

Visit Lindsay's Great Central Fair Next Week, September 22nd, 23rd and 24th

Jottings From Fenelon Falls

Sunday, Sept. 25th, will be annual rally day of St. Andrew's Sunday School. An exciting runaway took place on Colborne-st. on Monday afternoon, shortly before six o'clock. A horse belonging to Mr. Stroud, who lives near Powles Corners, apparently took fright at something and bolted down the street, throwing the occupant out, and crossed both bridges at a mad gallop, smashing the buggy in his career. He continued this pace until he reached home. Mr. Stroud was fortunately not seriously hurt, though badly bruised and shaken up as a result of the accident. The choir of the Baptist church intended holding a song service on Sunday evening, Sept. 18th. A splendid programme is in course of preparation. All are cordially invited. Mrs. M. W. Brandon entertained a number of lady friends at a pink tea on Tuesday afternoon, when a very pleasant time was spent. The Misses Hazel and Mabel Sharp were the guests of Mrs. Thurston at Dundas-st. Mrs. Paul, of Cleveland, Ohio, is visiting her mother, Mrs. McDiarmid, at the Sick Children's hospital, Toronto. Miss Hand returned on Tuesday from Toronto and York Mills. Rev. W. H. A. French and Mrs. French spent a few days in Toronto last week. Mrs. A. Acheson, of Deer Lake, visited her sister, Mrs. Geo. Martin, a few days this week. Miss M. A. Gillis has returned to St. Louis where she is superintendent of a hospital, after spending her vacation with relatives in town and vicinity. Mr. H. Deyman, of Gooderham, spent Monday in town. Mrs. Jesse Perrin spent the week end in Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Woodcock, of Norland, is the guest of her son, Mr. A. McKeay. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McKendry returned on Monday from a visit with friends at Kingston and Gananoque. Mr. Eger, of Burnt River, spent Saturday in town. Several residents on Francis-st. east have lately been much improved by the addition of neat verandahs by their respective owners. Two of the latest of such additions are on Mrs. F. Varcoe's house and more recently at the cottage of R. Menzies. The tourists and summer visitors have, with a few exceptions, departed for their homes, having enjoyed a season of rest and refreshment, which they will be glad to repeat another year. New plate glass windows and hard wood floors in Messrs. Terrill's store on Colborne-st. are a decided improvement. Painters are now busily engaged in painting and graining the woodwork in front, which will transform the block into one of the handsomest business places in town. Miss Myrtle Washburn returned recently from Toronto, where she attended the millinery openings. She was accompanied by Miss Ferris, of Pitcon, who will assist her this season, Sept. 22 and 23 will be the opening days of Miss Washburn's large and varied display of millinery, which is looked forward to by the ladies of Fenelon Falls and vicinity. Mr. Grover Kerr, of Allandale, is in town this week. Mrs. Tompkins, of Cambray, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Dr. Gould, returned home on Tuesday. Miss Annie Robson and Miss Ethel Robson spent a few days in Lindsay this week. Mr. J. Twomey, Jr., spent Wednesday in Lindsay. Mr. F. Robson left for Lindsay on Tuesday. Mrs. Jas. Fraser spent a few days in Toronto this week. Mr. and Mrs. Burns, of Toronto, Mrs. Randolph McDonald, of Rose-passed through town on Tuesday on their way to Toronto. Mrs. Andrew Torrance, of Lindsay, had been visiting her brother, Harry Peran, returned to Lindsay on Tuesday. H. McDougall and Miss Kath McDougall spent a few days in Lindsay this week. Miss Kelly, is taking a vacation in Peterborough.

Minden Matters In Paragraphs

(Special to The Post.) Miss Rose Warner, of Alberta is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. A. Palmer. Among the visitors at the exhibition were Messrs A. Palmer, J. Palmer, M. Brown, H. Soward, F. S. Stinson, A. L. Best, W. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Baker, and Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Whyte. Miss Maud Southworth arrived here on Monday evening and they will open their millinery shop soon. Mr. J. Welch, Jr., of Kirkfield, spent Sunday with relatives and friends here. Rev. and Mrs. Stevens and Miss Walling of Haliburton, were visitors here on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Bedlington and Mrs. Delamer were visitors in Toronto last week. Mrs. G. Layton of La Harpe, Ill. is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Puffer. Master Arnold Stinson returned to Lindsay to attend Collegiate. Rev. and Mrs. W. P. Rogers and son of Millbrook visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Rogers, this week. Mr. Wm. Ranson, of Lindsay, was a visitor here last week. Mr. Walter Dagg of Little Britain, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. Dagg. Mrs. W. S. Munn and the Misses Munn, accompanied by Messrs R. B. Munn and Edward La Rue, were visitors in Haliburton on Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Wm. Sawyer of Lutterworth township, died at Toronto on Saturday last and the remains were brought to Minden on Monday and were interred. On Wednesday evening, Sept. 7th, about forty guests assembled at Hillsdale, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Rogers, to witness the marriage of Alida to Mr. W. Gifford, Hollingshead of their youngest daughter, Alida, of Huntsville. The appointed hour found Miss Florence Croft, of Lochlin, in her place at the kiano, and the bridal party entered the parlor while she played Lohengrin's bridal chorus. Rev. W. P. Rogers, B. A., of Millbrook, brother of the bride, took his place behind an improvised altar of ferns and white flowers. Next came the bridegroom, attended by Mr. Delbert G. Rogers, followed by Miss Rogers, who acted as her sister's bridesmaid. The bride looked charming in a rich dress of cream paillette de soie silk, trimmed with net and insertion, with long cream satin sash. Her bridal veil was fastened in her hair with white flowers. She wore no jewellery, but a pearl crescent, the gift of the groom. Her bouquet was of bridal roses. The bridesmaid's gown was also of cream silk, and she carried pink and white asters. The ceremony being performed, the company sat down to a dainty repast. The gifts were both numerous and costly, showing the esteem in which the young couple were held. Mr. and Mrs. Hollingshead left on Thursday for Toronto, and from there to Montreal, and other points east. On their return they will reside at Hollingshead, near Huntsville. The bride's going away dress was of Lincoln green broad cloth with hat and gloves to match. ROHALLION. Miss Tessie Wiseman, of Burke's Falls, accompanied by her little brother John, are guests of their uncle, Mr. Thos. Crawford. Mrs. John McElroy of Uptergrove, is spending a few days with relatives here. The hum of the threshing machine is heard late and early. Congratulations to Mr. Perry Teel for the good work he is doing. The Ryan brothers are here with their stumping machine. Mr. Will Whalen has given them a contract. They are doing first class work and several of the farmers are likely to follow Will's example. Mr. J. Crawford, of Jarrett's Corners, is sending a few boys under the parental roof. Mrs. Munro, spent the 13th inst. with friends in Argyle. Mr. Nicholas Whalen arrived home yesterday (Tuesday). His coming was very unexpected. His many friends will be pleased to hear that his contract in the west proved a great success.

Jottings From Busy Kirkfield

(Special to The Post.) Miss May Wheeler of Toronto, is spending a couple of weeks with Mrs. N. D. McEachern. Miss Carrie Munroe, of Cobalt, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. James Gordon. Mrs. Hugh Sanderson and children returned on Wednesday of last week, after a six months' visit with friends at Sault Ste Marie, Owen Sound and Toronto. Mrs. J. J. Lee and children are home after spending the summer at Hamilton. Miss Alma MacInnes has been spending a fortnight with friends at Argyle. Mr. Leighton Monid, of New Kensington, Pa., and Mr. A. L. Monid, of Sewickley, Pa., spent the week end with Mr. H. Campbell. Mr. Blower, of Pittsburg was also an over Sunday visitor to town. Mr. and Mrs. F. MacKague and son spent Tuesday in Beaverton. Mrs. J. Trueman and little son, Norman, of Glenora, spent Thursday in Kirkfield. Miss Millicent Trueman visited her friend, Miss Bell Campbell, over the week end. Dr. J. F. Ross and son Alex spent Sunday in Beaverton. On Wednesday morning occurred the death of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Faed. The funeral took place at Cannington on Thursday. The sympathy of all is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Faed in their bereavement. Miss Daisy Faed, of Cannington, has been with her sister, Mrs. F. Faed for the past week. We are sorry to hear of Mr. Malcolm Fraser's serious illness, and hope to hear of an immediate improvement. Miss Miller, of Mount St. Louis, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. Gilchrist. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. MacRae and little son have moved to Oadwood, where Mr. MacRae is engaged with Pascoe Bros. Mr. Chas. Gusty and son Saliste, who have been spending the summer with Mr. Gusty at Kandersley, Sask, returned to town last week. Mrs. Sadie and Master Allan MacDonald returned to their home in Toronto on Saturday after spending the summer with Kirkfield relatives. Mrs. Allen, of Orono, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. R. MacKay. Mr. Faed and Mr. Marshall, of Cannington, were in town on Thursday of last week. The exhibition visitors from this section have all returned, well satisfied with the 1910 fair. Mr. A. N. Campbell was in Lindsay Saturday. The garden party and corn roast under the auspices of the W.F.M.S. took place on Wednesday of last week on the lawn of Mr. J. Ewen, tenth concession. The committee were unable to secure the baseball teams for the tournament, but otherwise an entertaining evening was spent. Master Russel A. Campbell left on Saturday to attend the Lindsay Collegiate Institute. BROWNJS-MARIPOSA. (Special to The Post) Mr. and Mrs. Bert Parliament and Master Truman and Miss Hazel spent several days of last week with friends in Toronto, taking in the Exhibition. Mr. James Anderson, of Toronto, and Mr. Duncan Anderson, of Cleveland, O., is visiting relatives here. The arrival of a bright little son, gladdened the home of Mr. and Mrs. Parry Lobb recently. Some of those from here who took in the exhibition at Toronto during the last week were Messrs. John Anderson, Wilfred Short, John W. Lee, Amos Armitage, Charles Knight and Bert Jewell. Mr. and Mrs. Les Mark and children, of Oakwood, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John W. Mark. Mr. Jim Anderson, of the L.C.I. Lindsay, spent over Sunday at his home here. Miss Maggie Skuce, of Horeb, spent a few holidays here last week with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Flett. Mr. and Mrs. Flett spent Sunday at Mrs. Flett's old home, Mt. Horeb.

Gleanings from Powles' Corners

(Special to The Post) Luite a commotion was caused in our hamlet Monday evening, when a runaway horse galloped by in frantic haste. The horse proved to be the property of Mr. H. Stroud. It had become scared at Fenelon Falls and having thrown Mr. Stroud from the buggy, it rushed homeward. After a run of about six miles, the animal was overtaken by Mr. J. Fell and brought home. Neither Mr. Stroud nor the horse sustained injuries, but the buggy is a complete wreck. Mr. and Mrs. A. Jackson, of Enterprise, have returned home after spending a week with their daughter, Mrs. J. C. Wagar. Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Greaver, of Palestine, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Powles recently. Those who attended the exhibition at Toronto have come home loud in their praises of their native land, Canada. The annual National Exhibition is certainly one of our chief assets towards the fostering of a universal patriotism throughout, not only Ontario, but all Canada. Mrs. Geo. Argue, of Pontypool and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. A. Argue, of Winnipeg, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Powles last week. One of our popular citizens, Mr. N. Day, has a fine pine grove on his farm surveyed for a summer resort, under the appellation of "Lakeside Summer Resort." Doubtless this will prove very enticing to next summers tourists. Mr. A. Greenaway, of Eden, and a former teacher of this section, called on old acquaintances the first of this week. We are always pleased to give Mr. Greenaway the glad hand. Sunday Sept. 25th is rally day in Methodist Sunday schools. The local superintendent and teachers hope for a record attendance on the occasion. Bear the date in mind, Sept. 25. CRESSWELL. (Special to The Post) Mrs. George Bott, of Toronto, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Thomas. We are pleased to report that Mr. Irwin Johnson is recovering after having a severe sickness. We were pleased to see Mr. Charlie Bott in Cresswell once more last week. Mr. Wm. Johnson and little daughter, of Valentia, visited with Mr. Samuel Perrin on Sunday last. Miss Maud McIntyre is attending school at Whitby. Mr. Alexander Grant is putting up a large cement silo. Mr. Grant has had a wooden silo for these last few years. He is not tired of having a silo yet, as he is putting up a cement one. He speaks well of silos. Mr. Harry Drew visited friends in Cannington last Sunday. Club House burned. Sandwich, Sept. 14.—The club house of the Fighting Island Gun Club was completely destroyed by fire Monday night, involving a loss of $3,500. The property is owned by the Palms estate of Detroit, and is leased to a party of Windsor men.

Week's Doings At Gooderham

(Special to The Post) Harvesting is over and the hum of the threshing machine is heard in out land. The farmers report a good yield for the season. Mr. Josh Pickins has purchased the livery from John Kennedy. John's cheery face will be greatly missed among us. Among the visitors to the exhibition last week was Mrs. Peacock Mrs. Hunter and Mrs. Dayman, also Messrs. Barr, Valean, White, Deyman and Newsom. Mr. Hodgins, of Haliburton shipped a carload of cattle from here last Tuesday. Prices are good this year. Born—On Sept. 2, to Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hadley, a daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Simmons have returned from the west after spending a very pleasant six weeks among friends there. Mr. Kennedy was to Lindsay on business last week. Mr. John Maxwell and family have returned to the village and are now occupying the house formerly owned by Mr. A. D. Graham. VALENTIA (Special to The Post) Valentia branch of the West Victoria Women's Institute was held at Mrs. James Riley's, with a good attendance. Meeting opened in regular form, after which a paper was given by Mrs. J. M. Swain, followed by a lengthy discussion, sing and an enjoyable time was spent. The meeting closed with a sumptuous tea served by Mrs. Riley. Mr. Cephas Mark and wife, of Rose-town, is visiting at his parents and with other friends. Mr. John Parker has bought the Ritson farm and is going into farming more extensively. We understand that Mr. Dave Sharpe has bought a house and lot in the village and is moving in soon. Mr. Mark is building an extension to his already commodious livery barn. He has four horses now and will increase the number on the business ends. Our minister, Rev. Mr. Chapman, has returned to us again after four weeks of vacation. We expect Mr. and Mrs. Suggitt's return from Victoria soon. The farmers are done sowing fall wheat and are well on with the fall ploughing. The weather has been very favorable for that work. We are sorry to learn that Mr. Hodgins and family are leaving us. He has taken a farm in Brock. Our best wishes go with them. Mr. Ebi Hill takes the farm they leave. In memory of Mrs. Marvin, Grills, who died Aug. 9th, 1910. We loved her, yes we loved her. But Jesus loved her more, And he has silently called her To yonder shining shore. The golden gates were opened, A gentle voice said come, And with farewell unspoken She calmly entered home, Signed, husband and family.

Little Britain Live Brevities

(Special to The Post.) Miss Blanche Chard returned to her home in Lindsay after spending a few weeks at Miss Lila Hooper's. Several from here attended the hot chicken pie social at Pleasant Point on Tuesday and report a first class time. Miss Mae Archer visited her sister, Rev. Mrs. Robins at Blackstock this week. A very profitable and enjoyable social evening was spent at our league on Tuesday evening of this week. A good programme was given, the talk given by Rev. Chapman of his trip to Boston being especially interesting. After the programme ice cream and cake was served to the satisfaction of all. About 100 were present. Miss Minnie Lane, of Oshawa visited her sister, Mrs. Ed. Wickett, last week. The baseball tournament held in our village on Friday was a good success considering the cold weather and busy time. Little Britain won the first game with Sonya by a score of 9-2, but the Invincible Manilla team trimmed our boys to a 1-5, 15-2, there being many two and three base hits for the Manilla team. Harry Keslick, of the Manilla team, proved himself the best man on the slab for miles around. Much sympathy is tendered to Lawrence Heatlie, who had his ankle broken in the match. The concert in the evening was well attended. The boys no doubt will make an annual affair of it, and will have even better success next time. Mrs. R. P. Hill, of Woodville, is the guest of Mrs. George Mark this week. Rev. Mr. Snell, of Prince Albert, will preach in our Methodist church next Sabbath morning and evening. Mr. Enos Metherell has the broad smile on now. Baby girl 13 lbs is the cause. Miss Miller has returned from her visit in Oshawa. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maunder and son of Lindsay, visited at Mr. Seth Metherell's on Sunday. Miss Edna Greenaway and her mother, Mrs. R. Greenaway, are spending a few days in Hamilton this week. Mrs. John Glenny sr, has gone to Toronto to live with her daughter, Mrs. P. J. Pilkie. Miss Ethel McKee returned this week from a business visit in Toronto. Mrs. Robert Henderson had her residence newly painted last week by Mr. Bert Prouse of Oakwood. The Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. R. Oliver, on Wednesday, Sept. 29th. A good number is requested to be present. Mrs. S. Hogg, of Toronto, is visiting Miss Jennie Bullivant this week. Mrs. Loucks of Inglesby is visiting Mrs. J. Connor this week. Last week Dr. G. W. Hall took a picture of the junior league. There were about fifty present and the picture was well taken. Miss H. Wallis is erecting a new stable this week. Several new soprano voices have been added to our Methodist choir, which improve it considerably. Rev. Harrison, of Burford, visited at Rev. Archer's last week. Mr. and Mrs. John Glenny spent a few days last week at Sturgeon Point visiting at Mrs. Walkey's. Lynched Two Negroes. Tiptonville, Tenn., Sept. 14.—Will Sharp and Bob Bruce, negroes, who for seven or eight years have worked on various farms over the county, were lynched Monday night by a mob of about forty men for an attempted assault on two little daughters of Jack Bowing, at their home at Connerville. Continued on page 5.

Week's Doings At Woodville

(Special to The Post) The Woodville branch of the Women's Institute held a most successful meeting at the home of Mrs. Stone the able president of this flourishing branch. The members to the number of fifty turned out to enjoy a most instructive and interesting programme. A piano solo by Miss S. Hancock and a duet by Misses Prouse and McCrae were both worthy of mention. The topics of the day were ably discussed by Mrs. Beecroft, Miss Smiley and Miss Ray. A most enjoyable social hour was spent at the close of the meeting. The next meeting will be on October 13th at the home of Mrs. Campbell, Fairview Farm. Mrs. Nellie Campbell enjoyed a few holidays with friends at Kirkfield and Eldon station this week. Miss Alice Hawkins returned from Toronto on Tuesday where she has been visiting friends for two weeks. Miss Lizzie Pettit is visiting at Mrs. W. J. Trebilco's this week. Mr. James Thomas and children, also Miss Ida Walters were the guests of Mr. J. Bowns at Norland over Sunday. Miss C. Anderson, of Toronto, visited at Mr. W. J. Coad's for a few days this week. Mrs. D. McTaggart is improving slowly. Mr. and Mrs. W. Tretheway and Miss Clara Tretheway, visited Mrs. Perry's and Mrs. J. Coad's, Toronto this week. Miss Stella Hancock, Linden Valley, spent a few days with her cousin Miss Sylvia Hancock. Miss Ross, of Port Perry, is visiting at Mrs. G. Daynes and Mrs. Campbell's this week. Mr. Fred Bailey has removed to Lorneville, where he has secured a position on the railroad. A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. Arch. Campbell on Wednesday last, when his youngest daughter, Minnie, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Rev. H. B. Wooding, of Ottawa, the Rev. A. J. Mann officiating. She was beautifully attired in white net with heavy lace flounce, and with pearl trimmings, and wore the bride veil, and was unattended. After a sumptuous repast the happy couple left on the evening train mid showers of rice and confetti. Her traveling suit was of navy broadcloth with neat hat to match. The gifts were numerous and costly including a number of pieces of cut glass. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome diamond ring. Preparation is being made by the members of the Sunday School for rally day, Sept. 25th, at the morning service. Mr. A. McKay had a number of teams helping him haul brick Monday for his new house. The W. M. S. and Ladies' Aid, of the Methodist Church held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. W. Reid, at Grass Hill on Wednesday. An excellent report on the day. After the opening services Mrs. W. M. S. convention, which took place in Peterboro. The report was one of the best and will prove helpful to every one who had the privilege of listening to it. Women's Institute met at the home of the President, Mrs. W. Seone. The meeting was opened by singing "The Maple Leaf" then the business was considered, after which talks were given by Mrs. Beecroft and Newman, their subject being "What a child should be taught before going to school," also a paper from Miss Ray on What should be the furniture for a living room. Many good ideas.

COME AND SEE US During Fair Week Lindsay will be visited by thousands of people from the surrounding district. The Post desires to extend a cordial invitation to our subscribers and friends to visit our office during their stay in town. We pride ourselves in turning out the newest and best Daily and Weekly paper in the Midland district, and we would be pleased to show all visitors our excellent plant and the facilities we possess for turning out both editions. Come visit us and make yourselves at home. A representative of the Post will be present at all the Fall Fairs in the district, and will be pleased to take subscriptions, orders for work, or give all information required regarding our papers and plant. Wilson & Wilson.

Form The Good Habit People who succeed in saving money, do so by first forming the good habit of saving. It is easy to form a habit. It is more than easy to form the habit of spending but to save requires determined cultivation, but when well rooted it grows fast. This Bank will help you start the saving habit and assist you to cultivate it. THE DOMINION BANK