The 45th Regiment Coming Into Shape

Will Probably Return Friday Morning Rev. Mr. Wallace Preached on Sunday

(From Our War Correspondent) Barriefield Sept. 4.—The fourth day at Barriefield camp is past and the drill for the day is finished. The weather to-day was fine and cool and a good stiff drill was indulged in. The 45th is steadily rounding up to shape and expressions of praise are heard on all sides. The regiment is nearly as large as the rest of the regiments put together. As they march up the parade grounds they seem to work like clock work, so steadily do they march.

Boy Proof Clothes

Are your boys too strenuous for their clothes? Instead of blaming the youngsters why not get clothes that will stand the abuse. Progress Brand "boy-proof" clothes will hold them all right, and will make an able-bodied live boy "go some" to wear them out in a season. Bring the boys in and let us fit them to a suit that will keep them well dressed for some time to come.

Boys' Two and Three-piece Suits in the new Fall and Winter patterns from $2.50 to 8.00. Boys' Job School Suits—this is a consolidated lot, in all there are 63 suits. Former prices $3.50 to 6.00. Your pick for 1.50.

Military Camp at Barriefield

Life on the Tented Field by our Citizens

Barriefield, Sept. 2.—Drill is in full progress at the camp to-day and everything points to a busy two weeks. Last night a heavy shower passed over the city, and when the soldiers awoke in the morning it was rather wet. But this is all in a soldier's life, and those who had to jump into wet clothes took it good naturedly.

camp last evening, and is on duty to-day. What the cooks don't give the men can be easily purchased near at hand. All day long young lads from the city pass from one tent to another with all kinds of pies for sale. These, however, cost money, and the coin soon runs out.

There is also in the camp a city newspaper office where all the leading papers can be purchased, including the Post, Globe, Whig, etc.

The boys are becoming used to camp life and everything is running in full swing.

Arrested in Bed for Horse Stealing

Man Stole Horse in Mount Albert and was Arrested at Woburn

Co. Constable Hebson made a clever capture of an alleged horse thief at two o'clock Tuesday morning. Mr. Barrett Everyman of Mount Albert, let a horse and rig out to a stranger who had been doing some sign painting in that village to drive out a couple of miles to see a job. This was at half past three o'clock on Monday afternoon. The stranger, who gave his name as Charles Tabor, not returning by seven o'clock Barrett got anxious and hitched up a rig and drove out to the place Tabor said he was going. Finding he had not been there Barrett made enquiries and traced him as far south as Ringwood, from thence to Markham, reaching here about 11 o'clock. Here Barrett hunted up Constable Hebson, and on making enquiries they found a stranger and a horse and rig answering to the description had put up at the Tremont House for an hour at nine o'clock in the evening, and leaving here had driven south. Barnett and Hebson followed down the Markham road and traced their man to Kennedy's hotel, and found Tabor asleep in bed and the horse and rig in the barn. Hebson arrested his man and brought him to Markham, taking him by train to Mount Albert Tuesday morning, where he was brought before Magistrate Moore, who after hearing Barnett's evidence committed him for trial. Hebson took him to Toronto the same night by the C.N.R. Tabor, who pleaded not guilty claims to be an Englishman and to have served in the South African war. He is a strapping young fellow of about 28 years of age.—Markham Economist.

Our Great Fair Will be a Success

Indications Point to One of the Grandest Shows Ever Held

Indications point to the fact that Lindsay's Central Fair this year will be the best ever. This prediction ought to be realized. Every year's fair ought to be bigger than the one preceding. The climax of the ascending series ought to always be far ahead. The great agricultural shows are constantly growing in their importance to the country, and Lindsay Fair is classed among the greatest. The agricultural shows are developing the brains that bring about the great changes in the method of farming and in this way Lindsay Fair is valuable as an educational asset—just as valuable as a university.

New Management At the Lyceum

The Theatrum to be Remodelled and Considerably Improved

Mr. Geo. Brady took formal possession of the Lyceum theatrum on Monday and it is his intention to have the play house thoroughly renovated and brightened. On Monday a splendid view of the start of Labor Day's marathon was James Browne Peterboro's favorite tenor and his singing proved a treat to those who were fortunate enough to hear it. It is understood the management will secure his services. Last night a splendid view of the start of yesterday's marathon was thrown on the canvas and remarkably clear and distinct. Mr. Brady has secured Mr. Percy Mulhern, as soloist. Percy has been making a hit in Peterboro and Orillia.

THE BIBLE STUDY CLUB...

The Post has arranged to conduct a branch of the International Newspaper Study Club. The questions will appear in this department every week, and all are invited to write out their answers and send them in to this office. Any information regarding the contest will also be gladly given at any time by those who ask for it. It costs nothing to join and the prizes are well worth the winning.

Persons may join the club at any time during the year, but must, of course answer the 52 questions to qualify for the prizes. It is, however, desirable that the questions be answered as the lessons are studied.

This club is for the purpose of promoting in an unfeigned way, among the masses, a wider study of the Bible and the abal truths of Christianity. It is composed of all those who join a local club, and take up this month's course herein outlined, barring only ordained clergymen. We have the systematic operation of the latter, but it is not considered fair to have them compete for the prizes. Sunday school teachers, Bible class scholars, and church goers generally, belonging to this Newspaper Club, also non-church goers of all shades of opinion. All such who have not joined are warmly invited to do so, and to compete for the prizes.

CONDITIONS OF THE CONTEST. 1. Each contestant, or his or her family must be a subscriber to this paper during the continuance of the contest in order to qualify for membership in this Local Club.

2. Each contestant in this Local Club must answer each of the written questions for 52 consecutive weeks, commencing Saturday, Aug. 22, 1908, and the answers must all be in the possession of this paper by August 30, 1909, which allows two weeks grace after the close of the contest.

3. Each question must be answered separately, and the paper written on one side, only. No answer must exceed 200 words in length and may be less. It will be a convenience if students will write their answer on letter paper, size about 8 1-2 inches by 14 inches.

4. Each answer must have the name and address of the writer at the bottom of each answer so it can be identified, giving a number, registered, and then the name cut off so the examiner can know it by the number only.

5. Students should be careful to understand the question before answering. To do this the lesson text must be read and especially the verse or verses upon which the question is based.

6. The question from the Local Club must be delivered to this office and they will be collated at the end of the contest and forwarded to the head quarters of the International Newspaper Bible Study Club for independent examination by competent examiners. The prizes will then be awarded according to the highest number of marks, and those won by members of this local club will be given out from this office.

THE PRIZES. First series—A gold medal to each of the first five contestants. Second series—A silver medal to each of the next five contestants. Third series—A teacher's Bible, price $5.50, to each of the next five contestants.

Fourth series—The book, "The Heart of Christianity," price $1.50 to each of the next thirty-five contestants. Fifth series—A developed mind, an expanded imagination, a richer experience and a profounder knowledge of the Bible, and of life, to all who take this course, whether winning a prize or not.

Each medal will be suitably engraved, giving the name of the winner, and for what it is awarded and in like manner each bible and book will be inscribed. All who can write and have ideas are urged to take up these studies regardless of the degree of their education, as the papers are not valued from an educational or literary standpoint, but from the point of view of the cogency of their reasoned ideas.

Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson by Rev. Dr. Linscott for the International Newspaper Bible Study Club

SEPTEMBER 13, 1908. David made king over Judah and Israel. II Sam. 2: 1-7; 5: 1-5. Golden Text—David went on and grew great, and the Lord God of Hosts was with him. II Sam. v 5: 1-5.

Verse 1—Did David expect a definite and clear-cut answer from the Lord in response to his enquiry? What method did God probably take to answer David's two matters of 'set questions'?

Is it reasonable, or is it fanatical, to expect God to definitely answer similar matter-of-fact questions to-day? If our first answer from God is not clear and full, ought we to keep on asking until we are satisfied? See I Sam. (ii) 24, xiv 37, xxiii 2, v; 9-12.

Verse 2—Was God pleased or displeased with David for having so many wives? What is the evidence from the bible that God has planned for one man to be the husband only of one wife? Is polygamy always wrong, and monogamy always right, under all and all circumstances, and why?

Verse 3-4—How long before this did David know that he was going to be king? I. Sam. xvi: 1-13. Does God ever give a personal promise in these days, and will He ever fail in its fulfillment? Verses 5-7—What can you say in commendation of the spirit shown by David in this event?
