FARMERS' BANK DEVELOPMENTS

Further developments in the Farmers Bank case are on the tapis. Mr. Clarke H. Smith, Secretary of the provisional Board of Directors, who was arrested in Vancouver recently on a warrant from Toronto, is expected to arrive in a day or two in charge of Detective Guthrie.

The liquidator, Geoffrey T. Clarkson, stated to the Globe, yesterday that he anticipated a new phase of the matter would be brought to light within the next few days, and the process of winding up the bank's affairs would proceed without any delay.

The personell of the Relief Committee is as follows: Chairman Rev. George Gilmore, of Pingal, Ont.; Secretary, Rev. C. F. Clarke, of Kerwood, Treasurer, Mr. A. S. Minthorne, of Lindsay; and Messrs. W. H. Pollard of Pootypool and J. G. Ashmore of Dundas.

The Chairman made the following statement concerning the aims of the committee: "All necessary steps are being taken to secure for the depositors their money. The matter will be presented to the new Government. A great many of the candidates for the Federal Government who have now been returned promised to see that we would secure the money. Pressure will be brought to bear on them to keep their promises."

OMEMEE FAMILY GIVEN SEND OFF ON EVE OF DEPARTURE FOR LINDSAY

Omeme, Sept. 25.—On Friday evening a social evening was held under the auspices of the Methodist Sunday School in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Balfour, who were leaving Omeme.

A short programme of readings and music was given, after which Mr. and Mrs. Balfour were called to the platform, and the following address was read by the pastor, Rev. R. Burns: "To Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Balfour: This evening the Methodist Sunday School and many of your friends have assembled in order to express their high regard for you and your family. You will be missed in our school where, for a number of years you have led the scholars in the service of sacred song. The gospel message conveyed in these musical exercises will linger long in the memory of the boys and girls, and cheer and mellow their lives as they advance in years. We trust your talent will continue to be used in your new church relationships, and that you will enjoy a long life of usefulness in the Master's work."

Mrs. Balfour will also be missed, for she has always been a kind, genial, sympathetic worker in the Sunday School as well as in the Ladies' Aid and W. M. S. We wish her and the family very pleasant time in their new home.

On behalf of the school and your numerous friends we wish you to accept this chair, and your wife this china cabinet, as a slight evidence of our Christian love and good will. May the richest blessings of our Heavenly Father rest upon you and yours, and when life's labor is ended, we hope and pray we shall meet in the Heavenly Home where we shall join in the new song and wave the palm of victory.

God be with you till we meet again, By His counsels guide, uphold you, With His sheep securely fold you; God be with you till we meet again. (Sgd.)

Miss Amy Parsons presented the chair, and Miss T. McQuabe the cabinet. Mr. Balfour responded for himself and Mrs. Balfour, and thanked the friends who had so kindly remembered them.

The Chairman, Mr. T. C. Ivory, then called on several gentlemen in the audience for short speeches, after which refreshments were served, and a social half hour spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Balfour left on Tuesday for Lindsay for Lindsay, where they will reside in future.

BYE-ELECTION DATES FIXED SOON WILL BE NO GENERAL ELECTION

Toronto World: The possibility of provincial elections being held before the next session of the legislature is only a possibility—nothing more.

Sir James Whitney and other members of the Cabinet have no opinions to express on the matter either one way or the other.

There are nine bye-elections to be held, most of the seats having been made vacant by the resignation of members to become contestants in the federal elections.

"This talk about Provincial elections being held is all theory and surmising," Sir James Whitney told the World last night.

"There hasn't been the slightest discussion yet as to what will be done. In fact, the matter has not been mentioned at all."

With regard to the holding of the bye-elections, Sir James said that that matter would come up for discussion in the meeting of the Cabinet. The Premier couldn't say anything definite as to dates, but he intimated that the subject of bye-elections would be settled soon. A Cabinet meeting will be held early in the week.

couldn't express any opinion, as the Cabinet hadn't discussed the question. Sir James Whitney was at Guelph yesterday officiating at the laying of the corner stone of the new prison.

In eight cases where there are vacancies the sitting member resigned to contest the Dominion elections, but in one case, that of West Victoria the seat was made vacant by the death of S. J. Fox. The ridings where bye-elections will be held are: South Bruce, Port Arthur, South Brant, Kingston, Ottawa West, North Wentworth, Addington, North Bruce and West Victoria.

The Chairman, Mr. T. C. Ivory, then called on several gentlemen in the audience for short speeches, after which refreshments were served, and a social half hour spent.

LINDSAY RESIDENTS AT CALGARY FUNCTION

The Calgary Albertan of Sept. 15th has the following:—

"Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Peacock celebrated the second anniversary of their wedding yesterday with a reception, which was one of the largest functions of the kind ever given in Calgary, almost two hundred guests were present during the afternoon and evening and were entertained gayly by the hostess and her friends, and by intermittent musical selections. The house had been converted into a house of flowers the drawing rooms set with a profusion of pink carnations and white asters, the hall with sweet peas, and the den artistically arranged with crimson geraniums, white asters and sweet peas.

"Mrs. Peacock's mother and sister, Mrs. Pattycok and Miss Pattycok of Lindsay, Ont., received with her in the afternoon. Mrs. Peacock wore her wedding gown of ivory duchess satin with real lace and pearl trimmings, Mrs. Pattycok was in a black silk gown with real lace and Miss Pattycok wore a dainty and effective frock of green Dresden silk.

"Little Mary Atkinson, in fairy-like baby-blue admitted the guests at the door, and Mrs. McCutcheon, in an effective toilet of blue silk with black hat with smart white mounts, ushered them to the tea room.

"The scheme of scarlet and white was developed here, with baskets of fragrant blossoms—the centre basset being filled with white roses and looped with simla. Crispin sweet peas filled the corner baskets—Bullets and pedestals bore huge bouquets of white asters with graceful trailing smilax, and the effect in the soft glow of lights was very beautiful. A section of Mrs. Peacock's wedding cake was served on a silver plate.

"In the afternoon Mrs. Chas. Adam presided in the tea room; she was gowned in blue satin with a picture hat. Mrs. Petrie in a white embroidered gown, and Mrs. Gordon in a sheer white organdie frock, served the ices, while Miss Harpe, Miss Jean Fletcher and Miss Edith Morrison assisted in serving.

"Mr. Peacock received with his wife in the evening, when Mrs. Sweet poured tea. Mrs. J. Broder and Mrs. Atkinson served cake and ices, assisted by Miss Maux, Miss Golding and Miss Howson, and Mrs. Shaver ushered the guests from the drawing room. All the ladies were beautifully attired. Mrs. Shaver in dew drop net over blue satin, with becoming hat; Mrs. Sweet in a lace gown with picture hat; Mrs. Broder in blue silk with a plumed chapeau, and Mrs. Atkinson in a corn-colored toilet of satin, her hat matching the gown in shade.

"Piano selections were played by Miss Margaret Christie, Miss Freda Sweet and Miss Olive Cunn, and the Misses Edwards recited. Miss Monroe and Miss Pattycok sang, and during the evening Mrs. Peacock and her sister sang together in a duet, very sweetly."

COTTAGE BURNED AT STURGEON PT. OCCUPANTS HAD NARROW ESCAPE

Sturgeon Point was visited by a destructive fire at an early hour this morning, when the cottage of Mr. A. F. McMichael, of Toronto was burned to the ground, together with the contents.

The cottage, which was occupied by Mrs. McMichael, two children and her mother, Mrs. Shiller, was situated on Irene Avenue. It was a two storey frame structure of six rooms, and was just back of the Dickson cottage.

About a quarter to one, this morning Mrs. McMichael was aroused from her slumbers by a crackling sound, and immediately proceeded to investigate. She opened the door leading to the lower storey, and was almost suffocated by dense smoke. She immediately gave the alarm, and the other occupants of the cottage made their escape from the doomed building. There was no time to save anything—in fact, they had barely time to escape with their lives, for had not Mrs. McMichael been assuaged by from her sleep, the four would undoubtedly have met a terrible death.

The cottage burned like matchwood and the burning shingles were carried far out into the lake.

The fire attracted the other residents of the Point, who were soon on the scene, but the fire had gained such headway that it was impossible to save anything. The fact that it had rained during the night prevented the fire from spreading to other property, otherwise there is no telling what destruction would have been wrought.

The cause of the fire is a mystery, as everything appeared to be all right when the occupants retired for the night. It is understood that the cottage and contents were insured.

Mr. McMichael who is in Toronto was notified of the fire this morning.

Jewish New Year Was Ushered In

Saturday evening ushered in the Jewish New Year, it being the year 5672. Jews throughout the world celebrated the occasion in much the same way as it has always been celebrated, the religious features being especially prominent. The synagogue will be filled with worshippers.

This time of the year is especially regarded with reverence by the Jews, as it commences the ten-day period of repentance that terminates with the annual fast day. This ten-day period is looked upon as a time when all must be reconciled with God and man. Even the most calloused in religious matters usual attend service during this period.

In the synagogues the service was impressive. It is looked upon as a time for counting up the deeds of the past and looking to the future. A distinctive feature of the New Year's service is the blowing of a horn in the synagogue which symbolizes the calling together of the hosts of Israel. Tradition of the centuries helps to make the service very solemn to Jews. The special ritual, together with the inspiring melodies of the services and searching sermons by the rabbis have a strong effect on the congregations.

The local Jewish colony celebrated the ushering in of the New Year.

RETURNING OFFICER WAS ASSAULTED

Orillia, Sept. 25.—John Waldron, Washago, twelve miles north of Orillia was brought to the hospital yesterday suffering from the effects of a severe assault, Waldron had alone, and it is supposed someone entered his house on Friday night and attacked him while asleep. He was found lying on the floor on Saturday forenoon, in a semi-conscious condition, with his face badly cut and his whole body bruised. Apparently the intruder had kicked his victim into insensibility. Waldron is resting easily at the hospital and will recover. He has no recollection of what the assault occurred or who did it. Waldron was returning officer at Washago and it is said the ballot was stolen from his house the same night. It is believed this was done to deter suspicion. A detective was sent from Toronto to-day to inquire into the circumstances.

G. T. R. Accident At Campbellford

Examiner.—An accident of a somewhat startling nature befell the G.T.R. manifest train at 8.30 this morning. When three miles east of Campbellford, the engine from some unknown cause, suddenly left the track dragging with it six of the cars which were loaded with grain. The engineer, seeing the impending disaster, the emergency brakes and what might have been a horrible railway catastrophe.

On account of the blocking of the track, the passengers from Campbellford will be transferred from the Belleville train into a special, which will leave Lindsay for that purpose. The same will apply to the Lindsay passengers. The Belleville will meet this from Lindsay at the place of abandonment for the purpose of receiving the passengers.

Roadmaster Mitchell took a party of men from Lindsay and another from Peterboro this morning in order to replace the train on the rails as quickly as possible. Trainmaster McMillan has also arrived on the scene and will oversee the work.

No one was injured and it is anticipated that there will be no serious damage done.
