Visited the North

Major Bennett, of Kingston, and Capt. F. Holmes Hopkins inspected the stores and accoutrements of the 45th regiment at Norland and Head Lake Tuesday. Everything appears to be in good shape in the northern companies. Major Bennett has still to inspect Tory Hill which will be done as soon as he has had repairs to his car which broke a front spring in a bad pitch-hole. The trips of inspection are all made in one of the Ford cars purchased by Col. Hon. Sam Hughes for the Militia Department.

Boy Got Five Years

A boy in Quebec has been sent to the reformatory for five years for sounding false alarms. Bad as the crime is, the punishment is a good deal worse. It scarcely "fits the crime." A few months or even weeks would probably have brought the boy to his senses. To give him five years is rather too good a thing. Why not life imprisonment and be done with it?—Kingston Whig.
