895, who has been a most faithful companion.

While the health of Mr. Birchard has been the cause of great anxiety to his family, it was not thought that the end was so near. On Thursday of the past week, as was his custom, since the heated term came on, he took his usual seat on the lawn, after partaking of a hearty evening meal. He had been seated but a few moments when the faithful wife came out to join him, but that pleasure was never again to be hers on the shores of time, for

SCOTT ACT WILL BE SUBMITTED

The Orillia News-Letter is informed on good authority that steps are now in motion by petition and other forms as prescribed by the statute, to submit the Canada Temperance Act (commonly called the Scott Act) to the electors of the North Riding of the County of Ontario. It is said that the submission cannot fail to be approved by an overwhelming majority of the electorate. At first blush this may not seem a very important step to take, but when it is remembered that two or three municipalities have refused to take advantage of the Local Option Act (Provincial) on the ground that the area covered is too small, it will be seen at once that the passage of the Scott Act will be of far reaching importance throughout North Ontario. Further particulars will be given later but we are able to say on going to press that this has been decided upon in influential quarters, and that this is the first formal announcement of the intention.

MAN WASHURLED THROUGH WINDOW IN C. P. R. WRECK NEAR BETHANY

T. Brown, mail clerk on the Pacific passenger train, was wrecked at Bethany Junction, lying propped in a cot in the baggage car, when the Western Hospital, gave an account of his experience to the Ontario News Saturday. Brown was sorting mail when the train, and was holding a register in his hand at the time. "The car gave a sudden jump" he said, "and I went flying. I was hurled from one end of the car to the other. Then there was a halt and I struck something as I lost consciousness." This is the second wreck which he has experienced, the other occurring at Sand Bank a year ago. It was not as dangerous as this, he thought. The train ploughed 300 feet yesterday. Mr. Brown's injuries consist of a strained back and badly bruised limbs. The Peterboro Examiner in referring to the wreck says: WAS IT MALICIOUSLY PLACED? A sectionman in remarking upon the spike which was alleged to have been the cause of the derailment, told of having found, a few weeks ago, a number of fish plates and nuts on top of the rail a short distance from the scene of yesterday's wreck. The officials also noted the fact that the spike had rested on the outside rail of a sharp curve, at such an angle as to render the derailment of
