Lindsay dam a body of farmers went down and out the dam and let the logs go down, and on two different occasions the bracket boards were thrown in the river since then. Some seven years ago the Rev. of Ops. Mr. McLaughlin, and Senator McHugh were sent to Ottawa with a petition signed by 180 farmers, praying that these boards be removed. In fact, Mr. Editor, high water has been a source of constant warfare between the farmers south of Lindsay, and the mill companies at Lindsay, but it seems the motto is "Tuck it on the farmer—he can bear it."

Now, sir, I will wager I can get ten cilia within one mile of me that were injured by the high water of last spring. The raising of the Scougog river means raising the tributary creeks. How many of our farmers have spent their time, money and toil in trying to make a success of their business when high water has rendered it all ineffectual and then we have to grin and bear it until Providence dried our land, although we have spent hundreds of dollars, and some even thousands of dollars for this purpose. I desire to say to the farmers to be alive to their interests in this matter. It means a great deal to us for we have a very short season to grow our crop. To be held back one week in the spring means a big drawback to the grain in the harvest.

Now, Mr. Editor, the farmers never got fair play in this matter. Your report said only seven were affected. I can safely say hundreds of farmers have been injured by the flooding of their lands from the Scougog or its tributaries—a great number seriously. I trust you will excuse me for trespassing on your space, but I feel I have not been strong enough in this matter. Yours etc.,

P. J. CLANCY

(To the Editor of The Post)

Dear Sir—Allow me a space in your valuable paper to let the people know how I am interested in the raising of the water in the Scougog. Now, sir, this is the time for the farmers to speak, for I think there are a lot of farmers suffering from high water and it is too bad to have a man's property covered with water after chopping and logging it, for I think that it is the farmers that are the backbone of the fair town of Lindsay, and not the few pleasure seekers. I think it is unfair for any man or body of men to build a dam or try to raise the water to injure the farmers of Ops. Yours truly,

It is sufficient for some people that they drink anything called tea. Others prefer a standard brand like "Salsida," which has a reputation for being good. The latter get more enjoyment out of life. In buying tea for the satisfaction you expect to get from it, it will pay you to purchase "Salsida." Avoid anything "just as good." Imitations are invariably of poor quality.—67.

Obituary

DR. C. H. BRERETON

Many of our readers will regret to learn of the death of Dr. C. H. Brereton, who practiced medicine for many years at Bethany. He represented East Durham for several years in the Ontario legislature as a supporter of Sir Wm. Meredith in the early eighties until 1887. He was a man of strong convictions and decided action, and had many friends in Mansvers.

The annual excursion from Midland to Fort Hope, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Midland Methodist church will take place on Saturday, Sept. 26. The excursion will be by the regular morning train returning up to the event of Saturday Sept. 28. Tickets issued from Cambridge and Lindsay, which are good returning on the 26th only. FENELON COUNCIL

Fenelon Township Council met at Cameron, all the members being present. The minutes of last regular meeting were read and approved.

A letter was received from James Thurston, asking council to cause the fence put up by Jas. Daniel across the road between concessions 5 and 6, to be removed.

A petition signed by F. J. Goodman, and several others, was presented by Mr. Goodman asking council not to pass the by-law leasing J. G. Parkin a part of con. 8 road for mining purposes.

Application for collector rates was received from T. H. Smitheram. The different amounts to be levied on the township for school purposes were

RAISING SCUGOG WATER

(To the Editor of The Post)

Dear Sir—Your evening issue of August 31st contained a report of the call made on Hon. Geo. P. Graham at Fenelon Falls by a delegation from Port Perry when the tide of their grievances. Of course, Lindsay leaped them some. The statement was made to the minister that only seven persons were injured or protested against the raising of the water. Now, Mr. Editor, the people of this district have been misrepresented by the false statements that have been made for nearly half a century. Only seven persons!

KINMOUNT.

(Special to The Post.)

Mrs. Kelly and Miss Mary Kelly returned to their home in Lindsay Tuesday morning after a pleasant visit with relatives in the village and vicinity.

Miss Bond, of Buffalo, N. Y., is visiting Mrs. A. Wetters.

Miss M. Cameron, of Toronto, who has been the guest of Mrs. E. A. White at Mimer's Bay, returned to Fenelon on Saturday last.

Mr. and Mrs. McEachern and family are spending a few days at the exhibition this week.

Mr. Will Mansfield, of Brantford, is visiting at his home here.

Miss Edythe Wellwood, is visiting Mrs. E. Mackenzie of Beaverton.

Everybody is preparing for the Kinmount fair on Thursday and Friday, the 10th and 11th of September.

POWLES' CORNERS.

(Special to The Post.)

The whole neighborhood sympathized with Mr. Greenwood over his unfortunate accident. Some time ago Mr. Greenwood got a sliver in his finger. He tried to remove it with a pin, but of no avail were all his efforts. The finger and hand became swollen and inflamed and Mr. Greenwood had to consult a physician. The latter diagnosed the case and declared that blood poisoning had set in. Mr. Greenwood is slowly recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Littleton, of Fenelon Falls, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James Powles, at Maple Avenue.

Mr. Walter Day is spending a week holidays at his home here before returning to the G.A.C.

Miss Owens and Miss Anderson were in the neighborhood on Sunday.

Mr. Bert Sims left Saturday for Owen Sound.

Gladness over not being able to attend the Labor Day celebration in Lindsay, some of our fair maidens determined to have a celebration of their own. They secured a couple of horses and decided to hold a parade. Cushions, pillows, and bags provided suitable saddles. However one horse showed a tendency to go into gateways, and "Oh! Horrors!" one of the riders was precipitated in a heap on terra firma. Returning home the obstinate horse was led by a nice little binder cord, and we are glad to relate, no other accident happened.

Mr. J. E. Powles and daughter Hazel have left to attend Toronto exhibition.

Congratulations to Mrs. E. Johnston, who was successful in winning one of Terril Bros' free trips to Toronto exhibition.

The new school flag floated on Labor Day for the first time.

Opportune Showing of New Fall Dress Materials

The heavy requisition for these goods warrants the immense range and apparently endless variety of dress fabrics that we are noted for showing. Years of experience and value selecting has brought this particular section of our business up to a very high standard of excellence. The ever popular price materials are always here in abundance and your selections cannot be made equally as well in any other retail store. Buying right in the old land markets—right where the materials are made—bring them right to our store by our own shippers, makes it possible to sell them at a lower margin of profit than most stores can afford to consider. Pay our dress goods section a visit and become well versed in styles, colorings and values in particular.

Nettleton Guilty Benton Acquitted

Magistrate Unfavorably Impressed with Nettleton—Remands Him for Sentence

(Special to The Post.)

Fenelon Falls, Sept. 9.—Yesterday afternoon the adjourned trial took place of the two Detroit youths, Nettleton and Benton, who were charged with stabbing a couple of Fenelon Falls boys. The hearing was before Mr. E. A. Moore, K. C., county magistrate, and was quite exhaustive.

The prisoners who had been confined in Lindsay jail were brought up to the Falls and were defended by Mr. F. A. McDermid of Lindsay. Mr. A. P. Devlin, of Lindsay appeared for the prosecution.

The trial took place in Twomey's hall and the place was crowded to the doors with a most eager and interested crowd of spectators.

The evidence both for and against the accused was taken and, beginning about two o'clock, took up so much time, that at a quarter to six an adjournment was made till 7.30, from which time it continued until about 9.30.

From the evidence adduced it was found that Benton was not guilty and he was discharged. Nettleton, however, was convicted, and was remanded for sentence. The insolent bearing of Nettleton in giving his evidence created a very unfavorable impression upon the magistrate.

He was locked up here in the local lock-up over night awaiting sentence.
