She also attended the Missionary Congress held in St. Andrew's church, which was elevating and inspiring. Mr. and Mrs. Tinney, of Cavan, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Casey last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Wilnot Mark, of Oshawa, formerly of this place, are renewing old acquaintances. Harvesting corn and filling silos is the order of the day. Our enterprising threshers, Mr. Philip Mark and the Thompson brothers, have both purchased ensilage cutters, and are busily engaged filling silos. Mr. John Day has purchased a Johnson corn binder, which is manufactured by the Massey-Harris Co. This binder is doing excellent work, as it runs easily, and there was no packing to strip off the cobs. It is reported that Mr. Alex. Fahey realized 32 bushels of fall wheat per acre. Mr. A. P. Mark has the best yield of alfalfa clover in this section. He will have about one hundred bushels from eighteen acres. Mr. F. G. Emmerson succeeded in shooting a valuable eagle a few days since. This bird's wings measure six feet ten inches from tip to tip. The Methodist S. S. of this place purpose devoting next Sabbath as rally day. An excellent programme is being prepared, and all are cordially invited to attend and enjoy the good things in store for them. A large number of our citizens attended Oakwood Exhibition on Tuesday, 23rd inst., which was a decided success. A special prize was awarded to the young ladies attending the Oakwood public school, for a collection of their own cooking. The display presented would do credit to an adult. Our educational faculty are beginning to realize the value of an education in domestic science and kindred branches. The collection of seeds exhibited by the boys were also interesting. One boy collected forty-seven varieties of seeds.
