CRUSHED TO DEATH AT KINMOUNT SHOCKING ACCIDENT TO LITTLE LAD

One of the saddest and most disastrous accidents in the history of the town occurred Friday, when the son of Mr. Leonard Brown of the saw mill, was crushed to death by a runaway team.

Angus Brown, who was five years of age, was helping to load a car on a siding east of the mill. The boy was standing in the wagon taking the brick from a horse who handed them down from the mill. Mr. Caine held the horses back.

The horses took fright at the quick appearance of the boy in the car, and despite the efforts of the man at their head, they came off and dashed down the siding. Caine called to young Brown to get down, but the boy seemed to be frightened to obey and clung to the wagon body till it reached the end of the main street, where the wagon turned a complete somersault and rolled round the corner, and crushed the wagon over twice.

The little lad fell beneath the heavy partly loaded wagon body, crushing his skull and breaking his neck. Mr. E. Weistwood, in front of whose store the accident took place, rushed out with some companions, and carried the little fellow with blood gushing from his mouth, nose and ears, to Dr. White's drug store, but medical assistance could not be obtained, as the doctor was away on a country call. The boy was then carried to Dettman's hotel, where he breathed his last about an hour after the accident.

Angus Brown was one of the best known and well liked little boys of the village and the sympathy of the entire community is with the bereaved parents. The funeral took place on Sunday, and was one of the largest in many years.

When making pies, before baking put two or three pieces of macaroni in the centre of the crust, so as to allow the steam to escape without the juice running over the top.

Drowned in Northwest

(Special to The Post.)

Elpas, Man., Sept. 18—Hugh McCochrane and William McMillan, of Lindsay, and George A. White and Fred McLennan of Winnipeg are believed to have been drowned in Cross Lake. They were with Dunn's hydrographic survey party and their canoe was found floating wrong side up.

Love is the wine of life and marriage is the morning after.

When using Chinese lanterns for decorative purposes, put a few hand fuls of sand in the bowl-shaped bottom around the candle. This will keep the lanterns from swaying and also tend to prevent their catching fire.

Take a cork of medium size and crochet a cap of some dainty colored silk for it, leaving the flat upper surface free. Slip the points of scissors into this and thus protect your workbag from being cut by the sharp points.

SIGNATURE OF WOODROW WILSON TO DOCUMENT IN LOCAL PROBATE COURT

A very interesting document has been filed in the local Probate Court by the firm of Stewart & O'Connor. It is an application for ancillary letters probate of the will of Edwin A. Lewis, of Englewood, N. J. The estate is valued at $171,193.18, and consists of property in Halibur-ton and Muskoka and the balance principally in securities. An exemplification of probate is also filed and attached to it is to be found the certificate under the seal of New Jersey of Woodrow Wilson, the Democratic candidate for President of the United States.

"STRANGER" STORY IS TOO THIN

Indian listers who appear before Police Magistrate Jackson with the old story that a "stranger" supplied them with liquor, need expect no mercy in the future, for their story will be taken with the usual allowance of salt.

A few days ago William Giles, a local lister was up in court on the charge of being drunk while being listed. He told the court that a stranger had supplied the fire water, but his story was not believed. The case was adjourned until this morning, when the accused told Magistrate Jackson that a local character had supplied him with liquor, as well as the stranger. The former has been fined twice for supplying listers already.

The magistrate informed the accused that it was well that his memory had been refreshed, as he had a warrant for his commitment to the jail for a term of three months made out. He intended to enforce the law covering cases of this nature to the letter and would pay no attention to the "stranger" story. He fined Giles $10.00 and costs, $13.45 in all. The charge was laid by License Inspector Thornbury. Mr. G. H. Hopkins, K. C., was present in the interests of the License Dept.

IT PAYS TO BE PUNCTUAL

It is a great thing to serve one's country. Men have died for it while others have put aside business matters however pressing to serve upon the different juries for the sake of their native land—and the two dollars.

As a business speculation it looks like a dead sure thing, but as the saying goes, "the best laid plans of mice and men gang aft aglee."

Two of yesterday's inquest jurors are now firmly convinced that it is not the lead pipe cinch it appears to be, and that as a matter of fact, gambling, horse racing and other amusements of the temporarily gilded rich are safe, sane and certain as compared with the jury business. The investment in this case consisted of an afternoon's time, thought and effort. The return looked for was the modest sum of two good government dollars. Instead they may be asked to put up anywhere up to one hundred dollars, Canadian trade or real estate not accepted.

That is what the law says for jurors who are late in taking their places at an inquest before His Majesty's officers. One man pleaded a misunderstanding of the date set, the other that he understood the inquest would be held at 2.30 instead of 2 o'clock.

Coroner Blanchard stated that he had no option from sending them before the District Judge for sentence, which might possibly be of no consequence on account of the circumstances surrounding their lateness. Even the stock market could hardly mulct a victim of a hundred dollars on an investment of two dollars' worth of time.

PLEASANT VALLEY

(Special to The Post.)

The O.W.I. held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. David Brokenshire on Sept. 12th. There was a good attendance, as usual. Two good papers were given one by Miss Ethel Smithson on "The value of change of air and scenery" and the other by Mrs. Fred Smithson on "Some things that make life interesting." The musical part of the program consisted of a duet by Misses Miriam Brokenshire and Bertie Lee, and a piano solo by Miss Ethel Brokenshire. It was decided at this meeting that two delegates be sent from this branch to the annual convention in Toronto in November. It was also decided that a sum of money shall be paid towards the support of the rest room in Lindsay. Although the Pleasant Valley members do not derive much benefit from this rest room, they appreciate the work it is doing for others.

Miss Winnie Maybee of Fenelon Falls is visiting with her cousin, Miss F. Moynes this week.

KINMOUNT FAIR WAS BIG SUCCESS A SPLENDID DISPLAY OF EXHIBITS

Something was doing every minute yesterday at Kinmount fair. It is one of the real live kind with lots of noise and excitement from a rail live midway in rail swing. Crowds surrounded the merry go round and every well tanned, husky youth from the north had to treat his happy, best girl to many a ride. The fun was immense. Then farther along the line were hoop-la outfits, ball games, such as "hit the nigger" and tossing a baseball into squares to win a prize and fakirs of several other kinds and varieties, all spicing as loud, long and seductively as their voices and lungs would permit. One leather lunged artist standing in a buggy placed first a white metal teaspoon, worth, he alleged 10c. then a transparent picture to hang in a window, 10c. and half a dozen equally valuable articles in an envelope so that the total would reach sixty-five cents and auctioned them off to the admiring crowds for the next to nothing sum of twenty-five cents. He talked at the top of his lungs all the time, and invariably repeated, "I would not do a mean trick to any man that I would not do again."

At least three camera guns were hard at work turning out likenesses and near likenesses for fond swains to wear on their lapels or in their Ingersolls.

The display of farm produce, vegetables, and ladies' fancy goods in the building was very good considering the nature of the season, and was equal to that at any of the small fairs this season. Vegetables of all kinds, including some very good cauliflowers, carrots, cabbages and potatoes were shown to advantage. A row of bagged grains was at the opposite side of the building, while the centre was occupied with potted flowers and home made bread, buns, butter and preserves. Upstairs the tables were loaded with fancy goods of all kinds, hand made shirts, home made blankets, home made yarn and knitted mitts and socks. Everything was the product of home industry among the people of the district, even to a number of pretty rag mats. Some sofa cushions, dollies and things of a kindred nature pointed to the more luxurious side of life.

A fine model of a house with a verandah attracted much attention to one corner of the room. It was built by Wm. and B. Schroter, contractors and builders, of Kinmount. The little house was about eighteen inches high and planned, built and painted with the finest eye to beauty and proportion. The Kinmount people are very proud of it and it is really a fine example of work which could not be made better anywhere.

The display of fowl included several varieties of geese, chickens, ducks, and turkeys. The showing of cattle, hogs, sheep and horses was also in first rate and showed the enterprise of the north part of Victoria county and Haliburton.

The directors state that the gate receipts were very good. The crowd was fairly large, but would have been somewhat augmented if the usual special could have been arranged from the north over the I. B. & O. Some Lindsay people present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Mallon, Jos. Maunder, Jas. Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Brown, Thos. Spratt, Mr. and Mrs. L. Minthorne, Jos. Brown, Wm. Meeks and others.

The free for all which was the only race run was a good one and exciting and close throughout all three heats. There were four entries, Chas. O'Neill's Walter Simmons, Geo. Curtis' Harry C., Geo. Barry's J. West Gifford, Gifford Boy, and T. Polson's Goldie. They came in in the order named. Time 2.49.

Polson is a new man at the game, but has a good looking animal. Some difficulty was had in getting off to a good start.

POWLES' CORNER

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cooper, of Winnipeg, are visiting Mr. Cooper's friends and relations. It is twenty-one years since he was here and some twelve years ago since he was married. This is her first visit in Victoria County.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Marshall, of Jonia, Mich., called on their relatives for a few days.

Mrs. G. Argue, of Midland, was visiting her sister, Mrs. Jas Powles.

Mrs. W. H. Powles was visiting her cousin at Oakwood last Saturday and Sunday.

Every farmer who has not invested in lightning rods had an opportunity to have them on his barns and dwellings as an agent has been calling on the farmers last week.

There was no Epworth League meeting last week as the president and secretary were away from home. The League meetings are indispensable to the young people of all ages. Every young person should take advantage of these meetings.

The T. Eaton Company and the Robert Simpson Co., of Toronto have mailed their customers here their Fall and winter catalogues and claim they are offering good bargains, but they want your cash. They don't pay any taxes in this country to keep up the roads.

Apples and fowl have been stolen in the small hours of the morning. There are some people who ought to be keeping company with the manager of the Farmers' Bank.

DESERONTO PEOPLE MOVING TO LINDSAY

(Special to The Post.)

Deseronto, Sept. 16—Mrs. Geo. Aldred and son Master Jack left on Monday to join her husband and son Master Bert in Lindsay, where they will reside in future, Mr. Aldred having a position as bookkeeper in that town. Prior to his removal to Lindsay Mr. Aldred held a position with the Rathbun Co. here. Mrs. Aldred's father was well known around this district having for many years been captain of a number of boats navigating the bay. Before Mrs. Aldred left town the "Cuckoo Club" of which she was an esteemed member, met at the home of one of the members and presented her with a handsome silver teapot, while several present made short speeches expressing their regret at losing Mrs. Aldred from the club. She was taken entirely by surprise, but thanked them in a few well chosen words.

Mr. and Mrs. Aldred were active members of the Church of England and will be greatly missed both in church and social circles. The well wishes of a host of friends follow them to their new home.

STANLEY DAVEY'S EXCELLENT CROP

Some weeks ago it was reported that Mr. Stanley Davey, formerly of this county, but who at present resides in Saskatoon, was "halled out" during a disastrous storm in that section of the west. This morning Mr. G. A. Jordan received a letter from Mr. Davey in which he stated the report was entirely unfounded. He has as good a crop as grew in Saskatoon, and nearly all of it has been saved. He was also offered quite an advance on his property but he would not accept. His many friends will be pleased to learn of his success.

MAN HAD RELATIVES HERE

Chief Chilton has received a letter of inquiry after the relatives of one Wm. McCullen, or McGullen, who was drowned by the swamping of a canoe in Cross Lake, Saskatchewan, on September 6th. His body has not been recovered as yet. It is understood he has relatives near Lindsay, and parties having any information regarding their whereabouts are requested to see Chief Chilton.
