hy

er-

Dat

the

ton

of

iix-

when and organist and director effort to control the horse. St Basil's church, Toronto, preset Gounod's works, was a musiism, in which Mr. Brazil ably d faitlessly interpreted the difat excepts. Two exquisite short me solos, "A Great Day," and Monts Dance," brimful of delightsebdy, were charming numbers, is appealed to the audience, as Main the March in E Flat Minor k Brani's composition) with its ming and stirring passage. The ma solos, "Andantino in E Flat" d Welding Bells, were particularly wiful, the music having the meand quality that charms and enacted as Clerk.

laity. His opening number, offered the prayer. taste and feeling as to charm John Pounder.

1 Geo. M. Ross possesses a well a numbers last evening were Maly rendered. His opening was Mascagni's beautiful ed in "Mria" from Cavaleria Rustiwhich was admirably sung. Leitheuser, and Brazil was a in its usual condition. white tulle in mich the voices bigs andience is indebted to Archdeacon Casey for the organ, a full description sopeared in a recent issue, Atto St. Mary's Church.

it is understood that the and liked. the last few years will

BAD ACCIDENT ON KENT STREET

From Thursday's Post.

best by the Karn-Morris Or Timited of Wood and when at the corpor of Wood and when at the cor The instrument has been plac- William streets the horse shied at the father had just returned from a trip The little court room was crowded term, but decided to have a duckthe gallery over the main encable reel of the machine Telephons and picked the little fellow up, taking him to the stable He want int.

Western Ontario cities and towns, ginger could not hold his train. in the same of the stable of construction of the stable of the stable. He went into er's bench to answer the charge. His and, along with a man named Harto the interior beauty of the being 1 d from Kent-st to the Wil-The formal opening of the liam-st offices. The animal shied sideways into Mr. Bert McLean's bug.

It from Kent-st to the William of the liam-st offices. The animal shied sideways into Mr. Bert McLean's bug.

It from Kent-st to the William of the liam-st offices. The animal shied sideways into Mr. Bert McLean's bug.

It from Kent-st to the William of the liam-st offices. The animal shied sideways into Mr. Bert McLean's bug.

It from Kent-st to the William of the liam-st offices. The animal shied sideways into Mr. Bert McLean's bug.

It from Kent-st to the William of the liam-st offices. The animal shied sideways into Mr. Bert McLean's bug.

It from Kent-st to the William of the liam-st offices. The animal shied sideways into Mr. Bert McLean's bug.

It from Kent-st to the William of the liam-st offices. The animal shied sideways into Mr. Bert McLean's bug.

It from Kent-st to the William of the liam-st offices. The animal shied sideways into Mr. Bert McLean's bug.

It from Kent-st to the William of the liam-st offices. The liam-st offices was thickly coated with grime. Although he glanced in the scaple with three ribs broken. The formal type of the formal ty gy and in the collision the pin holdThe child was lying out in the barnbegan to shake and his teeth chatterbegan to shake and his teeth chatterThe accident happened when Sullibuggy came out and when Mr. Devitt there by the horse. Its scalp was pulled on the reins the vehicle ran badly torn, and it is thought that up on the horse's heels. This frighten ed it still more and it started down on the horse's heels. This frighten this injury was received by striking folks at the livery stable said they bottom of the boat, and in his hurgory, and the air store ed it still more and it started down against the door jamb as it messions of delight on the data Kent-st at a breakneck speed with hurled into the barnyard. Sincere the buggy swaying from eide to side. Sympathy for Mr. and Mrs. Brown is The son. Mr. Gervyn Devitt jumped felt by all who know them the buggy swaying from eide to side. Sympathy for Mr. and Mrs. Brown is Whom do you want?" "Oh, I don't know any person. Any lad's left shoulder and touching the got away with $3.100 of the Bank's the E. Jules Brazni, the talented but Mr. John Devitt stayed in in an FORMER RESIDENT effort to control the horse.

When near the Simpson House the and it the organ, and his work buggy pitched up in the air and he one the evening stamped him as was thrown very forcibly to the pavedesist of rare ability. His play- ment. He, was carried into the Simp- Mr. William Gallon, Town hip vas characterized by musical son House and Dr. McAlpine summon- Clerk and Livision Court Clerk of se and intelligence, freedom, flexi- ed to look after his injuries. It was Apsley Township, Peterboro County, git and fluency. In each number found he had suffered the fracture of ir in town for a day or so renewing submised organist brought out the a bone in las right leg, several bad old acquaintances and visiong scenes seld capabilities of the instru- cuts and bruises over his eye and a associated with his early days. gt, displaying its volume, purity bad bruising and shaking up general- Mr. Gallon was a resident of Linddi possibilities to an admirable ly. He was taken to his home later say away back in 1856-67, and is a in Mayor Beal's automobile.

Es opening number was Kran's The horse was stopped at the corn- who was Deputy Sheriff here at that ammptu in F sharp, rendered in a er of King and Lindsay streets by time. Mr. Gallon is the guest of Mr. and artistic manner. His Thos. Teatro. The buggy was badly H. J. Lytle, who was one of his asand number, Excerpts from the smcs'red, having been dragged up- sociates in his early days. He called sidedown for some distance.

blame for Mr. Devitt's accident.

Mr. Brazil's closing number layman, Mr. Jas. Allin, of Stouffville, in his youth. blan's Finale in C Minor, a while Rev. Mr. McLean, of Whitby, After leaving Lindsay Mr. Gallon stamped Mr. Brazil as a bril- The candidate was examined in the been a resident of Apsley a great a organist and also brought out afternoon by a council of delegates many years. Abst that was in the new organ, from the churches of Whitby and t Brazil was assisted during the Lindsay Association. His conversion, by two vocalists, Mr. Ar. call to the Ministry and Christian COST OF LIVING Leitheuser (baritone) of St. Doctrine were dealt with. In the eve-Cathedral, Toronto, and ning the Ordination service was pro-M. Ross (tenor) of St. James ceeded with, Rev. Mr. Veals, of Hamilton, presiding. Rev. H. Bryant, of lettheuser possesses a magnifi- Lindsay, preached the sermon, while ing index number took another jump baritone voice of great range, Rev. J. D. McGregor, of Stouffville, Recs Deus Salvator Meus, The charge to the candidate was manufully rendered, his enunci- given by Rev. John Ford, of Port and expression leaving noth- Perry, and the charge to the Church Faure's master- by Rev. Caleb Harris, of Uxbridge. bor Department, "the prospects for Palms," was his second The benediction was then pronounced was sung with such ex- by the newly ordained pastor, Rev.

took plate to voice of splendid range, Frost Has Been

J. C. White frost several nights this camed peas, here a little are a little ped a few points. Meats are a little ped a few points. Meats are a little ped a few points. Meats are a little ped a few points. Rev. pr. Tour Hearts," was a most throughout the country. One field of higher in price than they were a year presence of hands which gave ample buckwheat showed a section blackenago, but grains and fodder are lower. found in the boy's clothing. These found in the boy's clothing. These

er. There will be a three foot cap of The local plant is enjoy amediate re the Ross' splendid voice. ed by the mordant frost, while the peantiful standard splendid voice. ed by the mortality green and

Fields of corn were also touched, disconsistent of the sending of the frost also ripens the beech God Save the King and O, nuts and it tints the leaves with the glories of autumn.

cived the appointment of bailiff for lary, has been lodged there, but he the Fifth Division Court of Victoria leaves any day for Central Prison. County, an office which was formerly This will leave the gaol again empoccupied by the late Peter Mitchell. ty. Certainly crime does not seem to had used in wiping his hands was Captain Wallace's appointment is a be on the increase in Lindsay and 12-Although the or- popular one and meets with the gen- Victoria and Haliburton Counties, or the data gone eral approval of the whole county at least dog days seem to have the date for Thanks- throughout which he is well known put a damper on criminal ambition.

to, and the last Monday Three diamonds found in a the last Monday Three diamonds found in a clam is just and the worse time just thanks that are all thanks thanks the last monday thanks that are all thanks thanks the last monday thanks the last monday are all the last monday are all thanks the last monday are all the last thank sgivibg' and a chorus girl who got a diamond tiara after he has finished shaving himself times willing to accept the cheap article, but they hate an imitation. out of a lobster. _ _ with a safety razor.

FATAL ACCIDENT NEAR SEAGRAVE

Port Perry Star: Seldom has the A bad accident occurred at one death of a child in this locality BRANTFORD, Ont., Sept. 11.—On Wednesday (too late for issue of Bank of British North America was Trank (reight train drawn by engine BRANTFORD, Ont., Sept. 11.—On Wednesday (too late for issue of Past few days the local office of the Napanee, Ont., Sept. 11.—On bis appearance in the police court Post) that John Sullivan, son of Bank of British North America was Trank freight train drawn by engine Mr. Devitt and his son, Mr. Gervyn months old, and was beginning to charge pleaded not guilty, waived an van, who has been attending one of the stalls where a horse was long black hair was thickly matted ris, set out at five o'clock in the standing. The child was in his arms. above his sloping forehead, and his morning for Mitchell's Lake, yard, evidently having been kicked ed audibly when the magistrate read van spied a flock of ducks coming

VISITS LINDSAY

Mr. and Mrs. James McDiarmid, of upon Mr. R. S. Porter, Capt. Thir-Mr. Bert McLean had a marrow es- kell and others of our citizens whom cape also, but was in no way to he knew in the sixties, and the meeting was a very pleasant one for Mr. Gallon. He noticed a great many changes in the old town since his last visit-some forty years ago. In fact Mr. Gallon was lost when he got REABORO fact Mr. Gallon was lost when he got off the G. T. R. train and had to be directed to Kent-st.

In interesting service was held He misses many of his old associ- would squeal on me," replied Taylor. Tuesday at Reaboro when Mr. John ates who are sleeping their last long Pounder was ordeined into the Bap- sleep, as well as many of the old tist Ministry. The Moderator was a land marks that were familiar to him head from the body. In a dull mono-lived for a time in Keene, but has Ottawa, Sept. 10.—The cost of livupwards last month from 135.9, the figures for July, to 136.2. In August 1912, the figures were 133.3.

"And" say the officials at the Laany pronounced drop in the average cost of the commodities classified under the list of necessities of life are ing been convicted for a few petty not very bright.'s

The cause for the advance in the average cost last month was princi-Heavy Recently potatoes, eggs, canned lobster, anthracite coal, grains and fodder. Beef lamb, butter, lake trout, white fish,

Governor Balfour, of the gaol, states that this has been a very slack season with that institution, and he and his assistants are beginning to feel almost lonely in the big Part of the time there have been no prisoners at all. The last few days Captain Jno. W. Wallace has re- young Madison, convicted of burg-

The hest time to approach a man

TELLS STORY OF HORRIBLE CRIME

Taylor. Mr. Woodyatt then consent-

CHARLIE DAWSON. to act in the prisoner's behalf, and without any consultation the pleas to both charges were entered. Taylor confessed early yesterday morning to being guilty of the crime. "Why did you kill him, Jim?" ask- Habitant. ed Sergt. Wallace.

"I did it because I thought the kid crime. His first slash was at the boy's Mrs. Geo. Darke, Mrs. John Darke, throat when he almost severed the tenous tone, the half-breed described Paton. how he had hacked and carved the boy until he became tired of his fiendish work. He stated that he was twenty minutes completing the bar- ture regarding Demonstration Lec-

The remarkable part of Taylor's confession and one that the police can hardly comprehend is the statebody was discovered. Taylor's crime was apparently uppremeditated. It red to him that the little chap might tell of the other crime which he had committed.

That the death . * Charles Dawson was due to the instinct of fear which filled Taylor, and was to have covered another crime, was admitted by Wednesday, Oct 8. A social afternoon Taylor after being given a severe with your sewing. gruelling by the police officials.

Mentally defective and of a lower type, he was born in Brantford, and known about town as a ne'er-do-well. Completing Wharf he has been mixed up in crime, hav-

Taylor told the police that he committed the crime shortly after nine o'clock on Monday night, using a where he threw the knife away early Tuesday morning. He had been employed at the waterwooks, and it was while working there that he threw Lake via the C. P. R. the knife away.

A clue which aided materially in cigarettes were purchased by Taylor Colborne street. This he must have done just prior to going out with the After Taylor's arrest the officers went to his boarding-house and looked over his clothes. They discovered that the suit which Taylor had worn on Monday night had blood stains upon it. On the trousers' leg were stains, and also on the sleeve, and they were unmistakeable. The clothes were brought to the station.

The officers have also found out that Taylor when he came back to the stable with the rig Monday night had washed his hands. The stable them, and asked Taylor what he had been doing. Taylor replied that he Girl of fifteen prefers baseball dolls. When does the boys' class knitting begin?

VICTIM RELATED TO LINDSAY LADY

"Have you engaged counsel?" en- in his direction. He reached down on friendly terms with the employees. A man walking along the road had would send me a lawyer," responded riedly handling it the hammer with some of the members of the staff lung. He died a few minutes later.

at Mrs. John Connolly's, 10 Belshaw avenue.

man is a cousin of Mrs. Commerford, William-st. south, Lindsay.

WOMAN'S INSTITUTE

On Wednesday afternoon the West Ops Women's Institute held a very interesting meeting on Mrs. Geo. Darke's lawn, with a goodly number in attendance. The following programme was rendered. Mrs. M. Williams a reading, Miss Anna Murphy an instrumental, Miss W. Hardy a reading, and Mr. S. Paton a solo. Mr. D. McDougall gave a paper on the topic for the day Canadian Authors published in this issue, and Dr. J. A. White gave a sketch of W. H. Drummond's life with his poem, the

A social half hour was spent at the close of the meeting over the re-Taylor related the story of the freshments, which were served by Mrs. J. A. White and Mrs. A. M

At the above meeting a letter was read from the Department of Agricultures in Domestic Science, (foods and cooking), sewing and Home Nursing.

It was decided to try and get a ment he made declaring that he mur- class of twenty-five in order to secure dered the boy on the spot where the a teacher. Any lady whether a member of the Institute or not, wishing would appear that the thought occu - to join the class please phone the President, 413L or the Secretary, 405 as soon as possible for particulars. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. T. W. Curtis on

At Ancona Pt.

The new concrete dock at the end pally due to the increase in price of small half-inch penknife. Taylor of the Scotch Line, Ancona Point, is potatoes, eggs, canned lobster, an- himself escorted the police to the spot well under way and will prove a are shipping a ten ton traveling great convenience to the public, who crane to Calgary. It has been turned wish to reach points on Sturgeon out at the local plant, and is quite

Mr. Abe E. Kennedy, of Bobcay- man operating it can lift ten ton geon, has the contract and states the with ease. It weighs 8,000 pounds. for the boy. Only one cigarette was concrete on it and it will extend far busy conditions at present. A number taken from the package. Taylor pur- enough into the lake to get deep wa- of improved water wheels have been chased the cigarettes at the store on ter. Mr. Kennedy has just completed turned out and the plant is busy on a similar wharf at Bohcavgeon.

of Hope Had Departed

ed information from an official on the Young, of the city who has just re-Haliburton train that a man answer- turned from a visit to her mother in KAN AUTOMOBILE man noticed that he had blood on ing to the description of the mys- Asphodel, tells an exciting and thrilterious "James Ray", bank forger, ling experience that she had at the had had a fight. The sponge that he had got on the train in the north latter's farmhouse. Going to the and was coming Lindsay way. The room to look after her baby, sleeping Rodd, traveller for Muir, Shapley thrown away and was missed by the Chief, Constable Parks, and Mr. Geo. on the bed, she heard a peculiar Mfg. Co., and who makes Lindsay Foster lined up near the corner of noise that she at first thought was his headquarters, while returning Kent.st and Victoria Avenue as the made by a katydid. Calling her moth- from Beaverton, and as he was round train from the north came on a look- er they noticed the paper near the ing the corner on townline near John out for the stranger. They were in- ceiling of the room move and with a Campbells, to run into Lorneville, formed, however, that the man had broom touched it, when a large rat- his auto skidded, and to save an upgot off the train at Fenelon Falls. A tlesnake fell to the floor in a fighting set, he ran it down a steep embankwas that of insurance agent.

THIS SWINDLER WAS NOT RAY

the handsomest in the brother of the late James Gallon son of J. H. Brown, of Seagrave. The season threw him out breaking his leg and accident commendation has been threw him out breaking his leg and accident commendation. Taylor pleaded Mr. and Mrs. Michael Sullivan, of victimized to the extent of $3,000 by 210, while coming into Napanee from this distinction has been threw him out breaking his leg and accident occurred a little over a guilty to the charge of murdering victoria Road, was killed while out a clever swindler, who succeeded in the east this morning could not topweek ago. The boy was about ten Charlie Dawson and on the other duck hunting. It appears that Sulli- raising a check, after first having it in time to avoid a rear end collision. fall Ray, the slick swindler, who has been not coming fast, in fact not much cleaning up thousands of dollars in faster than a stiff walk, but the enbut the police quickly disposed of this The collision occurred on the theory. They are looking for a man bridge over the Napanee river at the who spent several days in Hamilton, east and of the town. The caboosestopping at an uptown hotel.

> money. After getting the accepted While in Toronto he was boarding check for $100, he carefully raised it to $3,100, and then used a perforating machine which stated that the check The mother of the deceased young which was drawn on the Bank of Commerce, was not good for more than $3,100. There was nothing about the check to raise suspicion, and it The stranger chatted pleasantly for a few minutes and then sauntered leisurely out of the place. That was the last seen of him, and the police behim Monday and yesterday, visiting all his old haunts. Messages were ed. sent broadcast to the police of other cities, giving his description. The manager of the Bank of British THIS CONSTABLE North America positively refused to discuss the case, and officials at the Bank of Commerce also remained silent beyond declaring that their bank was not interested.

NO HEADLIGHT

Port Hope, Sept. 10 .- Last night Dr. McKinley, Coroner of Port Hope, presided at the inquest into the cause of the death of Nicolo Yannone, an Italian C. P. R. trackman, who with four others was riding on a lorry on Sept. 4, which was struck by the of the Italian Consul at Toronto, sandbagging. If he had thought it who was present, stated that owing was was anyone other than an ordto the large number of Italians kill- inary tramp, or that there was more ed in various accidents it was decided than one, he would have drawn his to investigate every case.

Monster Crane

The Canadian Boving Co Limited an interesting piece of machinery. One

The local plant is enjoying very some very large orders.

Rattler Killed Near Peterboro

Peterboro, Sept. 11.-Mrs. James surance.-Echo. This morning Chief Chilton receiv-Be what you are. People are some- passenger on the train knew the man, mood. They ran from the room with ment onto a bush heap. It was gotsuspected, and said his occupation the baby and returning, killing the ten on to the road in due time, but

BAD WRECK AT NAPANEE

and coal car were thrown into the This man is said to have kept a river, one car was thrown on the small account at the bank, and in a road below the bridge, and six othsmooth way to have placed himself ers went over the high embankment. a narrow escape, but jumped under the bridge and saved his life.

Toppled Over

A few days ago Mr. William Tims, an employee of the Canadian Cereal and Flour Mills Lemited, was the victim of a painful accident, which might have had more serious results. was readily cashed when presented. He was working in the storehouse when a square of flour of considerable height toppled over. Mr. Tims was caught in the spill and one of lieve he immediately left the city. De- be laid up for some days. Had the his ankles was badly injured. He will square of flour fallen on Mr. Tims, a serious accident would have result-

WAS SANDBAGGED

When returning from Coldwater at 1 a. m. on Tuesday, Constable H. A. Nealon thought he observed a man prowling about the stone of the Georgian Bay Lumber Co. He approached the man, to find out what. he was doing. On being accosted the man with an oath made a lunge at the constable with a knife or dirk, but the blow was turned by books in the breast pocket of Mr. Nealon's coat. The constable grappled withhis assailant, and had him almost subdued when he was suddenly struck Tweed local, easthound. Yannone was from behind by another man, and killed, the others escaping by jump- rendered unconscious. After lying for ing. The Jury's verdict was in ac- some time he managed to crawl to cordance with the evidence, that in the mill and notified the watchamn. their opinion the acadent would not who carried him to the office and have happened if the engine had summoned nedical aid. Mr. Nealon is showed a headlight. A representative still suffering com the effects of revolver before accosting them. The one who drew the knife was an Italian, and he was one of a Party of three who were noticed by one of the millmen a few minutes before the constable came along. Nothing has been seen of them since, but word has been sent in all directions and it. is hoped they may be apprehended.

Haliburton Had Fire on Tuesday

Mr. W. E. Austin's barn and stable were burned to the ground Tuesday afternoon about four o'clock. The cause of the fire is not definitely known, as no one was near the premises until the fire had got beyond control. Quick work saved the buggy and cutters as well as the driving horse. Luckily there was almost no wind and the fire was confined to the building and a few nearby fences. The loss will be about $800. No infor sometime it refused to travel.

INTO BRUSH HEAP