Correspondents' Newsy Letters

She alighted from the buggy safely and was walking easily along when she suddenly fell heavily to the ground, dislocating her hip joint and breaking one of the thigh bones. Mrs. Martin and a farmer who fortunately happened to be passing at the time assisted her into the buggy and drove at once to the Falls where Dr. Gould was at once in attendance.

Everything possible was done for the comfort of the sufferer who is considering her advanced age, progressing as well as could be expected.

A serious runaway took place on Friday evening last when Clarence Falls, youngest son of Mr. Joseph Falls was thrown from a rig and had his thigh broken. Much sympathy is expressed for his parents, as their eldest son, Garfield, had just recovered from having his leg broken and had left for his position just a week Master Roy Kaymer was with him, fortunately escaped without any injury.

Mr. David Hatt's horse ran away while coming from the station with the bus on Saturday morning. On coming into the village it collided with a heavy wagon load of coal belonging to Mr. George Hicks, smashing the wheel of the wagon to pieces. It got free from the bus and ran down street, into Dr. Dale's stable, where it was caught. Mr. G. B. Renne, the only occupant of the bus besides Mr. Hatt, luckily escaped injury.

Mr. J. L. Arnold's delivery horse ran away on Tuesday forenoon when John Cook, the boy who drives him was in Mr. Jared's house delivering groceries. It seems the animal started to walk, when some boys noticing that the driver was not in the rig began to shout, probably intending to attract his attention. This had the effect of frightening the animal, so that he broke into a mad gallop, careering along Francis street, where he turned at the corner of May street, upsetting the rig and spilling the contents, consisting of crockery, vegetables and groceries into the street. The seat of the wagon was knocked off and the dashboard damaged considerably. A little further on the whiffletree broke, and leaving the rig behind the horse ran to the next corner, when he finally came to his senses and stopped of his own free will and accord.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Sharpe and Miss Vera Sharpe left last week for Detroit, where they intend to spend a week visiting friends in that city and also in Toronto.

Mrs. Cragg is visiting her son, Rev. J. M. Cragg, at the parsonage.

Miss May Smith left last week to visit friends at Clabo, Washburn's Island, and other places.

Mr. Walfrid Jewell spent a few days this week in Toronto.

Mrs. Emily McDougall and Miss Irene returned on Monday from a visit to Toronto.

Mrs. Atcheson of Highland Grove, spent Friday last in town with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Martin, and her mother, Mrs. Ann McDonald, who sustained serious injury by a fall on Tuesday of last week.

Miss Lillian Terrill returned last week from the Watchman Warder trip to Quebec.

Miss Sabina Martin returned on Saturday from the Post's trip to Quebec. Both young ladies report a most enjoyable time.

Eyesight - S. L. Taube, (senior member) of Taube & Son, will be at Mansion House, Fenelon Falls, Monday, Sept. 14th, and will be glad to have all who are troubled with defective vision call and consult him.

Taube & Son have been established since 1871, during which time over 100,000 cases have been successfully fitted by them.

If your eyes bother you in any way, or the glasses you are now wearing are not satisfactory, do not neglect this opportunity of consulting Canada's foremost eye specialist. -w1

UPHILL

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Wallis have returned to their home in Caledonia after spending a pleasant holiday at their cottage "Waburn" on Head Lake.

Miss Sadie McCaughey has returned to her school duties at Peawanin.

Miss N. Thrasher has gone to Severn Bridge to visit among friends for a short time.

J. A. McRay and Master Norman are paying a visit to Midland and Longford friends.

Miss Gertrude McRae has returned home after spending six weeks' pleasant holidays with Midland and Longford friends.

Mr. Hugh Wylie is selling off his stock as he is giving up farming for the present.

Rev. Mr. McRae of Beaverton, occupied the pulpit in St. Andrew's the past two Sabbaths. We hope he may soon visit us again.

Miss Stewart and aunt of Toronto are guests of Mr. S. Stewart, of Highland ranch.

Cutting beaver hay is the order of the day in this section now. Farmers are through harvesting and waiting for the threshing machine.

Mr. D. McRae has gone to Toronto to attend the exhibition.

Messrs. W. C. Pedlar and Geo. Sitter are still prospering on the rocks. They report a lot of heavy work.

Harvesting was all finished some time ago and most of the grain has been garnered in fine condition. Some of the early cut grain was caught in the heavy rains of the beginning of August, but since that the weather has been ideal harvest weather. It is very dry at present.

Threshing is now in order and the yield of grain generally is reported as good.

I am pleased to see that Miss G. Graham, of Victoria Road, is amongst the lucky number in The Post's Free Trip, also that Miss Day of the same place and Miss Brown of Glenora are among the elect in the Watchman-Warder free trip and wish them ever so much enjoyment.

Mr. and Mrs. James McCaughey spent a few days, a week ago, with Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, of the Campbell house, Kirkfield, and accompanied by Mr. Campbell visited Lindsay.

Miss S. McCaughey who was home for the summer vacation, has returned to Powassan to resume her duties as teacher.

Miss McRae is home again after an extended visit to friends at Maitland and Longford mills.

Mrs. Staback, of Campbellford, is visiting at Mr. J. A. McRae's.

Miss Bell Wylie is spending a few weeks with her aunt at Longford Mills.

The Presbyterian pulpit here was ably occupied last Sabbath by Rev. McRae, of Beaverton.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Wallis, of Caledonia, has returned home after a very enjoyable month's holiday on the beautiful shores of Head Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams, of Beaverton are visiting at Mr. James Sutter's, of this place.

Mrs. Harriet and Mrs. Gilmour are sisters.

Mr. Neil Foley, of the boundary settlement, who has been away in the lumber camp for the last two years, is home on a visit.

Mr. John Muir, of this place, is off to the Northwest to view the land of promise. Several young men from this section of North Victoria have gone on the harvesting excursions this year, to help to harvest the grain in the first place, and secondly to see the much talked of country for themselves.

Some of our people took in the Kirkfield Civic holiday sports.

To cure sleeplessness take a cupful of hot Indian meal gruel just before retiring. Sip it slowly!
