B. J. GOUGH "Where the Good Clothes Come From." LINDSAY

TORIES REFUSE OPPOSITION SPEAKERS AT THEIR MEETINGS IN THIS RIDING

The following letter explains itself: To the Editor: Dear Sir.—At a Conservative meeting held at Dunsford last Saturday night, Mr. Cinnamon, one of the speakers, in the course of his harangue, made some statements concerning the markets which I thought were very misleading. I told him that he was mistaken, and was told to keep quiet until he was through, and I would have the platform. Well, when the three speakers were through of course I understood it was my chance, but was told by the chairman, and not very politely either, that as the Grits had denied the Conservatives the privilege of speaking at their meetings, he refused to allow a Grit on the platform. Now, Sir, I do not know if the chairman knows he was stating what is not so or not, but every person who was at the Grit meeting here knows that any Conservative in the hall that night who had any questions to ask, or anything to say, was asked to take the platform. But, Sir, I took this opportunity of challenging Mr. Cinnamon to half an hour or an hour's debate on the subject; he refused to allow me to ask a civil question on which to make a few remarks. Thanking you in advance for valuable space, I am, Yours respectfully, JOHN C. THURSTON. Dunsford. Mr. Thurston is quite right in his contention. The Liberals invite opposition speakers to their platform at every meeting held, and are willing to discuss the great question at issue at all times. The reason the Conservatives refuse to allow Liberal speakers at their meetings is easily explained. They are ashamed of the arguments they are advancing against Reciprocity, and do not want to be made appear more ridiculous before the intelligent electorate than they really are. The Conservative speakers in this riding are paying a very poor tribute to the intelligence of the people, if they imagine for a moment that they can be uncombed by the campaign of misrepresentation being carried on. MOUNT HOREB (Special to The Post) Mr. Charlie Deyell left on Monday morning for Peterboro, where he is taking a course at the Business College of that city. Mr. D. Deyell is attending Toronto Exhibition. The L. C. I. boys went back to the Lindsay school on Sept. 5th. Our public school re-opened on Sept. 5 under the service of Miss McKinnon, and all the pupils went back, seemingly refreshed after the long holiday. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fisher attended divine services on Sunday last.

H. C. SOOTHERAN TENNIS CHAMPION

Copies of the Spokesman Review, of Spokane, Washington, to hand, announce that Mr. H. C. Sotheran of that city, son of Mr. J. H. Sotheran Local Registrar, H. C. J., has won the tennis-championship of that city after a series of splendid games with Miss Kate Dodds, a clever lady player. On Sept. 4th, Mr. Sotheran, in one of the most sensational tennis matches of the season won the championship singles in the Spokane Tennis Club tourney for the city championship. His opponent was Mr. T. C. Fulton, a brilliant player who was picked for the winner. On Sept. 6th, Mr. Sotheran went into the finals with Miss Kate Dodds, winner in the ladies singles. Mr. Sotheran sprung the surprise of the meeting by beating the Idaho champion, T. C. Fulton. His many Lindsay friends will congratulate him on his prowess.

MISS BANNEN'S MILLINERY OPENING

A Fall millinery opening of merit takes place on Sept. 19-20-21 at Miss Bannen's parlors on William-st., when an extensive display of latest designs, for fall and winter may be viewed. This season's styles have a wide range in size and shape, so that a becoming hat is not hard to select as in former years. Then besides, Miss Bannen has obtained the skillful assistance of Miss Doyoume, a very favorably known expert trimmer, having the faculty of modelling a design that enhances the appearance, which should be worth consideration. Ladies of Lindsay are looking forward to this millinery opening with pleasant anticipations. Mr. Jas. A. Taylor, Guelph, was in town yesterday afternoon on business. Miss Ethel M. Deyell has returned home after having a pleasant holiday with Cambrey friends.

Price of Sugar Continues to Soar

Sugar took another jump yesterday of 10c per cwt., and indications are that the price will continue to soar higher. A citizen, who is well informed on the subject, said this morning when interviewed by the Post, that the rise in price was due to a shortage of the sugar-beet crop. Users of sugar-beets in other parts of the world will have to use the sugar-cane, thus creating an abnormal demand and raising the price. The sugar used in Canada is made from sugar-cane, scarcely any sugar-beet sugar being used. There will probably be no decline in price until the condition of next year's crop is known, which will not be before May or June. There are other conditions which may rise to lower the price, but it is highly improbable. Mr. W. R. Gorrie, Haliburton, was in town this morning on his way home from the Exhibition.

THANKSGIVING DAY MONDAY, OCT. 30

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 11.—Thanksgiving Day, will probably be set for October 30, but no official action will be taken until after the elections.
